

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 801

Upon reaching home, Joseph looked for his daughter straight away.

"Where's Ari? Hasn't she come back yet?"

He appeared anxious.

At this moment, Eloise sat in the living room, sipping tea and watching TV. She replied unhurriedly, "Isn't she at the company? Why are you back so early today?"

"It's urgent!" Joseph yelled anxiously.

"Why hasn't Ari come home yet? I left the company when I saw her leaving. Why hasn't she arrived home yet? Did something happen to her on her way home?"

Eloise glanced at him in surprise and said, "Hey, you're a weird one. Since you watched her leave, why didn't you call out to her? You could've talked to her at the company, but why did you have to wait till you got home?"

Joseph was in a foul mood and rebuked, "You know nothing! There are so many people at the company, and there are some things that we can't discuss there. I was thinking of talking to her at home, but why isn't she back yet?"

He took out his phone to make a call as he spoke.
