

Chapter 1924 Hand Over Luisa!

While Curtis was rejoicing at this discovery, Trevor just arrived at the entrance of the villa.

Trevor broke down the gate of the Craig family's villa, which crashed with a loud noise.

The car drifted for a while and finally stopped in front of Curtis.

Trevor got off the car angrily and grabbed Curtis' collar.

"Where is Luisa? Take her out now! If anything happens to her, I'll kill you!" he roared angrily.

Although Curtis was scared, he refused to admit that Luisa was here and instead decided to play dumb.

"What's wrong with you? Luisa is not here. If she's missing you can go to the police station. Why do you come to my house?"

However, Trevor was in no mood to argue with Curtis. He slapped Curtis hard across the face and said in a cold voice, "I will say it one more time, take her out now! Give me back Luisa! You either do that or I'll destroy the Craig family today!"

Curtis couldn't stand Trevor threatening him over and over again, and he became really angry. He glared at Trevor and sneered disdainfully.

"You are really cocky! I should remind you that this is not the Archer family. There's no one here to back you up, so why are you so arrogant?"

He snorted. "Besides, are you so naive that you think the Archer family is a match for the Craig family? Let me be very clear. Even if Luisa was at my house, I won't hand her over to you, and there's nothing you can do about that!"

Braden arrived at this time.

After receiving the message from Kaden, he drove as fast as he could to the Craig family's residence.

Braden pointed at Curtis angrily and roared, "Let the lady go! We have found out that Luisa is in your house. Don't play dumb with us. Bring her out now, or the Archer family will not let you go."

Hearing Braden's words, Curtis was speechless. Braden's attitude really surprised him.

He couldn't believe the Archer family would side with an outsider like Trevor and directly confront him. But that didn't really matter since he was ready to deal with the Archer family now. So, he said casually, "So what? The Archer family is almost done! You all can go to hell!"

Right now Curtis was inwardly thanking Connie for constantly draining the Archer family's assets.

He turned to his assistant who was standing next to him and ordered, "Attack the Archer family business now. Let the whole world know that the Archer family is done! If everyone sells their stock in a fit of panic, we can buy it at a cheap price."

Braden thought Curtis was bluffing, so he retorted disdainfully, "Curtis, why are you so naive? How can you say such a silly thing? As the master of the Craig family, you need to think twice before you say anything like that."

No sooner had Braden finished speaking than he received an incoming call from Jeffry.

Braden furrowed his brows when he saw the incoming call, but eventually answered it. As soon as the phone was connected, Jeffry's anxious voice came from the other end of the phone

"Dad, bad news! The assets of our group have mysteriously disappeared. We are attacked by the Craig family, and many shareholders are selling their shares. If things go on like this, the company will go bankrupt in no time."

Braden was shocked. So what Curtis said was true!

Braden suddenly appeared to have aged several years and he collapsed to the ground and passed out. His phone fell to the ground next to him.

Looking at the old man lying on the ground, Curtis laughed complacently. He pointed at Trevor and provoked him more arrogantly.

"This is the consequence of stepping in my way! Now, the Archer family is almost done. They can't even protect themselves. How can you fight against me with no one backing you up? By the way, I also want to thank you for bringing Luisa to Clouauro. Thanks to you, our medical research can go further!"

"Son, the Sanderson family has come back. We are returning to Zayden
