

Chapter 1993 Kurt's Arrest

The fire chief contacted the police and left with his team.

Other affluent residents living in the villa area reported the fire. Eventually, the firefighters managed to control the blaze in Kurt's villa.

Shortly after, a police car arrived at the scene with its sirens blaring. Two officers stepped out, armed with an arrest warrant.

They asked, "Who is Kurt Larson?"

Kurt, filled with fear, took a step back. However, he tripped over Trevor.

"Sir, he is Kurt." Trevor held Luisa's hand and smiled.

The police handcuffed Kurt, simultaneously presenting the arrest warrant, accusing him of maliciously setting fire to the building.

They also recited the Miranda rights to him and subsequently placed him in the police car, driving him away.

Trevor was about to return with Luisa to his villa when his phone rang.

It was Cecelia on the line.

"Hello, Cecelia? What's going on?" Trevor answered the call, sensing a foreboding.

Cecelia urgently said, "Trevor, Henrik spotted a suspicious individual near the hotel. What should we do?"

Trevor's heart skipped a beat. He replied, "Stay inside the hotel and don't wander around. I'll bring Luisa back immediately!"

After ending the call, Trevor and Luisa rushed back to the hotel.

While approaching the hotel, Trevor scanned the surroundings for anything unusual but only saw Duran outside the hotel.

Ignoring Duran, Trevor took Luisa inside their hotel room.

Henrik and Cecelia were already waiting there.

"Henrik, what happened?" Trevor asked.

Henrik shared everything he had witnessed without holding back.

"I spotted someone hiding in the grass outside the hotel. If it weren't for his tall stature, I wouldn't have noticed him so easily. He realized I had seen him and hurriedly left. Unfortunately, we missed a chance to catch him!"

Trevor pondered for a moment and asked, "Henrik, can you remember any distinctive features of that person?"

Henrik thought carefully and said, "The man had a hook-nose, a very robust build, and was around 1.9 meters tall. He looked fierce and didn't seem like a friendly person."

The mention of a hook-nose startled Trevor.

He said in a hushed tone, "The hook-nose is a side effect of the Wright family's injection. It appears that the person you found may have been sent by the Wright family."

Cecelia couldn't contain her anger.

She slammed her hand on the table, rising from her seat. "Are the Wright family trying to harm us? I refuse to let them get away with it! I want to confront them directly and see if they have the audacity to challenge us!"

Trevor quickly reached out and held Cecelia's hand, saying, "Cecelia, calm down! We don't have enough information yet, and it's not the right time to take risks."

Cecelia regained her composure with Trevor's reassurance. She nodded.

Meanwhile, Luisa appeared disheartened as she watched the connection between Cecelia and Trevor.

Trevor, however, didn't notice Luisa's unease and calmly said, "When I returned to the hotel with Luisa, I spotted Duran outside. It seems he's also involved in this situation."

Hearing this, Henrik became furious and exclaimed, "Damn it! I'm going to catch him and interrogate him right away!"

Driven by anger, Henrik dashed out of the door.

Trevor failed to intervene in time because he was still holding Cecelia's

Observing his close friend hastily leaving the hotel on his own, he had no option but to follow suit.

Cecelia and Luisa were not left behind and followed them.

As they searched the area, they found no trace of Duran.

Henrik angrily shook his fist, not noticing that the manhole cover beside him had been quietly moved, and two hands emerged.
