Chapter 13 Nine Hells

Passed on.

After death, everyone's soul will enter the Jiuyou Hades, where the memory of the previous life will be washed away in the spring water of the Yellow River.

Then you can reincarnate.

Here, the sky is gray.

The surrounding air was turbid to the naked eye.

Looking around, Lu Changsheng saw a yellow river in front of him.

Above the river is a bridge.

At this moment, there are countless white ghosts crossing the bridge...

As for the bridge, there is a huge door frame, and on the door frame, there are two huge words printed on it.

Hades!

"Who dares to offend my Nine Netherworld Palace!"

Suddenly, a loud roar came from the sky, and the sound spread throughout the entire space!

Lu Changsheng looked at the figures in the air, and there was a dead breath from the figures.

"Who are you?"

One of the figures asked, "Why did you come to my Hades?"

On weekdays, no living beings will come to Hades at all. Those who come are all people who died in this world.

However, all creatures that can enter the Nine Nether Hades are strong.

Lu Changsheng said loudly: "It's nothing serious, I just want to borrow water from the Huangquan River in your mansion."

Suddenly, the face of the figure changed, and he shouted sharply: "The water of the Yellow Spring River is one of the treasures of my Nine Netherworld Palaces, how can I borrow it from you?"

Lu Changsheng was a little helpless.

It seems that we still have to fight.

Only by showing strength can one have the right to speak.

Lu Changsheng waved the wooden sword in his hand, his face was solemn, and a sword intent spontaneously emerged from his body.

Seeing this, the faces of the group of people became serious, their bodies tensed up, and they were ready to take Lu Changsheng's thunderous blow at any time!

Only Lu Changsheng said solemnly: "Okay, then you all go up one by one."

The group of figures just wanted to rush over together.

Come to a pre-emptive strike.

But when they heard these words, they all stopped abruptly, and looked at Lu Changsheng dumbfounded.

"You don't want to go together, do you?"

Lu Changsheng said with righteous indignation: "You are also the stewards of Jiuyou Hades after all, how can you do such a thing as a gang fight?"

Really don't talk about Wude! "

The group of figures looked at each other, and the faces that were originally black became even darker now.

You * came to grab our treasure.

Still let us talk about martial arts with you? ?

Does this make us fools?

"Stop talking nonsense with him, let's go together, capture him alive, and imprison him in Jiuyou Purgatory to experience the pain of being burned by the earth fire!"

Speak.

Those figures charged directly towards Lu Changsheng!

All treasures were sacrificed in their hands, showing the meaning of death!

Seeing this, Lu Changsheng's expression froze, he raised the wooden sword in his hand, and slashed forward!

Immediately!

The void was shattered, and the space of Jiuyou Hades was shattered like glass!

The entire Nine Nether Hades suddenly made a loud noise!

The calm Yellow River spring water also began to boil at this moment!

The faces of several figures suddenly changed drastically!

"The Way!"

"The way of the sword, how can anyone in this world realize the way!"

"Hurry up, sacrifice the treasure with blood!"

After finishing speaking, those figures hammered at his chest one after another, spurring out one after another of essence and blood!

The essence and blood fell on a simple and heavy door.

On the front of the door, there is a head of a ghost, with a big grin, full of fangs!

"Rashomon!"

As soon as the voice fell, the door actually rose a bit, turning into a giant door that lifted the sky!

Smash it down!

Blocked in front of that terrifying sword energy!

Boom!

The sword that shattered the void directly slashed on Rashomon!

The aftermath of the collision between the two sides seems to sweep the entire Nine Netherworld!

The bridge over the spring of the Yellow River began to crack!

Even the standing ancient door frame was affected by the aftermath and collapsed! but.

In just a split second, Rashomon let out the sound of being overwhelmed!

Click click click!

Cracks like rifts began to spread wildly towards the surroundings!

Those figures also gushed out a mouthful of blood at this moment.

Rashomon connected with them.

Now, Rashomon has been severely injured, which directly caused them to be unable to fight anymore!

The sword energy dissipated, and Rashomon quickly became smaller, with countless cracks, and was closed by the figure.

"Who is your Excellency?"

The figure's figure was revealed.

The six of them are all old men, wearing gray cloaks and holding a scepter in their hands.

Above the scepter, there is a ball-like thing, shining with a faint green light.

"Why, tell you, so that you can take revenge on me in the future?

It's you, do you want to borrow or not? "

Lu Changsheng frowned slightly, apparently losing his patience.

Seeing this, the six old men couldn't help but smiled wryly and said, "Your Excellency, it's not that we don't want to borrow it, it's because we don't have the right.

The six old men are the emissaries of the underworld. The water of the underworld has spirits, and they can only be taken away with its approval. "

Lu Changsheng raised his eyebrows and said, "Then take me there."

The six people looked at each other in blank dismay, finally sighed and nodded in agreement.

"Your Excellency, come with us."

If there are a few more strikes, don't say they can't stand it.

The Nine Netherworld Palace will definitely collapse.

At that time, the reincarnation of this world will be in chaos!

came to a side hall.

In the middle of the side hall, stood a slightly illusory figure.

The envoy of Huang Quan bowed to the figure, then turned and left.

The figure turned around, and it was an extremely young and feminine man.

The man said: "I know the reason for your visit, and there is no one in the Nine Netherworld Palace that is your opponent.

I can lend you the spring water of the Yellow River, but I have one condition. "

Lu Changsheng said: "Tell me about it."

Seeing this, the man said: "In the future, I will find a Pluto for this Nine Nether Hades to guard this place."

"Pluto practiced exercises, was reincarnated, and now I don't know where,

If the Nine Netherworld Palace is not suppressed by Hades for a long time, it will be in chaos! "

Lu Changsheng thought for a while, then nodded in agreement.

At worst, throw that boy Qiubai here to be a so-called Pluto.

Seeing that Lu Changsheng nodded in agreement, the man waved his hand. Immediately, the rivers of yellow springs floated up and gathered together!

A yellow bead formed and landed in front of Lu Changsheng.

Having obtained this item, Lu Changsheng nodded towards the man, then turned and left.

The man looked at Lu Changsheng's back, and couldn't help wondering: "This world's way of heaven has collapsed, and the road to ascension is closed, how can anyone realize the principles of the way?

Could it be that it came in from the outside? "

But after thinking about it, I still shook my head, how could outsiders take a fancy to this place...

And Lu Changsheng, after leaving the side hall, directly opened the space with a sword, and flew towards the outside world.

However, when Lu Changsheng left, on the other side of the Huangquan River, there was an illusory spirit body that followed Lu Changsheng with lightning speed...
