Chapter 34 The teacher in a small village

After ten days have passed.

The thatched cottage is peaceful.

Ye Qiubai took over Hongying's job and cooks every day.

Since entering the thatched cottage, Hongying, who has been fasting for a long time, has also developed the habit of eating three meals a day...

In addition to cooking, he would compete with Xin Hongyi, or practice the Sword Sutra of Absolute Beginning.

As for Hongying, apart from eating, she is doing seclusion.

Sometimes I go out for a trip.

As for what to do, it is unknown.

Ye Qiubai and Lu Changsheng won't bother.

As for Lu Changsheng, he is still the same as before, but with a little sadness on his face...

"Come on, the meal is ready."

At this time, Ye Qiubai came out with several dishes.

Lu Changsheng sat at the dining table, picked up a glass of wine he brewed, and said, "Go ask your junior sister to eat."

Ye Qiubai nodded.

Soon, he walked over with Hongying.

When the three of them were about to move their chopsticks, Lu Changsheng suddenly said, "Okay, Qiubai, go and add a pair of bowls and chopsticks."

Ye Qiubai was taken aback for a moment, but he followed suit and ran to the kitchen.

When I took out the bowls and chopsticks, I saw a middle-aged man sitting on the other side of the dining table.

"Changsheng, you are living a pretty good life."

Lu Changsheng said helplessly: "Uncle Qin, if you have anything to say, just say it."

Qin Tiannan nodded and took the bowl and chopsticks, and said with a smile, "Let's eat first, and then we'll talk after the meal. I haven't eaten for hundreds of years."

Lu Changsheng rolled his eyes and started to move his chopsticks.

"Hey, this wine is not bad."

"Huh? After drinking this wine, I feel that my cultivation base that hasn't improved for many years is starting to loosen?"

"..."

"Changsheng, did you brew it yourself?"

Lu Changsheng finally couldn't take it anymore, he waved his hand, and in an instant a large jar of wine fell in front of Qin Tiannan.

With a dark face, he said: "Take it, take it!"

Qin Tiannan smiled and said, "I'm so sorry."

But while speaking, Qin Tiannan put away the wine in a very honest manner.

Hongying: "..."

Ye Qiubai: "..."

Full of wine and food.

Qin Tiannan then talked about the business, and said: "This time, it is for the exchange of the academy."

"You also know that our Tibetan Taoist Academy is distributed in the four regions, and we are a branch of the Southern Region."

"Every ten years, the Tibetan Taoist Academy in the Four Regions will conduct an exchange with each other to distribute the resources distributed by the General Academy."

"The college competition at that time was preparing for this, so I said, Qiu Bai, you can go to the Northern Territory with me."

This four-domain academy exchange is in the northern domain!

Hearing this, Ye Qiubai was taken aback, and then looked at Lu Changsheng.

Lu Changsheng said lightly: "You decide whether to go or not."

The Northern Territory is the territory of the Sunset Dynasty.

Jiang Chan is also there.

Thinking of this, Ye Qiubai nodded with firm eyes.

Seeing this, Qin Tiannan said with satisfaction: "Very good, what about Hongying?"

Although I didn't participate in the college competition.

But Hongying's strength is beyond doubt. If Hongying is willing to go, then it is naturally the best.

Hongying shook her head, and said: "I have to do something first, but I will also leave for the Northern Territory. When the matter is over, I will take a look."

Qin Tiannan nodded, "Alright then, meet at the gate of the academy tomorrow."

the next day.

A crane set off from the Tibetan Taoist Academy.

This time, Qin Tiannan personally led the team.

Hongying left the thatched cottage alone and headed for the Northern Territory.

And this time, the participants of the four domains college exchange included Ye Qiubai, Huo Qingming, Lin Ce, Zhong Wu, Xin Hongyi, and one person Ye Qiubai had never met before.

But according to Xin Hongyi, this person is Qin Tiannan's disciple.

It is called Wasteland.

It is heard that he has been practicing with Qin Tiannan, and he was not born until today.

At this time, Dean Confucianism said: "Okay, let me explain the rules of this exchange."

Everyone looked over.

The elder looked solemnly and said: "Student exchanges are divided into two aspects. One is the exchange of martial arts, and the other is the exchange of Confucianism and Taoism."

"Martial arts exchange, led by Huang Yuan, Ye Qiubai, Huo Qingming, Lin Ce, Xin Hongyi participated, Confucian Academy exchange, led by Zhong Wu."

Qin Tiannan also came over at this time, with a dignified expression on his face, and said: "Our Southern Region has been number one from the bottom several times in a row. It can also be said that our overall strength is weaker than the other three regions."

"However, this time is also the most promising one in our southern region, so..."

Qin Tiannan bowed to the crowd and said, "The glory of the academy is left to you."

The elders of the Confucian Academy also bowed together with Qin Tiannan.

Both of them are top experts in the academy, with high status.

Now, he bows to the students.

It can be seen how much Qin Tiannan attaches importance to this college exchange.

at the same time.

Eastern Region Tibetan Taoist Academy.

"This academy exchange, we must strive to get the first prize."

"The top spot should still be the Northern Territory, after all, their background is too strong, but at the end, it should still be the Southern Territory."

"Well, the background in the Southern Region is the weakest, and there is definitely no way to catch up."

Western Region Tibetan Taoist Academy.

"We only need to outperform the Southern Territory in martial arts exchanges. After all, this is not our strong point."

"Well, but the exchange of Confucianism and Taoism will definitely surpass the Northern Territory this time!"

"It's okay, this time we have Wu Ming."

"Well, Junior Brother Wuming is the reincarnation of the Holy Buddha, and the exchange of Confucianism and Taoism will definitely not fail."

Beiyu Tibetan Taoist Academy.

"There is no suspense in the first place this time, is it us again?"

"It's not unexpected. This time, we have a few more peerless geniuses born."

"There is Brother Jian in the exchange of martial arts, and Sister Mu in the exchange of Confucianism and Taoism. With these two people, we must be the leader of the Northern Territory."

at the same time.

In the northern region, there is an unknown hill, and in this hill, there is a village.

This village is extremely backward.

No one practices Taoism.

Plow at sunrise and rest at sunset.

However, in the open space of the village, a young man dressed like a scholar was giving lectures to the children in the village.

"Okay, get out of class is over."

A child said naively: "Sir, will you leave here tomorrow?"

"No, sir, can you continue to teach us, we still want to study!"

The man smiled and said: "There is always a banquet in the world. Although I want to continue teaching you, I am still on the way of learning, so I have to leave."

Hear this.

The head of the village came forward, held the man with callused hands, and said gratefully, "Thank you sir for your teaching these past few months, so that these children can study."

The man shook his head and said, "This is what I should do."

The next day, it was still dark.

The man left a few books and left the small village with a book basket on his back.

Walked out of the village, looked back, and couldn't help sighing.

"Reluctance?"

Suddenly, a voice came from behind, and the man backed away in shock, saying, "Who are you?"

I saw the white-robed man in front of me chuckle and said, "My name is Lu Changsheng, and I want to take you as my disciple."
