Chapter 22 Undercurrent surges!

Qin Tiannan looked at Hongying and Ye Qiubai.

Ye Qiubai's cultivation base has now reached the Purple Mansion Realm, he can tell at a glance.

However, Hongying's cultivation made him feel like he couldn't see through it!

Observing the past is like seeing a fog.

This made Qin Tiannan secretly startled.

thought.

Where did Changsheng accept his disciples? Why are all of them so monstrous?

But it's not Qin Tiannan's fault.

With Qin Tiannan's current cultivation base, it is actually very easy to see through the cultivation base of a junior.

But Hongying is the former empress.

How could there be no way to hide one's cultivation?

Just talking about the methods of hiding cultivation, Hongying can come up with hundreds of them.

There are no duplicate samples.

This is the background of the Great Emperor!

However, these backgrounds are not very effective on Lu Changsheng.

It felt like Lu Changsheng had no desires or demands, and he took out everything.

It's something she doesn't have, or something higher in level...

This also made Hongying very helpless.

Lu Changsheng looked at Qin Tiannan and asked, "Uncle Qin, what's the matter?"

Qin Tiannan came to his senses and said with a smile: "It's actually not a big deal."

"It's not a big deal, why come to us, the two of them still want to burn me... to practice!"

Hongying: "..."

Ye Qiubai: "..."

They dared to bet that Master definitely wanted to talk about cooking just now!

Qin Tiannan was also full of helplessness, and said: "Before the Four Regions Grand Competition, there will be a secret trial in the Southern Region, and some of the ancient powerhouses will inherit it. This is also good for your two apprentices."

Lu Changsheng had also heard about the trial of the secret realm in the southern region, touched his chin and said, "Is it the trial of the blood hell?"

Rumored.

In the blood prison, countless ancient strong men were imprisoned.

Those strong men are in the blood prison, and some of them are dying.

There are also people who have been drained of blood...

This led to the inheritance of many strong people left in the blood prison.

However, it is not so easy to get...

Qin Tiannan nodded and said: "The trial of the Blood Hell will start tomorrow, and there are already two places in your thatched cottage, just for Qiubai and Hongying to go. There is also a cultivation limit there, and the highest cultivation level can only accommodate people in the Purple Mansion."

Although Hongying has reached the peak of Shui Yi Jing, she has a way to suppress her cultivation.

Without waiting for Lu Changsheng to answer.

Hongying immediately said: "I'm going!"

Eyes are firm!

Lu Changsheng glanced at Hongying, then nodded and said: "Then you two go, and practice more."

Ye Qiubai also had the same intention. At this moment, he just wanted to get in touch with outsiders.

See it.

Qin Tiannan also nodded in satisfaction, and said, "Okay, get ready, Changsheng will take them there tomorrow."

Lu Changsheng immediately refused: "I don't know the way."

Qin Tiannan: "..."

You're so lazy!

"Okay, then I will let the elders pick you up tomorrow!"

After finishing speaking, Qin Tiannan gave Lu Changsheng a helpless look, then turned and left.

See Qin Tiannan leave.

Hongying looked at Lu Changsheng and said, "Master, why don't you ask me why I want to go?"

Lu Changsheng said in surprise: "Why do I have to ask, you must have your own reasons for wanting to go."

Hongying nodded, her eyes were far away, and she looked towards the sky, with a sense of regret.

"There is one of my subordinates in the blood prison, I want to take a look."

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng remained silent.

After all, Hongying has gone through nine reincarnations.

It is normal for subordinates to die.

Not to mention being in the blood prison.

"Go."

Hongying bowed to Lu Changsheng, and then walked into the thatched cottage to practice alone.

Seeing the sudden heavy atmosphere, Ye Qiubai also wanted to practice, but was stopped by Lu Changsheng.

"Where are you going? Cook for the teacher!"

"...oh."

on the other hand.

Enemies.

"Ye Qiubai should also participate in this blood prison trial?"

"Go, let Qiu Libei prepare, be sure to kill him in the blood * trial!"

"knew."

The Sunset Dynasty far away in the Northern Territory.

Pear Garden.

Jiang Chan is wearing a luxurious robe and a crown on his head.

Sit in the courtyard.

When she heard that Ye Qiubai was not dead, there was a complex look in her eyes.

However, more of a sigh of relief.

At this time, someone outside pushed the door and entered.

Seeing this, Jiang Chan's face was cold, and he stood up and gave a slight salute.

"Prince."

The eldest prince smiled when he saw this, and quickly stepped forward to help Jiang Chan up, saying: "There is no need for so many courtesies between you and me."

"After all, we are going to get married soon, between husband and wife, why is this so?"

Jiang Chan didn't look happy when he heard this, but rather sad.

Of course the First Prince took all of this into consideration.

Let go of his hand, and said meaningfully: "Ye Qiubai will participate in the blood prison trial in the southern region."

Jiang Chan couldn't help but look up at the First Prince.

The eldest prince continued: "I didn't get rid of Ye Qiubai last time, this time I will send people to the southern region to participate in the blood prison trial."

Jiang Chan's eyes were slightly condensed, but he didn't speak.

At this time, saying one more word will bring more danger to Ye Qiubai.

The eldest prince sighed and said: "I know you still can't let him go, but you will be the one who wants to be the mother of the world in the future."

"I will never allow Ye Qiubai to live in this world, do you know?"

He doesn't care whether Jiang Chan's heart belongs to him or not.

Among the dynasties.

False and false.

There are so many things that I have to marry someone I don't like.

The same is true for the First Prince, he only needs someone from Jiang Chan.

As for the heart?

What it is.

With power, with strength.

Then get it all!

Wait until the First Prince leaves the Liyuan.

Jiang Chan sighed and looked towards the sky, where there were dark clouds.

Lightning scattered among the clouds like a brontosaurus.

"sorry..."

Outside the pear garden, the eldest prince didn't look back, and a black figure suddenly appeared.

Kneeling on the ground on one knee, waiting for the eldest prince's order.

"Go to the Blood Hell for a trial, this time you must be safe and kill that Ye Qiubai."

"Also, contact Shadow Killer and ask them to send people to Blood Prison at the same time!"

Huangying couldn't help being stunned: "Eldest Prince, sending our own people is not enough, why bother to send out shadow killing?"

Shadow kill.

An extremely mysterious killer organization in the Northern Territory.

It is said that as long as the reward is in place, they dare to take on any task.

are a bunch of lunatics.

However, the mission success rate of this group of lunatics has reached an astonishing 99%!

The only failure was to assassinate the current king of the Sunset Dynasty.

The fourth-ranked existence in the Four Domains Martial Arts List!

That time.

Shadow Killer directly lost half of its members, and even the owner of Shadow Killer was seriously injured.

but.

The lord of the country did not kill the shadows all at once.

Instead, they spared their lives.

Only condition is.

Unconditionally working for the Sunset Dynasty...

What reward is more important than human life?

The Shadow Killer could only be forced to agree.

The First Prince grinned and said: "I don't want any surprises, I heard that Ye Qiubai's talent has returned."

"Although there is still no threat to me, but... the weeds must be cut by the roots!"
