

Chapter 1936 Lone Wolf's Test

Having decided on a course of action, Lone Wolf took out his phone and dialed Esteban's number. When the call was answered, he declared without preamble, "There's an operation in Clouauro, and we're short on manpower. Hurry up and bring your people over!"

Esteban responded dismissively, "Understood. I'll be there right away."

Once the call was over, Esteban's expression changed. Eager and spirited, he quickly relayed the information to Trevor.

"Sir, what's the situation in Clouauro? Lone Wolf just ordered me to bring my men over there, but I don't know what he wants. I'll arrive in Clouauro tomorrow. What should I do next?"

Trevor wasn't surprised by this news.

The Wolf faction had always been short on manpower.

With one of Lone Wolf's trusted subordinates eliminated, they were naturally in need of more hands.

After some thought, Trevor instructed Esteban, "It's nothing much. We just made him suffer a minor setback today and took down one of his trusted subordinates. I suspect he's calling you to deal with me. Given the current situation, he has no one else to turn to.

However, he doesn't completely trust you right now, considering the fact that I recommended you. When you arrive in Clouauro, the first thing Lone Wolf will do is to test your loyalty. Think about how to gain his trust. Be cautious and don't reveal any weakness he can use against you."

Esteban nodded thoughtfully and replied, "Got it. You also need to be careful."

Early the next morning Esteban arrived in Clouauro. The moment he got to the location Lone Wolf had told him, he was surrounded by Lone Wolf's men.

Lone Wolf's expression was gloomy and resentful.

"Raven has betrayed Mobius, but his left arm is injured. This is the perfect time to deal with him. That's why I called you here."

Lone Wolf studied the expression of Esteban and his men closely.

Fortunately for Esteban, Trevor already informed him that something like this could happen.

So he already instructed his men in advance.

However, he couldn't help but marvel at Trevor's ability to predict things so accurately.

But for Lone Wolf's sake, Esteban affected an angry scowl and growled, "What? Someone dared to betray Mobius? Such a person should be executed immediately."

"Boss, you probably don't know this, but when Raven was training us newcomers, he frequently tormented me. I suspect he did it on purpose. Humph! I've had my eye on him for a long time. Now, I finally have the opportunity to get my pound of flesh!"

Esteban's expression didn't change and he sounded affronted, so Lone Wolf was inclined to believe him. He nodded his head in satisfaction.

Lone Wolf wanted them to take action immediately. Raven was injured and as such at his weakest. If they attacked him before he recovered, they would be able to deal a fatal blow.

On the other side, Trevor was warning Luisa about the current situation. "It's not safe outside for now. Many people are trying to capture you. You need to stay hidden at the Archers' house. Don't go anywhere until the dust settles."

While Luisa was not very happy about having her movements restricted, the last incident was still fresh in her mind, so she reluctantly nodded and said, "I understand."

As soon as he had the issue of Luisa's safety settled, Trevor was ready to implement his own plan.

When he contacted Esteban yesterday, Trevor had told the other man where he planned to be today. Now, he prepared to rush to the agreed-upon location, a construction site on the outskirts of the city.

Before he left, he made a vague guess about Lone Wolf's next course of action.

Since Lone Wolf fell for one of his tricks last time, he would definitely be more cautious this time. Lone Wolf would definitely conduct thorough checks of his surrounding before he showed himself.

Having arrived at this conclusion, Trevor decided not arrange for Klein's action team to ambush Lone Wolf, as such an action could endanger Esteban.

At the agreed-upon time, Esteban reported Trevor's location that he had "detected" to Lone Wolf.

As Trevor had expected, Lone Wolf was very cautious. He not only confiscated Esteban's gun but also secretly conducted a wide-range search of the construction site and its immediate surroundings.

Once he confirmed that there was no ambush lying in wait for him, he led his men and Esteban's group inside. As soon as he got close, Lone Wolf spotted Trevor. His lips curled into a cruel smile and he taunted, "Raven! This time, no one is here to help you. You're finished!"
