Chapter 2017 The Terrible Monster

Thick smoke was billowing from the generator room of the Wrights ' house. This was obviously the place where the explosion occurred.

The mansion looked like a battlefield at the moment, with debris scattered everywhere. Here and there lay wounded people screaming in pain.

It was hard to believe that this place was really the Wrights' house and that a banquet had just been held there. It was just ruins at the moment.

As Trevor observed the shocking scene in front of him, he suddenly saw a man with a very imposing physique appear. The man's face was covered in blood and he smashed a wall with one punch.

The thick wall collapsed instantly. Normally it would take a wrecking ball to demolish such a wall, but this man just smashed it like it was just plywood.

The man was chasing Henrik.

He was behaving quite erratically, and his face was completely distorted, looking like a monster who came straight from a book of horrors. Anyone who saw him would tremble in fear.

While Henrik's life was in danger, his bodyguards were nowhere to be found.

Realizing that his friend was once again in a serious situation, Trevor's heart sank.

He had a deeper feeling that Kenny must be behind this as well.

Seeing that the monstrous-looking man was about to catch up with Henrik, Trevor immediately rushed to help his friend.

He grabbed a red wine bottle that was lying around and threw it with all his might at the burly man.

The bottle crashed against the monster's head, but didn't hurt him at all.

The creature just turned around.

When the monster's eyes fell on Trevor, its pupils dilated at once. The monster opened his mouth and let out a growl, "Tre... Trevor..."

Trevor was shocked to see that the monster actually knew him.

The creature immediately stopped chasing Henrik and began to chase after Trevor while shouting Trevor's name.

Henrik had been so frightened just now that he burst into tears. Seeing that the monster was now after Trevor, he quickly shouted, "Trevor, watch out! This damn monster is very fast. Run as fast as you can!"

Henrik was really worried about Trevor's safety. He had experienced first-hand how fast the monster was, and he felt that perhaps Trevor wouldn't be able to escape.

Thinking of that, Henrik decided that he must help Trevor.

He clenched his fists tightly, trying to muster all his courage to face the monster again.

Trevor had succeeded in what he wanted, which was to keep the monster away from Henrik. But now that he had the monster on his heels, he was a little worried.

Although he was quite fast himself, the monster was faster.

Trevor knew that if this chase continued, sooner or later he would be caught by the monster.

Thinking of this, he quickly changed his strategy.

He ran towards the narrow paths in the manor, hoping to use the buildings to block this monster.

However, this didn't quite work.

The stone pillars, rockeries and every stone figure that stood on the road shattered upon contact with the monster.

But at the same time, the monster's speed also slowed down a lot.

"Trevor! Trevor! I'll kill you!" the monster roared as it kept chasing after Trevor.

Henrik observed the scene in the distance, and he was quite stunned.

Trevor was really fast.

However, as long as the chase continued, Trevor was still in danger.

Henrik kept dialing numbers on his phone to call for help. Alas, he couldn't get in touch with any of the Wright family's bodyguards.

Suddenly, a shrill noise from the sound system was heard, followed by a voice.

"Trevor, I didn't expect you to come back again. I really underestimated how stupid you can be. You seem to have a death wish. I intended to kill you later, but you came back right to me. Well, I can say I am really lucky. I can get rid of both you and Henrik today."

Trevor was still running as fast as he could at this time, and when he heard the person's words, he frowned slightly.

Meanwhile, when the monster heard the voice, he slowed down for some reason and became much duller.

On the other side, a look of shock appeared on Henrik's face when he heard the voice, and he was overwhelmed with anger. He roared, "Kenny? I can't believe it! It's you!"

That voice was indeed Kenny's.

Of course Trevor was not surprised at all since he had already figured out that Kenny was the manipulator.

Without lowering his vigilance in case the monster attacked again, Trevor sneered, "Kenny, finally you've stopped pretending. Now that you have showed your true colors, how do you feel? Are you proud of yourself?"

Kenny's voice came again. He scoffed, "Things shouldn't have happened in such a hurry. It's all your fault. You shouldn't have investigated. But it doesn't matter now. I'm almost ready! Let me tell you the truth. I have mastered the ultimate secret! Trevor, you and Henrik are doomed! Mark my words!"
