

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 946

Lily did not know that Justin had something to tell her, but he swallowed his words after learning about her pregnancy.

Justin sat silently in his car for a long moment before finally saying, "Go to La Beauté Group."

Alexander had just finished signing a document for his employee, who then walked out of his office.

Soon after, Justin came into the room unannounced.

"I heard from Lily that you came over to our place earlier. Why didn't you stay longer instead of coming here?"

Alexander put the cap back on his pen and continued, "You're not here to talk business with me, are you?"

Justin walked over and sat on the sofa opposite Alexander's desk. Both his hands were on his knees as he looked up.

"Have you heard of the Riggs?"

"Pigs?"

a moment before he explained, "No, I meant the Riggs family, that's known for

"I know about them. My uncle is going raised brow, Justin asked in slight

know about my own

it was not expression again, he guessed that the man was probably at his office for here just because Justin nodded.

but I don't want her to be bothered by all these things since I now know that she's pregnant. I thought that I should knew that Justin was a cautious person, and he must have had something important a chair,

"I'm listening."

Riggs family's capabilities. Although they had been keeping lowkey for many new head of the family, who is also the arranged marriage with your uncle, she'll see Lily often in the future. According to the rules, Lily must address her as Aunt Heather. It'd be