

Chapter 1956 Luisa's Resolve

Luisa stepped forward and faced Kurt and his men. She asked coldly, "What right do you have to demolish this villa? If you came here to make trouble, I will call the police!"

Her words didn't frighten Kurt in the least. He complacently took out a document and held it up. Looking at Luisa with disdain, he said smugly, "Do you see this? This document gives me the right to demolish this villa! The Department of Land Development and the Department of Construction declared that this villa was a ruin.

They have already issued a public tender for the demolition, and my company won the tender. So, we came here to demolish it! Now get out of my way! Don't stop us from doing our job. By the way, where is Trevor? You should ask him to come over so the two of you can watch together as his villa is being destroyed. Hah-hah."

Luisa could barely contain her anger. She quickly pulled out her phone and called Trevor. When Trevor answered the call, Luisa's sobbing voice rang out. "Trevor! Kurt came to the villa with some people to make trouble. He said he is going to demolish the villa. Come here at once! I'm afraid that they will really tear down the villa!"

Trevor was shocked when he heard that.

He didn't expect Kurt would have the gall to openly challenge him.

He hurriedly comforted Luisa, "Don't worry, darling. I'm coming right away. I won't let them destroy our home."

Seeing that Luisa had called Trevor, Kurt said happily, "So Trevor isn't here, is he? Too bad, we'll tear down this villa before he arrives. By the time he arrives, all he would see is his villa in ruins. Just thinking about the look on his face at that makes me want to laugh out loud."

After saying that, Kurt turned to his men and shouted, "Drive the excavators here and get ready to bring everything down!"

Luisa didn't move an inch and said angrily to Kurt, "I don't believe that the document you showed me is genuine. Give it to me so that I check it!"

However, Kurt had no intention of giving the document to Luisa. He said playfully, "Well, beauty, if you agree to sleep with me, I'll let you take a look at it on the bed."

Luisa felt like throwing up and her anger flared. She roared, "Go to hell! Just take a look at yourself in the mirror!"

Kurt's face darkened at Luisa's harsh rejection. He ignored her and turned around to face his men.

"Why are you still standing there? Destroy this now!"

While the demolishing team got ready to tear the villa down, Luisa didn't move at all. She stood firmly in front of the excavators. Because of that, the team couldn't do anything for the time being.

Kurt's eyes turned fierce and he roared coldly, "If she doesn't get out of the way, crush her with the excavators!"

The demolishing team was shocked at Kurt's words. They just came here to demolish the house, not to kill anyone!

They hesitated and didn't dare to move at all.

Seeing that his men didn't obey his orders, Kurt cursed angrily, "What a bunch of losers you all are!"

As he spoke, he angrily walked to an excavator and sat on the driver's seat. He didn't know how to run an excavator and just tried his hands at it.

Anyway, these excavators belonged to his company, so he could do as he pleased.

Seeing that Kurt seemed determined to crush her with an excavator, Luisa became nervous.

However, she gritted her teeth and still didn't move. The thing was, her last bit of memory was in this villa. If the villa was destroyed, she might never be able to recover her memory!

She couldn't let Kurt tear the villa down!

Seeing that Luisa still didn't move out of the way, Kurt snorted and started the excavator!

The foreman was anxious and hurried forward to pull Luisa away.

The atmosphere was extremely tense at this time, and everyone's nerves were on edge.

Just as Kurt was about to drive the excavator to crush Luisa, a loud roar came from behind "Stop at once!"
