

Chapter 1926 Luisa Can't Leave!

Luisa's hesitation convinced Curtis that she believed his lies. He pretended to be affectionate and started persuading her to stay with him.

"Luisa, you can't go with them! It was not easy for you to escape the Archer family. You can't just go back with them. They are liars. They want to trick you into leaving! I'm the only one who truly loves you."

But Luisa had already seen through Curtis's trick and knew that he was not a good man.

She didn't fall prey to his cajoling and instead remained where she was.

Curtis suddenly realized that Luisa wasn't listening to him at all. That probably meant that she didn't believe him anymore. But he couldn't let her go so easily. He still needed her for his research in the Craig family's lab.

So Curtis decided to do away with his mask of infatuated lover and keep her here by any means necessary.

Gradually, his easy and charming expression fell away and in its place was a fierce scowl. He ordered the bodyguards in a loud voice, "Stop Luisa! Don't let her go! She must not leave the house of the Craig family!"

The bodyguards started moving towards Luisa to carry out their boss's orders, but Trevor was faster than them. He attacked all the men before they knew what hit them. In a flurry of movements, all the bodyguards went down in a heap.

But there was still one bodyguard left, the man with a hooked nose. He did his best to fend off Trevor, but Trevor was so livid that he barely had any control left.

He dodged the bodyguard's attack, but he didn't retreat for too long. Before the bodyguard could try and attack him again, Trevor started punching and kicking the bodyguard madly. He didn't stop until the bodyguard couldn't move again.

"Ah!! Ah!"

The bodyguard screeched in pain and went out of control once again. But

The bodyguard screamed in pain and went out of control once again. But Trevor didn't let up. He kicked the bodyguard in the chest with all his might. The bodyguard crashed against the wall from the force of Trevor's kick. He fell to the ground in a heap and didn't move again.

Luisa was amazed by Trevor's fighting skills.

Vaguely, she could remember that her fiancée, Trevor, was a very skilled fighter.

The thought bolstered her belief that Trevor was telling the truth, so she followed him out.

Curtis became very anxious when he saw that Luisa was about to be taken away.

Since his subordinates couldn't defeat Trevor, he decided to report the issue to the patriarch of the family.

"Luisa perfectly adapted to the semi-finished oral medicine. It's important for the research in the lab. We can't let her go!"

The head of the family was shocked at the revelation. As the patriarch of the family, he knew better than Curtis what it meant to perfectly adapt to the semi-finished oral medicine. He immediately ordered, "Ethan! Go and bring her back, get the others to stop that man! We can't let them leave the Craig family!"

Per his boss's orders, Ethan approached Trevor and tried to subdue him.

Trevor was completely done with these bodyguards. He didn't want to waste any more time fighting them. He took out his phone and quickly called Kaden.

"I order you, in the name of Klein, to gather all the armed forces in your police station as soon as possible and come to the Craig family house as soon as possible!"

Publicly, Trevor was Kaden's superior, but privately, he was the man who saved the life of Kaden's father.

Kaden immediately replied, "Yes, sir!"

After hanging up the phone, Trevor looked at the head of the Craig family and said coldly, "I advise you to stop getting in my way. If you keep at this and the police meet us here, you won't be able to escape so easily."

The head of the Craig family snorted derisively. Trevor had to be bluffing, there was no way he could have called the police on them. He raised a brow and declared, "I won't let her go! What can you do to me?"

The words were barely out of his mouth when the police whistle rang, and a line of police cars broke into the villa of the Craig family.

Before anyone of them could speak, a large group of policemen rushed forward and surrounded the house.

The head of the Craig family and Curtis were equally stunned. How had the police reached here in such a short period of time?
