Chapter 2019 Kenny's Confidence In Victory

As Trevor squeezed the trigger, Josue unleashed an unexpected force. He hoisted aside the colossal stone pillar which weighed more than ten tons, dodging the bullet!

Cursing his own recklessness, Trevor stepped back, firing off rounds simultaneously. Bullets blasted out from the barrel!

Josue raised his arm, deflecting the bullets as sparks flew.

Shards of bullets rained down, leaving Josue's arm barely grazed, not a drop of blood in sight!

That pistol lacked the punch to pierce Josue's skin!

Simultaneously, a scorching blast of air surged toward Trevor.

The heat radiating from Josue's body was off the charts, even liquefying the asphalt beneath his feet!

Wide-eyed and startled, Trevor recognized this scene.

It mirrored Duran's state after a full tube of that new drug injection.

Kenny's raucous laughter echoed through the speaker. "Trevor! I owe you big time! If you hadn't pushed Duran to the brink in the hospital, letting him pump in all that drug, I wouldn't have bagged such invaluable experimental data, creating the monster that's Josue in front of you! Actually, Josue is the ace up my sleeve! He is the ultimate secret I mentioned earlier."

Trevor emptied the magazine, realizing the bullets liquefied the instant they neared Josue!

That pistol was useless against Josue!

"Damn it! Fucking your ultimate secret!" cursed Trevor, tossing the pistol aside.

Josue grabbed the pistol and held it tightly.

Leveraging the searing heat of his body and his monstrous strength, the pistol contorted rapidly, morphing into a pool of molten iron, slithering through Josue's fingers!

The sight was jaw-dropping darkening Trevor's countenance.

Even at his best, he wasn't sure of besting Josue in a direct showdown!

But Josue was stopped by Kenny. Kenny purposefully allowed Trevor to have some downtime so he could enjoy his game with Trevor.

Trevor knew what Kenny was thinking when he saw Josue stop, but he was glad to see it.

As long as he could buy time, waiting for Jasmine and Klein's crew to show up, victory remained a possibility!

Kenny sneered. "Trevor, you're short-sighted, a hapless fellow! The drug I now wield is the ultimate secret of the world, unlocking the infinite potential of the human body! The Wright family is destined to shine under my reign! I want that old man to see how high I'll lift the Wright family!"

Hearing Kenny's hysterical rant, Trevor's eyes turned icy. "So, you're the puppet master pulling the strings behind the Craig family?"

Kenny didn't deny it, snickering "Those Craig dimwits colluding with Mobius thought they could hide it from me. But they didn't reckon I've got everything under control! Well, enough talk. Josue! Move!"
