

Chapter 1939 You Don't Know!

When Esteban and his partners saw that Trevor had subdued Lone Wolf, they came to their senses. Despite their lingering fear, they began punching and kicking Lone Wolf.

Lone Wolf couldn't protect himself, let alone fight back, so the punches and kicks rained on his body. He spat out blood and his face turned pale. What was happening? He looked at Trevor in shock and confusion.

Initially, he almost came to believe that Raven's real identity was Trevor, but after witnessing first-hand Raven's fierce fighting skills and unscrupulous tactics, today again, he doubted it.

The thing was, Lone Wolf was under the impression that the eldest son of the Sanderson family was just an ordinary rich man.

He stared at Trevor and asked confusedly, "Who the hell are you? Why did you destroy the Wolf faction like this? Are you a spy sent by other factions?"

Trevor remained silent for a while, then he slowly took off the mask he wore, revealing his true face. He looked at Lone Wolf with a faint smile.

Lone Wolf's eyes widened in shock.

"Tr... Trevor... It's really you! You really managed to deceive everyone in Mobius! Now I understand why you could easily kill Midnight. You have stayed in Mobius for so long and didn't show any flaws that could betray your true identity.

You grew up so fast. I still remember the attack on Dreles. At the time, you were completely incapable of defending yourself. You were still a daddy's boy and it was thanks to the protection of your father and grandfather that you were able to survive. It's incredible that in such a short time, you have become so strong and developed such brilliant skills and abilities. I admit defeat today!"

Trevor snorted coldly. Lone Wolf's praise was like an irritating noise to him. He ignored it and asked in a deep voice, "Which faction planned the attack on Dreles? Besides, where did you get the semi-finished medicine that made you and the Craig family work together?"

The first question had been bugging Trevor for a long time, and the other was a problem he was eager to get an answer to.

Lone Wolf was his hope to have the answers he needed so badly.

After hearing Trevor's questions, Lone Wolf was stunned for a moment and then laughed wildly.

Seeing the anxious expression on Trevor's face, he was so happy.

"Hahaha, so you actually don't know. Haha! I won't answer you. I will take the secrets to my grave! Mobius will live on and none of you will ever be able to destroy it. Just wait and see!"

Seeing that Lone Wolf was still arrogant even when he was about to die, Esteban became furious. He looked at Lone Wolf with resentment and fell into deep thought.

Mobius had taken him out of the orphanage and put him through an inhuman training.

He didn't know how many children like him had been abducted. Besides, there were probably many of them who couldn't survive the inhuman training.

Lone Wolf had been observing the people in front of him keenly, and when he noticed that both Trevor and Esteban were emotional, he wanted to launch a sneak attack again.

However, what he didn't know was that Trevor was carefully watching his every move.

Just as Lone Wolf was about to move, Trevor shot his right arm.

With both his arms disabled now, Lone Wolf fell into despair. He looked at Trevor and said crazily, "You win. Kill me now! I have gone through the toughest training. No matter what kind of torture you put me through, I won't tell you anything. I will take all the information I have to my grave!"

Seeing that Lone Wolf was so stubborn, Trevor took out his silver needle with a sneer and said playfully, "Really? You seem pretty confident in your willpower!"
