Chapter 21 The power of rules, perfect inheritance!

I have to say that Hongying has benefited a lot from Lu Changsheng's demonstration just now.

Hongying sat cross-legged on the ground, comprehending the spear intent and the way of the spear remaining in the space.

Soon, Hongying entered a state of epiphany.

Time flies like a white horse.

Five days passed quickly.

Ye Qiubai was still consolidating his understanding in the room.

Hongying is also in a state of epiphany.

Lu Changsheng sat on the bench, and said sadly: "These two guys are practicing, and there is no one to cook for the teacher. Do they have to find an apprentice?"

The voice just fell.

On Hongying's side, there was a sense of gunplay soaring into the sky!

Immediately opened his eyes, held the spear in his hand, and kept dancing!

It is the first move in reincarnation marksmanship!

At this time, Ye Qiubai also came out of the hut, holding a wooden sword.

Wisps of sword intentions linger around the body inadvertently.

Extremely sharp!

"Junior Sister, let's learn from each other."

Ye Qiu Bailang laughed and shot towards Hongying!

Hongying also wanted to vent her anger at this moment, to consolidate the reincarnation marksmanship she had just learned.

also chuckled and greeted Ye Qiubai.

During the period, both Hongying and Ye Qiubai suppressed their realm to the lowest level.

The wooden sword and long spear in his hand have no aura blessing.

There is only a confrontation between spear intent and sword intent!

Suddenly, the sword aura on the cliff, the strength of the spear!

The willow tree on the side was not affected at all, and even the leaves did not fall at all, they just fluttered gently with the sword energy.

Ye Qiubai backed away slightly, but a storm arose in his heart.

Hongying's spear intent realm can be said to be far superior to his.

During the sparring, it felt like Hongying was walking leisurely in the courtyard, not in a hurry.

It can be said that Hongying didn't need to use all her strength at all.

Although Hongying on the other side was very relaxed, she was also surprised by Ye Qiubai's understanding of sword intent.

After all, I have experienced nine reincarnations.

If I was at Ye Qiubai's age, I probably wouldn't be able to beat him steadily.

"Okay, you guys stop fighting, hurry up and take the Nine Turns to Yuan Dan."

Lu Changsheng on the side said at the right time: "Strike while the iron is hot, and then break through."

Hearing this, Hongying stopped her hands, put away her spear, sat cross-legged on the cliff, and absorbed the Nine Turns into Yuandan.

Suddenly, waves of samsara filled Hongying's body!

And the power of reincarnation, straight into the sky, seems to be communicating with the rules of heaven and earth.

However, this world no longer has the power of the rules of heaven and earth.

The way of heaven collapses, how can there be the power of rules?

Willow couldn't help but make a regretful sound.

"It's a pity, without the power of rules, even if you return to Yuan Dan after turning nine, you can't lead to the law of reincarnation, and you can't perfectly inherit the talents of the previous nine lives."

The little bird also flapped its wings and shook its little head.

Lu Changsheng couldn't help being taken aback when he heard this.

The power of rules?

Since the system can give him those principles, does that mean that the system itself is a power of rules?

Seems to have sensed Lu Changsheng's thoughts.

【The host's guess is not wrong, the power of rules is to a certain extent, the system itself has it, and the host can use it at any time】

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng waved his hand, and suddenly a force that seemed to be able to affect everything in the world filled the surroundings of the thatched cottage!

The willow branches of the willow tree began to swing, and said in surprise: "The power of rules? Have you mastered the power of rules?"

"And it's not the power of rules in this low-level dimension, it's more like a high-level dimension..."

However, for Willow, it was just a surprise.

After all, the willow tree was formed from the universe, and it existed when the chaos first opened.

Nobody knows how long it's been around.

The little bird is also shocked.

Those flaming red wings rose with phoenix flames!

Under the power of this rule, the bird entered a state of epiphany!

Ye Qiubai also had a meal aside, and sat down cross-legged.

The sword intent rose from the body, turning into a stream of sword energy, surrounding Ye Qiubai's body.

At the same time, Qingyun Sword is also sacrificed at this moment!

The Dao on the sword actually began to echo the sword intent on Ye Qiubai's body! obviously.

The power of rules summoned by Lu Changsheng had an impact on everyone. the other side.

Hongying's nine-revolution samsara kung fu was running at full strength, and the meaning of samsara spread across the sky.

However, like a headless chicken, it seems to be looking for something.

Now, Lu Changsheng releases the power of rules.

The meaning of reincarnation is like finding a target, actively approaching the power of rules, and starting to blend with it!

Among them, there is actually the way of reincarnation and birth!

The way of reincarnation comes out.

Hongying can perfectly inherit the talent of the previous ninth life!

Not too long.

A white soul streaked across the sky like a shooting star!

"Small" into Hongying's body!

Suddenly, the breath of the realm burst out!

Water overflow mid-term!

Immediately afterwards, the second soul blast came, rushing into Hongying's eyebrows!

The breath soared again!

until the fourth track.

Hongying's realm has broken through to the late stage of Shuiyijing!

The meaning of reincarnation also began to solidify at this moment!

Two days later.

The soul of the ninth generation has all merged into Hongying's body!

Perfect inheritance!

Breath also gradually became stable.

The meaning of reincarnation is like the essence, filling Hongying's whole body!

Finally, the realm reached the peak of Shui Yi Jing.

Only one step away, you can reach the Guiyuan Realm!

Hongying opened her eyes and bowed respectfully to Lu Changsheng.

"Thank you, Master."

Lu Changsheng shook his head and said, "I didn't do anything."

Hongying insisted: "If it weren't for the guidance of the master, then even if there is that elixir, it will not be able to inherit it perfectly. In this way, it is meaningless for me to practice the Nine Revolutions of Reincarnation Kung Fu!"

Lu Changsheng shrugged his shoulders and said, "In this case, I will give you an errand."

Hongying was overjoyed.

She was afraid that Master would not want anything, would not ask for anything.

This made Hongying feel like she couldn't help anything.

She doesn't like this feeling.

"Master, just say it!"

Lu Changsheng nodded and said with a smile: "Then let's cook, I haven't eaten for a few days."

Hongying: "..."

Well, Master does not lack anything.

He only needs a cook!

Ye Qiubai also finished his epiphany at this moment, and couldn't help but laugh when he saw this scene, and said: "Junior Sister, just get used to it, Master is very low-key, so there is usually nothing wrong."

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng stared and said, "What do you mean nothing is wrong? How can you say that I am like a salted fish?"

Isn't it?

Ye Qiubai thought to himself, but he still didn't dare to say it.

"Okay, okay, junior sister, I'll help you."

Hongying nodded.

Sudden.

A figure appeared in front of Lu Changsheng.

"Longsheng, have you and your disciple been doing well during this time?"

It was Qin Tiannan who came.

After hearing this, Lu Changsheng said without thinking, "I have something to do, and my two apprentices are fine."

Qin Tiannan: "..."

Ye Qiubai: "..."

Hongying: "..."

Good guy.

Without even thinking about it, I sold the two of them.
