

Chapter 1961 Kenny's Call

After giving Trevor all the information he needed, Lyman left in a hurry.

Trevor frowned as he pondered on who this director of the Construction Department could be.

When Lyman left, the foreman came over. He couldn't help noticing that Trevor was still frowning even though the problem caused by Kurt had been solved. The foreman felt all this was his fault, so he rushed forward and apologized.

"Boss, I'm sorry. That man caused trouble here because you decided to hire us. I'm really sorry..."

Trevor was pulled out of his thoughts and looked at the man in front of him. Seeing the sincere remorseful look on the foreman's face, Trevor was a little helpless. He comforted him, "It's okay. Kurt isn't someone I would waste my time thinking about. The problem has been solved and I don't care about it anymore."

Although Trevor said so, the foreman still couldn't rest assured. He reminded Trevor seriously, "Kurt is a vengeful man. I'm afraid that he will still try to harm you. He won't let you go easily."

Of course, Trevor also knew Kurt's personality very well. He nodded slightly and said, "I'll be careful. Don't worry about me. As for you, I need you to start working on the reconstruction project. I'll handle any issue that arises from now on."

As Trevor spoke, he looked into the distance. At this time, he made up his mind.

He decided he would find an opportunity to pay a visit to the director of the Construction Department. He had to get the special materials soon enough. Once he had them, the reconstruction project would be easier.

On the other side, after Kurt left Trevor's villa, he immediately ran to the Wright family to ask Duran for help.

When he saw Duran, he said humbly, "Mr. Wright, Trevor is friends with the director of the Land Development Department and he calls himself Dragon. The two seem to be really close. It would be difficult to demolish the villa now. Even the supervisor of the construction department, whom our company has always supported, cannot do anything.

He even said that he would press charges against me. Mr. Wright, please help me teach Trevor a lesson. Besides, his girlfriend has lost her memories. I also want you to make her pay for standing up to me."

Duran's face darkened when he heard Kurt's report. When Kurt mentioned Luisa's amnesia, Duran suddenly understood everything and murmured, "No wonder she didn't seem to know me last time she came to the Wrights' house."

After listening to Kurt, Duran fell into deep thought and remained like this for a long time.

He came to the conclusion that Kurt was of no use to him anymore.

Since the director of the Land Development Department said he would press charges against Kurt, Kurt couldn't help him anymore.

Thinking of this, Duran said perfunctorily, "I will contact the director of the Construction Department. Wait to hear from me."

Kurt didn't suspect that Duran was turning his back on him then and there. After all, Duran had saved him from Henrik's revenge. So, he firmly believed that Duran would help him again and everything would be fine.

Thinking of that, Kurt said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wright! Thank you so much. Once this matter is over, you can be sure I will continue to work for you!"

Little did he know that Duran had already abandoned him.

After Kurt left the Wrights' house, Duran began to think about what to do next.

The young master of the Sanderson family was virtually untouchable now. What Duran couldn't allow was for Trevor and Henrik to work together.

He had to destroy Henrik as soon as possible.

Duran's eyes were gloomy and he was lost in thought.

Not long after, Henrik, who was in the hotel, received a call from Kenny.

After answering the call, Henrik heard Kenny's urging voice. "Henrik, come back now. I need to talk to you about something concerning the hotel management."

Henrik was stunned. Kenny seldom showed any interest in how he ran the hotel.

Henrik couldn't help but suspect Kenny's intentions, and he suddenly had the feeling that Kenny had something else in mind. Maybe Kenny wanted to hurt him.

Thinking of this, Henrik immediately contacted Trevor.

"Trevor, my uncle Kenny suddenly called me and asked me to go home. He claims he wants to talk to me, but I have the feeling he has something else in mind. Where are you now? I need you to come with me. Something tells me that I can find out more secrets on the Wright family this time."
