

212 A strange situation[2]

Kayden began to use the momentum to shape his heart and veins. His focus this time was to mix his blood veins with mana even more, making the amount of mana greater, and, as ridiculous as it seemed, he felt his body responding positively. This opened a new world in Kayden's mind. 1

Maybe in the future, he could just be mana coursing through his body. That would be ridiculously powerful, but that was a thought for another time. Kayden continued to build on the momentum to make as much progress as he could in a short amount of time.

After a few minutes of ridiculous pain, Kayden didn't feel like he was making any more progress and just let nature finish its advance. His body began to expel some black substances from all of his pores.

The pain lessened considerably as he saw his muscles being improved, his bones becoming more resilient and his mana control receiving a small, almost insignificant increase.

This process took another 30 minutes before Kayden was finally able to move forward solidly. As soon as he opened his eyes...

'What the fuck?' As absurd as the situation was, it was happening in front of him while his three friends were having sex without the slightest shame. Kayden looked into their eyes and automatically noticed that they were under the effect of the seed.

It was a strong effect, it was probably hidden in the seeds. As soon as Kayden opened his eyes, the three of them turned to him instantly. For a few seconds, nothing happened other than them staring at each other. Then, Anabela said in her thinnest and firmest voice possible.

"Why don't you join us?" Along with her, Ashley started rubbing her private parts in a flashy way. Kayden didn't even react as he evaluated the possibilities and how he could free his companions from this effect.

The two began to approach with Anthony following like a puppy. Kayden thought about trying to wake up his friends, but to do that he would have to find the best opportunity, so he put his stupidest smile on his face and approached the two.

Fighting directly was out of the question. Kayden was capable of killing the three if he gave his all, but incapacitating them was another story, even more so considering that he could feel the amount of mana in their bodies and that this contaminated mana could be used by them.

Within seconds, he noticed all these factors and came up with a smart plan. Anyone would classify him as dishonest, but he didn't care. He needed his allies to be in the best condition to continue.

"Of course, girls, I'm all yours, but I only have relationships with those who have spells that luxuriously overflow mana. Furthermore, it must be done during the act." The boy waited for the three's reactions and realized that they maintained a certain degree of rationality, as they first stopped to think about what he said.

Luckily it wasn't much, and Ashley released a huge dragon's breath into the sky. Kayden felt the mana in the girl's body falling. Then, Anabela released a huge meteor on the wall with a lot more earth and flames. He dismantled it in the air, but it was very eye-catching. Even Anthony used his blanket to fly.

"Now you must fulfill your promise. I won't even do a spell before you " The sentence that came out of Anabela's mouth would be perfectly placed on the lips of a prostitute of the lowest echelon.

Without any weight on his conscience, Kayden began the act with the three of them. Anyone else would have left a mark on their conscience, but Kayden just treated it as a peculiar experience.

"Spells!"

Meteor, rain with the blanket, and a purple dragon's breath.

After a few more minutes of sex, Kayden remained fully aware without caring about the pleasure. The man was descending rapidly, and they seemed more and more aware of their actions. 1

"Spells! I want a really big one now, the best you can make." After a few more spell sessions, Kayden felt Anabela the closest to breaking free, and when she launched a ridiculously large meteor that fell apart as soon as it was cast, his eyes regained all consciousness.

"A!" His first action was to fall to the ground while screaming. Kayden thought nothing of it as she went into shock at the scene of Ashley, dealing with two at once and dealing with all of her memories.

"Ashley, release the biggest fire I've ever seen in my life, come on!" The next one to regain consciousness was the dragon girl, and she reacted very similarly to Anabela. The difference is that she just fell to the ground and stayed still. Anthony looked at the two with crazy eyes, but before he could take a step forward, Kayden attacked him.

While the two girls dealt with the enormous emotional burden they were suffering, Kayden forced Anthony to regain consciousness, and it only took a few more minutes for him to get the boy conscious again.

The three remained silent while Kayden put on his clothes and only at that moment did they start to get dressed too. The group was quiet for a few minutes, with everyone reflecting on the experience. The only calm one was Kayden, who didn't even waste his time and started thinking about his next bondage concept.

"I'm at least halfway through the fourth rank," Anthony commented to break the silence of long minutes. The ones who led the fastest with this were he and the dragon girl, mainly because they weren't virgins before this and because they needed power as soon as possible for personal reasons.

"You are an idiot? I lost my virginity to practically two strangers!" Anabela screamed.

"Already happened. There's no point dwelling on this situation. The seed takes away only a part of consciousness. You were not completely obligated to do what you did. But as they were feeling pleasure, their mind just accepted it. If you want someone to blame, blame yourself," Kayden's voice cut off any conversation and they just remained silent, each with their thoughts.

Anthony was feeling bad because he had a girlfriend outside of this dungeon, and this was an act of betrayal, even if it wasn't entirely his fault.

Ashley was just thinking about the power gain she had gained and would do it again. It wasn't painful and she needed the power to face situations in her home.

Anabela was simply a storm of emotions, shame, hatred, and regret, all mixed. How was she going to tell her parents this? She has always been overprotective and didn't even think about hiding this situation.

"Hey! You two, apply high-density mana to your genitals to avoid pregnancy," Kayden's speech made them both blush. He just talked about this matter as if it was nothing.

"Let's sign a contract that this won't go away," then took out a contract that tied the four of them to this secret.

"I need to tell my girlfriend," Anthony's voice was low.

"And me to my parents!!" Anabela screamed her words as she looked close to freaking out. Kayden sighed seeing how pathetic they were.

"Would you rather risk losing your relationship over something that wasn't even your fault? Besides hurting your partner for the rest of your life, just sign the contract and forget about it," Kayden turned to Anabela. "And you're going to embarrass your parents with something so futile? Just sign it and bury this secret forever. They don't need to know every single issue in your life."

Anthony was the first to be influenced by Kayden's words and signed the contract shortly after Ashley. His nature forced him to be honest with his spouse, but the situation shook his mind and made Kayden's statement influence him.

"But..."

"But what? Is it your life or theirs? Are you a puppet or a living being? Haven't you at least gained strength? Just accept it and bury this matter once and for all," the girl was completely shaken, and Kayden's words created the first seeds of rebellion in her perfectly controlled life, and soon after she signed the contract.

Kayden breathed a sigh of relief. If they didn't sign this contract, he would be forced to kill the three of them so that the secret wouldn't leak out and reach Sarah's ears. The support of the Brriten family was important to him, even though he had that of the royal family. Kayden still preferred to play on the safe side.

"Let's continue?" The group just accepted Kayden's speech and decided to deal with their emotions later. As soon as they left the resting point, they entered a room with another wooden spirit in the center and another chest. It was the same environment, but this time the character in the center was a little smaller and thinner, in addition, his leaves were arranged on his body forming a kind of cloak.

"Careful!" Kayden screamed a second before a hail of wooden spikes flew at them. Fortunately, Anthony managed to gather his blanket and protect the group, but...
