

Chapter 471 You Are Playing Tricks

At the hospital, Camila woke up.

Isaac offered her a glass of water and queried softly, "Are you feeling hungry?"

Camila said, "I'm not hungry. Did you get the medicine?"

"Yes," Isaac confirmed. "I've asked Alick to administer the medicine on Travis. Then I'll leave Travis under Robin's care."

Isaac had specifically inquired about the drug's function, which mainly targeted memory nerves, aiming to erase people's memories.

Camila wanted Travis to forget all the resentments.

She wanted to give him a chance to start anew.

It seemed like a good solution. Since Travis had been confined, they needed someone to keep watch over him, fearing that he might escape and cause more harm.

"Robin is critically ill. It will be beneficial for his treatment if Travis stays with him during this time," Camila suggested.

Her idea was inspired by Laura.

If one were to forget something they wouldn't dwell on it.

Isaac had no desire to discuss Robin whatsoever.

"I just want to save myself trouble by leaving Travis with Robin."

He didn't have any further considerations.

Sensing that he didn't want to talk about it, Camila intentionally changed the subject. "Can you find a job for Aldrin?"

She didn't want him to be idle since he no longer had the company.

"I'll sort it out," Isaac assured her.

Isaac's phone suddenly vibrated.

He picked it up.

Jaylen shouted, "Isaac, are you messing with me?"

Isaac raised an eyebrow and sneered, "Aren't you shameless?"

Jaylen grew annoyed. "You're not much better than me, are you?"

Isaac had no patience for his rants, so he swiftly disconnected the call.

Jaylen was shocked. "Did he hang up on me?"

His assistant commented, "We thought we could help Robin by saving Travis and find a rival for Isaac. But we didn't anticipate that Isaac would reclaim Travis. It's truly not worth it. You've also fallen into a trap, and people from the company have been poached..."

"That's enough!"

Jaylen was already seething with anger.

Upon hearing the assistant discussing the details, his annoyance only intensified!

He had never been able to defeat Isaac.

He had assumed victory was in his grasp, but yet again, he was defeated.

"Considering Isaac's wife is in the hospital, maybe we could exploit that?" His assistant proposed a scheme.

"Be warned, this woman isn't easy to handle," Jaylen cautioned, shooting a glance at his assistant.

"She seems frail and vulnerable..."

"You clearly don't grasp the situation." Having experienced Camila's resilience firsthand, Jaylen understood her strength.

"She's in the hospital? What for?"

The assistant responded, "She underwent plastic surgery there, for an upcoming wedding as I heard."

"Wedding?" Jaylen fell deep into contemplation.

Camila and Isaac were a couple with two children. However, their relationship was known only to a few people in the outside world.

He knew what Isaac was thinking

"We may not find any weaknesses in him, but there are bound to be vulnerabilities at the wedding.."

Jaylen inquired, "Is there another woman who deeply loves Travis?"

"Yes." The assistant quickly got the hint. "Can we use this woman?"

Jaylen sneered, "I suppose I should send them a gift, shouldn't I?"

Camila requested Isaac to step out.

"What are you up to?"

Isaac was confused.

"Go and get me some food," she replied.

Isaac furrowed his brows. Was she merely trying to drive him away?

She had just refused him when he asked if she was hungry. And now she claimed to be hungry.

He stood up and exited the room, but he didn't actually leave. Instead, he secretly observed what she was planning to do.
