

Multiverse 33

Chapter 33: Chapter 81: Note

Mostly notes from Author I just made a short version:

Many have asked why I keep writing about older anime instead of newer ones. The truth is, I no longer feel the same connection to new anime—I don't imagine myself in their worlds like I used to. While they have great animation and action, they don't inspire me to write.

That's why my focus remains on worlds with strong weapon-based power systems, like:

The Asterisk War (Orga Lux)

Akame ga Kill! (Teigu)

High School DxD (Sacred Gears)

Bleach (Zanpakuto)

New anime rarely feature such well-defined systems, making them less appealing for my writing.

If things go well, I might explore side stories in unique settings like Senren * Banka, The Dungeon of Black Company, and 9-nine-. A Classroom of the Elite side story is uncertain since I'm struggling to keep up with the original. Now that my family and health are stable, I hope to update consistently without delays.
