

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 647

Henry and Nathaniel did not notice their existence and left after a while.

Lily was frozen, her eyes staring into the void before her. For a long while, she stood still, her arms clenched into fists by her sides.

Alexander turned her around and hugged her. "We'll make them pay!"

After getting off the observation deck, Edward had already returned to the car. After they were all seated, Edward turned his head and said, "Mr. Russell, I've arranged everything."

"Good." Alexander nodded.

Lily did not ask him what he wanted Edward to do. She was utterly lost in her thoughts.

wished to start with the scented candles, they presumably wanted to make her defenseless against the claim. The candles must have been identical in both appearance

La Beauté Group's branch in Sapphire have materials nodded, "Yes, but this branch hasn't been open for I'm fine with it! Can you take me there now?"

of time, do you think you can make it?" Alexander was unsure what she wanted to do, but he guessed it was probably to deal with the framing. It was just that time. was so short. What with certainty. She raised her wrist to look at the time on her watch. "Since we're out, we need to do something so they're not disappointed, right?" Alexander drove straight toward

As soon as he booted up the computer, he inserted the flash drive rubbed his hands with high expectations as he looked at the computer screen. There were only a few things in the flash drive.

'Huh?"

closer, his expression changed.