

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 837

Arianna was much calmer compared to her father. She sat calmly behind her desk full of various documents. Recently, many problems happened in the company. In addition to the recent crisis, besides the higher-ups, she was the one in charge.

However, most of the higher-ups were just there for the title of the company's shares. They participated in dividends but did not care much about daily management. In the past, Derrick was in charge, and occasionally Benedict. Now no one could intervene as she was the one with absolute authority.

Joseph saw Arianna sitting with delicate makeup, and her aura seemed completely different. He vaguely felt his daughter was not the same, but he did not know what it was. It was an indescribable feeling, making him uneasy.

"Ari, you have to give me an explanation. What the he is going on?! Why is Damian still involved in this?!" He asked angrily.

and glanced at him. She did not speak yet— instead, she lowered her head to review the document, signed her name, closed it, and put it aside. Only then did she calmly say, "Dad, are you just here to

Joseph was stunned as her thing? I proposed and established the new project department at the beginning. I also wanted the professionals to do it, but you were the one who

Damian's faults as she lost her previous

"Ari, you..."

that Damian is an idiot? He knows nothing but is always around to point fingers. Damian doesn't understand anything but wants to take control of the company. He was born with a son, even if he would destroy the Tanner family." Her voice suddenly increased as she