

Chapter 1941 Luisa's Gradual Recovery

Trevor was shocked at the answer. He had known that the injection medicine had something to do with the Wright family.

However, he has not expected the oral drug to be linked back to the Sanderson family.

That piece of information had blindsided him.

Trevor's face grew thoughtful.

Esteban, too, was shocked at the effects of the drug.

Lone Wolf had wanted to inject him with the drug. It was fortunate that he had escaped, or he would have been as good as dead.

Trevor, after mulling it over, asked, "How can one regain his memory after taking the drug?"

"We don't care about that! This is just a tool for us to make money and train monsters," Lone Wolf answered.

Trevor, seeing that he would get nothing from Lone Wolf, called someone from Klein to take him away.

Jasmine had led the team in person, so Trevor introduced Esteban and the others to her.

"These are my friends. I met them when I was in Mobius. They are honest and capable, and I trust them. I want them to join Klein, as I think they have what it takes. What do you think, Jasmine?"

Klein was short-staffed. Besides, they had been recommended by Trevor, meaning they were good. Jasmine was happy to let Esteban and his partners join Klein.

They were all very happy.

Now that it was all over, Trevor didn't have to pretend to be Raven.

He returned to the Archers' house, where he saw Luisa.

Luisa was overjoyed because she had a faint memory of Trevor's face. She knew the man in front of her was Trevor.

She screamed, running into Trevor's arms.

"Trevor! Trevor! It's really you! I remember you! I was afraid I'd forget you," she said, tears streaming down her eyes.

Trevor dotingly replied, "I'll always be with you."

They chatted for a while, and Luisa mentioned Cecilia again. Trevor had already agreed to it, so he immediately said his goodbyes to the Archer family and set off for Dreles.

Back in Dreles, Trevor tried to help Luisa regain her memory.

"Do you remember what happened in Dreles, Luisa? I once bought a villa in Dreles, but it was burned down. Let's stay in the hotel belonging to the Wright family," he said.

Hearing this, Luisa frowned. The look on her face seemed to say that she remembered something.

"Dreles... The villa was burnt down..."

Concerned, Trevor asked, "What's wrong? Do you remember anything?"

Luisa said nothing as she was confused. After a while, she finally said, "Yes, I did when you said the villa was burned down. But I'm not sure what it is I remember."

Seeing how uncomfortable she looked, Trevor didn't push it. Instead, he just comforted her.

However, he believed that the villa was a part of Luisa's memory.

He would repair the villa. Maybe it would help her regain her memory.

Trevor then took her to the hotel under the Wright family management, which was close to the Wrights' house in Dreles.

He was about to book a presidential suite when he heard an arrogant voice.

"Wait!"
