

Chapter 1933 Trevor's Scheme

Trevor was quite shocked to learn all this. He sighed heavily and murmured to himself, "It seems that it's time to end the relationship with Mobius. Lone Wolf took action faster than I expected!"

The oddity of the situation suddenly occurred to him and he couldn't help but wonder why Lone Wolf was suddenly prepared to deal with him.

He quickly typed out a reply to Esteban and asked, "What happened? Why did Lone Wolf decide to deal with me so quickly? The last time I spoke to him, he wanted to go to Zayden to see me. What made him change his tune so quickly?"

He received Esteban's reply immediately. "I think that Lone Wolf has suspected you for a long time. A few days ago, the Sanderson family returned to Zayden and announced that they were going to fight against Mobius. Lone Wolf took advantage of it to send a group of killers to test you.

Then he kept in touch with the killers he sent out to know the situation. When he suddenly lost contact with them, Lone Wolf concluded that you were the spy in Mobius. You killed the killers. He also came to the conclusion that you were the one that killed Cheetah and Bear."

Trevor frowned. Lone Wolf was smarter than he gave him credit for. He noticed every anomaly.

Esteban continued, "Lone Wolf chose not to expose your duplicity to other factions because he wanted to protect the group's dignity. He plans to kill you by himself.

After he started suspecting you, he began to distrust me too. All the men he took with him this time are all his trusted men. You have to be careful. Don't fall into Lone Wolf's hands."

A determined glint shone in Trevor's eyes. His arm was injured but he would never cower, even if Lone Wolf showed up himself.

After all, they were not in Glareder now. If Lone Wolf came here, he could catch him.

Trevor not only had the police, but the Klein's support as well. He had no

Mobius. Lone Wolf took advantage of it to send a group of killers to test you.

Then he kept in touch with the killers he sent out to know the situation. When he suddenly lost contact with them, Lone Wolf concluded that you were the spy in Mobius. You killed the killers. He also came to the conclusion that you were the one that killed Cheetah and Bear."

Trevor frowned. Lone Wolf was smarter than he gave him credit for. He noticed every anomaly.

Esteban continued, "Lone Wolf chose not to expose your duplicity to other factions because he wanted to protect the group's dignity. He plans to kill you by himself.

After he started suspecting you, he began to distrust me too. All the men he took with him this time are all his trusted men. You have to be careful. Don't fall into Lone Wolf's hands."

A determined glint shone in Trevor's eyes. His arm was injured but he would never cower, even if Lone Wolf showed up himself.

After all, they were not in Glareder now. If Lone Wolf came here, he could catch him.

Trevor not only had the police, but the Klein's support as well. He had no reason to fear Lone Wolf.

But right now, Trevor's main focus was on how to help Luisa regain her memory. Madison's words replayed in his mind. She had said that there was a big secret in the semi-finished medicine.

If Madison and the others couldn't figure out what the secret of the semi-finished medicine was, perhaps the Craig family knew something about it?

Yes! They made it, so they must definitely have information the others didn't. He had to ask Curtis about the secret of the semi-finished medicine. His answers could hold the key to unlocking Luisa's memory.

Now that he had made a decision, he started working on speaking to Curtis at once. However, he learned that Curtis had suffered a severe blow and was out of his mind.

The minute he saw another individual in front of him, regardless of their identity, Curtis would start screaming that he was Trevor, the young master of the Sanderson family. And that he was Luisa's boyfriend.

A thought suddenly occurred to Trevor and he blurted, "Curtis believes he's me! Whether he is truly crazy or not, I can use him to lure Lone Wolf here!"

As soon as the thought took root in his mind, he called Jasmine and explained his plan to her, "I'm going to use Curtis to catch the leader of Wolf faction, but I have to release him first, and then...."

< Chapter 1933 Trevor's Scheme

 +120 Points at most

Jasmine was amazed to hear of his plan. Sighing softly, she gushed, "You are quite smart. Just go ahead and take him. I will help you apply for the process!"