

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 864

Damian lifted his head and narrowed his eyes at Nathaniel. He also knew of Nathaniel's past and had heard about Nathaniel's failed attempt at sustaining his business, resulting in MN Inc.'s bankruptcy.

Nathaniel was in a lot of debt and treated like a pest on the streets.

Everyone wanted to either stay away from him or beat him up. Damian was not sure who had helped him, but Nathaniel had ended up becoming one of the project managers at Tanner Corporation. It was mainly because of this that Damian disliked him.

Damian thought he did not have the right to be in that position because he was a failure. He had even suspected something unusual had happened between Nathaniel and was just like Nathaniel prison. Plus, I can ensure you will no longer worry about your reputation when appearing in public. Then you can return to work at Tanner Corporation as usual. Better yet, you might even obtain a higher position." Nathaniel gleam in his eyes, but soon after,

His laughter was mocking both Nathaniel and course, I want this to be true, but how can it be possible?!' Damian thought. The current situation was not Nathaniel turned around." Come with me if you're ambitious enough to look at him, he quickly followed. As they exited the abandoned building, Damian realized he did not know where they were. The building looked like an abandoned construction site, and he was locked in a small, empty

Damian looked at his back for a while before shuffling over to him slowly. However, he dared not chose to remain behind Nathaniel. "What are to help you." Nathaniel smiled. "But, it all depends on you. Are