

Chapter 2012 Duran's Father

Henrik's slap came out of nowhere, and for a moment, Josue was dazed. Not knowing what to do at this point, Josue turned to Kenny for help.

But to his greatest dismay, Kenny didn't side with him. Instead, Kenny scolded him coldly, "Josue! Since you came here, you have been rude to everyone. You're tarnishing the image of the Wright family. Go back now and reflect on yourself!"

Kenny's face was full of disappointment. He was clearly disappointed in Josue whom he saw as an imbecile.

Feeling embarrassed, Josue covered his face and left angrily.

While Josue was leaving, Henrik reminded him, "Take your car with you. I don't want it to block the entrance to the villa."

Josue was already on edge because of the humiliation he had just suffered, and Henrik's words only enraged him more. He turned around and roared, "Henrik, you really have bad taste. You know what, I'll drive as fast as I can. I'll make sure you see for yourself that my gift which you despised is much more powerful than you think."

After saying this, Joshua got into the sports car and started the engine angrily. He wanted Henrik to see how good the car was, so he drove around the Wright family mansion several times.

The car was quite noisy and the roar of its engine made Henrik's guests quite uncomfortable.

Henrik told his guests to simply ignore Josue, and they all went inside to continue with the banquet.

Trevor was feeling pretty bored at this party, so he took Luisa's hand and they both walked around the villa.

He wanted to check the whole manor to see if there was something wrong.

When Trevor and Luisa were strolling around the villa, someone suddenly broke in and shouted, "Trevor, where are you? Come out now! I am here for you! Today, you will pay me with your life!"

The commotion once again disturbed the peaceful banquet.

Everyone looked back to see who was making so much noise.

It turned out it was a middle-aged man. When the man saw Trevor, he walked over at once and stood right in front of Trevor. His face was gloomy.

"Trevor, if you know what's good for you, you'd better commit suicide right now to apologize to me. Otherwise, I will make your life a living hell. Mark my words!" the middle-aged man shouted angrily.

Looking at the man, Trevor frowned slightly. He didn't know this man at all.

Henrik was annoyed that someone had disrupted his party again, above all, that someone was after his good friend again. He walked up to the man and shouted angrily, "Why did you come here to cause trouble? This is my birthday party. You better not make trouble here!"

Seeing that Trevor was confused, Cecelia explained to Trevor in a low voice, "He is Duran's father, Dashawn Wright."

Hearing that, Trevor finally understood what was going on and he nodded. It turned out Dashawn wanted to avenge Duran.

Dashawn cast a cold look at Trevor and said angrily, "Son of a bitch! As a member of the Wright family, I have the right to come and go as I want. I don't care if you are the young master of the Sanderson family. So you better not be arrogant in front of me!"

Before Henrik could retort, Trevor said coldly, "I didn't kill Duran, so I don't understand what you want from me. It was the abuse of drugs that killed him. If you want to find the murderer, then you should find the person who gave Duran the drugs!"

Of course, Dashawn knew the real cause of Duran's death.

He didn't really mean it when he asked Trevor to apologize to him by killing himself. He knew very well that he had no authority to do so.

In fact, he just wanted to use that as a means to claim compensation from Trevor.

"Humph! As the young master of the Sanderson family, you have no problem bribing the police and medical examiners, right? You certainly did everything to cover up the real cause of Duran's death," Dashawn shouted angrily.

Trevor was so annoyed by Dashawn's words that he laughed. However, there was no joy in his laughter but controlled anger. "Hospital surveillance video is evidence of the circumstances surrounding Duran's death. If you defame me, I guarantee I will sue you."

The threat of being sued scared Dashawn and he took a step back. However, he continued to pretend to be angry and said, "Whatever the case, you had something to do with my son's death! You have to pay me a large sum of money as compensation! Otherwise, this matter will not be over so easily!"

Kenny seemed upset with the endless interruptions of the party. He walked to Trevor and said in a low voice, "Trevor, how about you give Dashawn some money as compensation?"

Trevor didn't say anything and just sneered. At least now he knew exactly why Dashawn had come here.

It turned out that Dashawn didn't come here to avenge his son, but to blackmail him!

He was very rich, and he could easily give Dashawn tens of millions as compensation.

However, he just didn't want to give Dashawn a penny.

Glaring at Dashawn, Trevor asked coldly, "Why should I compensate you? You must know that Duran wanted to kill me in that hospital, right? I only defended myself. Did I do anything wrong? Besides, as I said, Duran died because of drug abuse. It has nothing to do with me!"

Seeing that Trevor had no intention of compensating him, Dashawn flew into a rage. He looked at Kenny with tears in his eyes and shouted, "Kenny, you have to do what is right. Trevor is lawless and on top of that, he is outrageously arrogant in our territory. You must drive him away! I raised Duran for more than twenty years, and it wasn't easy. But because of Trevor, my son is no more. It is all Trevor's fault. What a bastard!"

Dashawn was now pretending to be miserable. His act was so good that several guests present sympathized with him and whispers were heard from the crowd.

Among the people empathizing with Dashawn were some direct descendants of the Wright family who hadn't been in Dreles for several years.

At this time, the guests had a terrible image of Trevor and they looked at him with hatred.

In their eyes, he was an unforgiveable murderer.
