

Chapter 1921 Luisa Is Missing

After curing Alden, Trevor rushed back to the Archer family's residence. He was so worried about Luisa.

As soon as he walked into the villa, Jeffry came up to him. Jeffry's anxious look didn't bode well. He said hesitantly to Trevor, "You're back at last. Luisa is missing. We just came back, and after looking around the whole house, we couldn't find her. We have really searched everywhere in the villa."

Trevor's heart tightened upon hearing that.

He quickly pulled out his phone and dialed Luisa's number. The call didn't go through.

On the other side, Luisa had just arrived at the Craig family's villa and she was standing in front of Curtis.

After chatting with Luisa for a while, Curtis learned that she was the girlfriend of Trevor, the eldest son of the Sanderson family.

This new information sent Curtis in panic mode. The Sanderson family was one of the most powerful families.

Curtis managed to convince Luisa to turn off her phone with a lie.

"Maybe there is a tracker installed in your phone. You should turn it off quickly least Raven find your location. If he knows you are here, he will come here and take you back in no time!"

Since Luisa had lost quite a lot of her memory, she trusted Curtis and turned off her phone.

That was why Trevor couldn't reach her.

That wasn't enough for Curtis. He didn't want to leave any clues that could lead Raven back to him. So, he contacted the police who were more or less in the service of the Craig family and arranged for the surveillance camera videos showing Luisa going to the Craig family's residence to be destroyed.

Once he had taken care of everything, Curtis felt relieved. He looked at Luisa lustfully and continued to deceive her, lying that he was Trevor.

Luisa couldn't think clearly in her present state, and she actually believed that Curtis was Trevor.

Suddenly, a flash of memory came to her mind. It was a scene of what happened after the attack in Dreles. She looked at Curtis intently and asked, "How are your father and grandfather? Were they all right after the villa was attacked?"

Alas, Curtis didn't know much about the attack in Dreles. So he didn't know how to answer Luisa's question. He just smiled awkwardly and said, "They are fine."

Curtis' vague answer and the awkward look on his face made Luisa feel something was wrong and she even began to doubt Curtis was truly Trevor as he claimed.

Although she had lost her memory, she was not a fool.

On the other side, Trevor had checked the surveillance video of the Archer family and found that Luisa left in Connie's car.

A burning anger immediately surged up in his heart and he muttered to himself in a cold voice, "It's you again!"

Braden was also furious when he heard the news.

They were only gone for a short while, but it was enough for Connie to make yet another mistake! And it was a big mistake this time.

She had offended the Sanderson family.

Braden asked his men to bring Connie to him quickly. The men followed Braden's order, and in a matter of minutes, Connie was standing in front of Braden. The man glared at his daughter and questioned her loudly, "Luisa is missing and it turns out she left the villa in your sports car. How do you explain it? Can't you just avoid causing trouble all the time? Now you tell me what happened!"

Connie was stunned. She didn't expect that what she did would be discovered so soon. She was so scared that she didn't dare to say a word.

This only made Braden even more furious. He slapped Connie hard across the face and roared, "You'd better speak up, or you are leaving the Archer family right away!"

He didn't say this merely to frighten Connie. He meant it.

He knew that if Trevor really wanted to go after Connie he would not be able to protect her.

Connie couldn't bear the pressure and finally said in a low voice, "I took her out..."

Braden's mind went blank. He picked up the golf club beside him and broke Connie's leg.

"Ah!" Connie screamed in pain and curled up on the floor.

She was becoming more and more panicked. She didn't dare tell them that it was a plot with the Craig family.

She was actually afraid that Braden would discover she had plotted with Ewing in stealing the assets of the Archer family.
