

Chapter 1738 The Association's Hideout

Midnight's face turned livid with anger. He glared at the man in front of him and shouted angrily, "Lone Wolf! You've gone too far! How dare you kill my prisoner?"

However, Lone Wolf was unfazed by Midnight's anger and sneered, pretending not to know what Midnight was talking about. "Prisoner? Where is he? I just saw a corpse lying there. Wait, is that your prisoner?"

Midnight was so furious that his blood was boiling in his veins. However, he knew he wouldn't have the upper hand if a fight broke out here. His face trembling with anger, he glared fiercely at the other man and said, "Wait and see. This is far from over!"

Without another word, he got in the car and left, leaving his nephew, Prescott, behind.

It wasn't until he saw that Midnight's car had disappeared that Trevor finally came out.

Prescott's eyes widened the moment he saw Trevor. He turned his head and stared at Trevor, his eyes were red with anger.

"Raven! I see! You set me up on purpose, right? This was your plan! Bastard! Just wait and see!"

Unfazed, Trevor walked up to Prescott calmly. He spread out his hands and said innocently, "I told you that there must be escaped criminals at the harbor. Haven't you seen the escaped prisoners here? But you are so useless you couldn't even seize the opportunity to catch them. You can't blame me now!"

Prescott's anger only grew stronger. Gritting his teeth, he glared at Trevor, as if he wanted to eat Trevor raw. However, there were members of the Wolf faction everywhere, so Prescott didn't dare to do anything reckless. He said with a gloomy face, "Let's see how long you can be arrogant!"

With that, he left in a hurry.

He knew that if he didn't leave right away, the next corpse could be his.

As soon as Prescott left, Lone Wolf pulled Trevor aside and asked in a low voice, "We don't have much time left! Why don't you do it?"

Trevor deliberately pulled a long face and complained, "It hasn't been long since you gave me this task! I need time. Besides, you should have discussed with me first before setting that trap at the harbor. You alerted him. Now it would be difficult for me to get close to him. After all, I'm still a member of the Wolf faction, at least in appearance!"

Lone Wolf touched his chin and thought for a moment. Finding what Trevor had said was reasonable, he decided to stop asking questions. He awkwardly cleared his throat and said, "Okay, then, I leave it up to you to kill him. But you have to do it as soon as possible! If you need anything, just tell me. I will put everything at your disposal. Don't let me down!"

Hearing Lone Wolf's words, Trevor couldn't help but laugh in his heart. He thought that the man was really too gullible!

Since Lone Wolf said so, Trevor didn't hesitate to make a request. "Tell all the people of our faction not to make a move if we find an escaped prisoner. I will use the information to set up a trap for Midnight!"

Lone Wolf nodded quickly and readily agreed. "No problem. Call me if you need anything."

After saying that, Lone Wolf left.

The attack at the harbor had failed, and for the time being, the matter was settled.

There was no one to deal with the corpse of Bellamy. It was likely that it would eventually be thrown into the sea.

Trevor took his leave and returned to his apartment to await the opportunity.

The next morning, as soon as Trevor woke up, he received a call from Lone Wolf.

Trevor, who was still a little sleepy, suddenly sobered up and answered the phone.

Lone Wolf had important information to share with Trevor.

He said in a hurry, "Raven! Someone just reported to me they found the association's hideout. You better take action as soon as possible. I will text you the exact address!"

"No problem. Midnight will definitely fall into my trap!" Trevor said confidently.

Trevor was overjoyed at this moment. After hanging up the phone, he was deep in thought and murmured to himself, "Great! I didn't expect Lone Wolf to be so nice! He gave me the information I needed! He is truly generous."
