

Chapter 1982 The Secret Of The Wright Family

The following day, Trevor, Luisa, and Henrik made another visit to the Wright family.

Upon their arrival, Kenny warmly greeted them and said solemnly, "Mr. Sanderson, I've taken strict measures against Duran for his evil actions. I've also reclaimed control of the Wright family's construction company."

He then turned to Henrik and complimented him, "Despite the disruptions, Henrik, your managerial abilities have received the family's approval. I've sought the master's permission, and Cecelia is now at the manor. You can go find her there yourselves."

Excited by this news, the trio promptly headed to the manor.

Finally, a familiar figure came into view as they arrived at the manor.

Cecelia brimmed with excitement upon reuniting with Henrik. Having been grounded for a while, she was overjoyed to be with her family once more.

She had a lot to say at that moment.

Yet, upon noticing Luisa and Trevor, she refrained from speaking and avoided making eye contact with them.

This behavior raised suspicions in Luisa, and Trevor also found it strange.

However, Cecelia swiftly returned to her normal self, warmly hugging Luisa and Trevor.

She exclaimed, "Long time no see!"

Henrik, on the other hand, remained oblivious to anything unusual and was overjoyed to be reunited with his sister.

Fearing that Cecelia might be locked up again, he took her away from the manor and arranged for her to stay at the Wright family's hotel.

Unfortunately, the hotel was fully booked, leaving Henrik in an awkward situation.

Turning to Trevor, he asked, "Trevor, could you arrange a room for my sister? I'd be relieved if you could take care of her."

Trevor neither accepted nor declined the request and his eyes were fixed on Luisa.

He had to ask Luisa for her opinion

Since Luisa was there for Cecelia's sake, she had no reason to refuse. She held Cecelia's hand and happily exclaimed, "You can stay with us!"

The three returned to their rooms.

Cecelia appeared serious and, after much hesitation, confided in Trevor, "I'm not sure if I should tell you about this. It seems our family is keeping something hidden from us. They seem to be using a mysterious injectable drug, but I'm unsure of its exact effects. I witnessed my grandpa get an injection of this drug. And since then, his behavior has become strange!"

Trevor was taken aback. "What? Are you saying that your grandfather was injected with that mysterious drug?"

Cecelia nodded emphatically and added, "I even suspect that my confinement wasn't just about investigating Nola's car accident. It's because I stumbled upon something I shouldn't have seen."

Cecelia had reservations about revealing the secret, but she had no choice but to trust Trevor and Luisa.

With a solemn expression, Trevor remained silent for a considerable time before disclosing what he knew. "I'm aware of the drug you mentioned. It can enhance a person's physical capabilities but comes with severe side effects, including mental decline and susceptibility to external influence. My guess is that someone is secretly manipulating your grandfather."

However, Trevor held back one crucial detail: the Sanderson family also possessed a similar drug.

The two shared their knowledge with each other, leaving Luisa with a complex mix of emotions.

She chose to remain silent as troubling thoughts crossed her mind.
