

All My Disciples Are Kings

Chapter 12 Ye Qiubai goes down the mountain!

Ye Qiubai already has strength.

Now that someone wants to harm him, he naturally wants to uproot them one by one.

Huo Qingming looked at Ye Qiubai with a complicated expression, and took a pill to stabilize his injury.

Then he opened his mouth and said, "Ye Yan."

Hearing this, Ye Qiubai frowned slightly.

In his impression, he didn't have any hatred for his cousin at all.

Even if there is, it will not be a life and death enmity.

The only possibility is that Ye Yan sees that his talent has recovered, better than before, and he doesn't want to let himself go back!

Something happened to the family!

Immediately, Ye Qiubai looked down, but did not find Ye Yan's figure, presumably he had already escaped.

And then, Ye Qiubai did not have any obstacles.

Few people dared to challenge his high platform.

After all, even Huo Qingming can defeat that, so they still go up to make fun of themselves?

at last.

Ye Qiubai was determined to participate in exchanges with other academies in the three domains after one month.

At the same time, he also received generous rewards.

Qing Ling Dan, Po Fu Dan.

These two elixirs are elixirs that can promote the growth of cultivation as quickly as possible.

Among them, the Pofu Pill can help people break through from the Golden Pill to the Purple Mansion Realm.

These two elixirs are extremely precious in the outside world.

It may even cause looting!

However, Ye Qiubai was a little disgusted, because the two pills were compared with the master's few pills.

The poor quality is too far!

Thatched cottage.

Lu Changsheng was being taught by a group of elders.

Elder Wutang: "I said you boy, you can obviously teach such an excellent disciple as Ye Qiubai, why don't you charge a little more?"

Elder of Jiantang: "You will also make a contribution to our academy by recruiting more disciples."

Lu Changsheng was full of helplessness, while echoing the elder, he was thinking again, he must teach that boy Qiubai to keep a low profile when he comes back.

Qin Tiannan on the side couldn't understand Lu Changsheng, seeing his expression at the moment, couldn't help laughing.

"Elders, when I understand the practice, I will naturally accept disciples."

Ye Qiubai outside the door couldn't help being confused when he heard these words.

In his opinion, Master's cultivation is like the realm of heaven and man, unfathomable.

Being able to take out the Sword Sutra of Absolute Beginning, practice this kind of elixir, and be able to draw that kind of painting full of the artistic conception of swordsmanship.

You told me that this is not repaired understand?

"Oh? Qiubai is here?"

"Then let's go first, Changsheng, remember what we told you!"

Before leaving, Qin Tiannan left behind a ring.

"The Chimu Tianjin is in it, so I won't ask you what you want to do, but save me some money, kid."

Stay until several people have left.

Lu Changsheng put away the ring, looked at Ye Qiubai, and asked, "What's the matter?"

Ye Qiubai told about Ye Yan, and at the same time told his guess.

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng pondered: "So, you want to go back to Ye's house?"

Ye Qiubai nodded.

Lu Changsheng glanced over and said, "However, you should know that your appearance now may affect the nerves of those forces that want to kill you."

Ye Qiubai naturally knew this.

Especially when he finds that his talent has recovered, he will definitely get rid of himself and then quickly.

It can be said.

If Ye Qiubai goes back now, it will be very dangerous.

It is not an exaggeration to say that today's Tianyuan City is a dragon's pond and a tiger's den.

but...

Ye Qiubai said with firm eyes: "He is my father after all,

What's more, kendo should always move forward, and I can't retreat when it's time to face it. "

Once retreating at this time, it may damage Ye Qiubai's Dao Heart.

Lu Changsheng nodded slightly, then waved his hand, and said: "Okay, then you can go, but before you go, break through to the Purple Mansion Realm."

Ye Qiubai nodded, he had already touched the threshold of the Zifu Realm before.

Now, after the academy competition, Ye Qiubai has a new understanding, and can break through at any time!

Afterwards, Ye Qiubai returned to his room, took the Pofu Pill, and prepared to break through.

And Lu Changsheng came to the cliff.

took out one after another material.

Willow on the side saw this scene and couldn't help asking: "Are you going to set up the Jiuyou Huangquan formation?"

Lu Changsheng nodded, "However, there is still a lack of water from the Huangquan River as the spirit of the array."

"How hard is that for you?"

The willow branches of the willow tree swayed gently with the wind, and said mistily: "Now you have realized the law of the sword, break open the space, and borrow a little from the Jiuyou Hades?"

Lu Changsheng was very convinced by Liu Shu's words.

After all, this willow tree has existed since the formation of the universe.

Chaos is beginning to open, and the prehistoric world is beginning to appear.

No one knows how long the willow tree has been around.

"However, isn't it a little overkill for you to guard this place with the Nine Netherworld Formation?"

You must know that the Jiuyou Huangquan formation is one of the top ten killing formations in ancient times, which can kill everything in the world. "

Lu Changsheng said indifferently: "It's okay, anyway, I don't plan to go out to make a living, Moreover, my disciple got into trouble in the future and provoked me. If he couldn't beat him, he could still use this large formation to block him. "

Willow: "..."

Is there anyone in this world who can beat you?

Immediately afterwards, Lu Changsheng began to form the formation.

With one step, he flew into the air.

With a flip of the palm, one after another array flags shot out!

These array flags are covered with the power of countless Dao principles!

There are a total of ninety-nine and eighty-one such formation flags, covering all parts of the mountain!

Suddenly, a wave of Daoist power soared into the sky!

With a wave of his palm, Lu Changsheng directly cut off the breath here.

At the same time, that ignorant material was directly turned into a matrix!

Just like this, countless dead energy began to float!

Even Ye Qiubai was alarmed, walked out of the hut, looked at Lu Changsheng in mid-air, with a frightened expression on his face!

"Master, what kind of formation is this setting up... before it takes shape, it has such a power to destroy the world!"

Ye Qiubai thought that even those elders, Dean Qin Tiannan, who came here in person would not be able to resist this destructive force!

Now, there is still a lack of a formation spirit to completely complete the Nine Nether Yellow Spring formation!

Lu Changsheng took out a sword and slashed the ground!

Suddenly, in the void, a huge crack was cut open!

There are wisps of ghostly death energy constantly coming out.

Immediately, Lu Changsheng's figure flashed, and he flew directly into the crack.

Crack closed.

Seeing this, Ye Qiubai returned to his room.

After the second day.

An astonishing aura emanated from the house!

Zi Mansion Territory!

Afterwards, leaving behind a letter, Ye Qiubai picked up the wooden sword and walked down the mountain.

Tianyuan City.

The Jiang family.

An extremely beautiful woman with a cold face.

A richly dressed man next to him said: "Don't think about it, even if he joins the Tibetan Taoist Academy, so what if his talent recovers?"

You and I return to the Sun Dynasty, and when you become the throne in the future, you will be the queen. "

The woman is Jiang Chan.

She nodded and walked forward.

The man smiled, took Jiang Chan's hand, and boarded the boat behind.

Immediately, that huge ship soared into the sky and left Tianyuan City...
