Chapter 2026 Preparing For The Wedding

"Do you think you're the only one who can unlock full potential? Regrettably, your physical condition doesn't quite match up to mine. Moreover, even if you used the drug to unlock your full potential, your strength still falls short compared to mine." A contemptuous smirk crossed Trevor's face as he spoke.

As the searing pain scorched his face, Kenny was both startled and consumed by a surge of anger.

Terrified by Trevor's words, he exclaimed, "How... how can you stay composed during this transformative process? This is impossible! Impossible!"

Observing Kenny on the brink of losing control, Trevor sneered and maintained a stoic silence.

The credit went to the secret medicine of the Sanderson family.

Yet, this was merely a fraction of the equation. The greater advantage stemmed from the ancient martial arts of the Murray family.

While on his way to this place, Trevor honed the potential of the drug by mastering the ancestral martial arts of the Murray family.

This was the real ultimate secret guarded by the three great families.

He wouldn't disclose such a secret, not even to someone on the brink of death.

By employing the ancestral martial arts of the Murray family, Trevor not only managed to endure the drug's side effects but also achieved impeccable control over his body and emotions.

Furthermore, by combining the drug with the ancestral martial arts of the Murray family, Trevor underwent a significant boost in strength. He sensed that there were still undiscovered miracles awaiting him.

Acknowledging his inability to match Trevor, Kenny started pleading for mercy. "Trevor, I implore you, spare my life for Henrik and Cecelia's sake!

I am willing to share all the information I have gathered about the drugs with you. I promise to leave and never cross paths with you again."

Trevor remained impervious to Kenny's pleas for mercy, his countenance veiled in a chilling detachment. "Did it ever cross your mind to spare my life when orchestrating the assassination, hiring killers, and injecting me with drugs?"

Trevor possessed the discernment to see through hypocrites like Kenny.

This individual resembled a venomous snake in his deceitful nature.

Given the opportunity, he would clandestinely inflict harm.

He preferred lurking in the shadows, meticulously observing every move of his adversaries.

Granting him mercy would be akin to sparing a thief from the gallows!

Understanding Trevor's unwavering determination to end him, Kenny eventually abandoned his pleas for mercy.

A fierce gleam sparked in Kenny's eyes as he initiated a surprise attack. Clasping his fist, he generated a scorching flame and thrust it towards Trevor's head with a forceful punch

"Since you won't spare me, then I'll do my utmost to harm you, even if it costs me my life!"

Reacting swiftly, Trevor anticipated the move the moment Kenny initiated it.

Evading the assault quickly, Trevor countered by delivering a powerful punch to Kenny's head.

The tremendous force erupted upon Kenny's head.

Kenny's body had transformed due to the drug, and it surpassed the capabilities of ordinary individuals. Despite the altered state of his body, Trevor's punch caused his head to burst open, resembling the explosion of a watermelon.

Kenny collapsed heavily to the ground.

Having dealt with Kenny, Trevor ascended to the hospital's third floor, where he found Cecelia bound and restrained.

Trevor untied the knots and gently removed the cloth that had blocked

Cecelia's mouth.

In a hushed tone, Cecelia implored, "Trevor, flee! Kenny is very dangerous! Just leave me behind!"

A warmth enveloped Trevor's heart, leaving him torn between laughter and tears. He smiled and reassured, "Cecelia, everything has been resolved. Kenny is dead."

Supporting the weakened Cecelia, Trevor guided her to the second floor. Seeing Kenny's lifeless form without a head, Cecelia found credence in Trevor's words.

Overwhelmed, Cecelia burst into tears. She recognized that it was because of the drug that had plunged the Wright family into such calamity.

She couldn't understand why Kenny had gone to such lengths.

Cecelia wept inconsolably. Sensing her turmoil, Trevor explained to her about Kenny's motives.

Learning Kenny's motives and resentment towards his father, Cecelia sighed with a mixture of understanding and sorrow.

Henrik arrived with Luisa.

When Henrik returned to the Central Hospital, Trevor had already reached the Ironmont Hospital.

Once Henrik learned that Trevor had come to this place to look for Kenny, he promptly arrived with Luisa.

Trevor embraced Luisa, tenderly tousled her hair, and spoke. "Luisa, the complications with the Wright family have been settled. How about... we return to Zayden? It's time for us to start making preparations for our wedding."

Upon hearing this, Luisa quivered, and tears streamed down her cheeks.

Cecelia wiped away her tears and flashed a warm smile. "Luisa, congratulations! You are soon to become Mrs. Sanderson. It's such an honor for me to witness your happiest moment. How about I be your maid of honor?"

Luisa responded with a joyful nod, her happiness radiating in her eyes.

Henrik, expressing his wishes with a smile, exclaimed, "Hey, my friend! You are finally bringingthe beauty home. May your life with Luisa be filled with happiness and may the laughter of a baby grace your home!"

Trevor expressed his gratitude with a warm smile, then inquired, "Henrik, what about my sister, Evie? Is she still with the Wright family?"

Henrik gently shook his head and replied, "Evie has already departed from the Wright family to visit your father and grandfather."

When Trevor heard this news, he nodded.

Concerns for Evie did not weigh on Trevor's mind.

He knew she possessed a remarkable blend of capability and composure.

Evie must have returned to Zayden when she learned that their grandfather had regained control of the Sanderson family.

As Trevor held Luisa close, breathing in the scent that enveloped her, an uncommon serenity settled within his heart.
