

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 843

After all, there was no conclusive evidence. Although the Tanner Corporation put precedence on the case, La Beaute Group was difficult to mess with. Alexander went through the formalities and quickly released Lily on bail.

There was nothing to say along the way, but his face was gloomy. Alexander was furious, and Lily noticed it. It would be better if he had said something, but he did not. It seemed like an enormous storm was brewing.

She took one of his hands lightly and said, "I'm fine."

Alexander looked at his wife and remained silent. He only turned his hand over and held hers.

to answer a few questions for the investigation. They don't have any conclusive evidence and only some speculative insinuations," up with Damian earlier so nervous about this matter since it had nothing to do with her. After all, the judge would look at the evidence even if she went to court. However, if but her smile dissipated his anger. Still, he was furious that these people were courageous enough funny to think about such a botched scheme?" Lily leaned on him, feeling that his anger was

I'm unsure if it was part it did not make sense for Joseph but went to the wrong door and found