

Chapter 1929 Exposed Identity!

Dumbfounded, Trevor raised his hands in a gesture of surrender and tried to explain.

"Luisa, you've misunderstood me. I'm not a bad person! The person who called me is the leader of one of the factions within Mobius, just like I explained to you earlier. I'm an undercover agent within their organization. We intend to destroy them."

However, Luisa didn't believe anything he said.

She just wanted to put some distance between herself and Trevor.

She insisted firmly, "It doesn't matter anymore whether you are a bad person or not. I just want to leave here and rent a place outside. Please stop following me."

With that, Luisa picked up her already packed luggage and headed outside.

Trevor was gutted to realize that Luisa had lost all trust in him. But he still ran after her and tried to explain the situation to her again.

"Luisa, I'm telling you the truth. I really am an undercover agent within Mobius. My identity is fake! I think the leader might be aware of this or suspects it. He could have sent other assassins to kidnap you. If you go out now to rent a place, you might run into them. It's like walking into a trap!"

Unfortunately for Trevor, Luisa remained unmoved by his words. She continued walking towards the front door, determined to move out at that very moment.

Trevor tried a few more times to change Luisa's mind, but when he realized that Luisa couldn't be convinced, he gave up. Left with no other choice, Trevor followed behind Luisa, afraid that she would run into trouble again.

Unfortunately, Trevor's concerns were soon realized.

Lone Wolf had indeed made other preparations and only informed Trevor at the last moment.

He stared at Trevor condescendingly and offered mock congratulations.

"Congratulations, deputy leader! I'm here on Lone Wolf's orders. My code name is Lamb. You truly deserve to be the deputy leader! You've successfully completed the mission so quickly. When the leader finds out, he will surely reward you generously. Please hand over Luisa. Lone Wolf ordered me to bring her to him."

Trevor's face darkened.

Earlier, when he told Luisa about Lone Wolf's plan, he had been speculating. He didn't truly expect Lone Wolf to act so quickly.

Just as he was about to come up with an excuse, Luisa screeched in fear, pallor-stricken. She turned and ran off as fast as her legs could carry her.

As far as she was concerned, there wasn't a single good person in this place.

When Lamb saw Luisa fleeing, his eyes flashed with sinister intent and he immediately gave chase.

Instinctively, Trevor gave chase when Lamb started running after Luisa. The situation had devolved so fast.

Exceptional hearing was not the only enhanced physical abilities Luisa gained. Now, she could run even faster and managed to cover a long distance within a short time.

Unfortunately, her physical stamina was no match for that of a Mobius official assassin.

When Trevor saw that Lamb was about to catch up with Luisa, he changed tactics.

He still followed hot on Lamb's heels, but instead of trying to get to Luisa first, he planned to attack Lamb.

This killer posed a threat to Luisa's safety and Trevor would never allow any harm to befall Luisa.

Unfortunately for Trevor, Lamb was prepared for Trevor to betray him. He sneered and dodged Trevor's sudden attack.

He came to a stop and looked at Trevor with a cruel smile. "Humph! It appears that Lone Wolf guessed correctly. You've betrayed Mobius! Traitors must die!"

While Trevor wished he had succeeded in his sneak attack, he wasn't very surprised that it failed.

He offered his own cruel smile and said disdainfully, "Guessing doesn't change anything. Do you really think you can defeat me?"

Trevor was the deputy leader and that meant he was more skilled than Lamb, and Lamb was also aware of this, but didn't want to admit defeat.

just yet. He sneered and growled, "Then let's find out if this deputy leader has what it takes to defeat me!"
