

102 Chapter 102 It's Maxi's pup

Damon's POV 1

( Vincenzo's Wolf )

It's been almost two weeks since I marked Veronica. Two weeks of nightmare. She is still alive, and I know for sure that Vincenzo blames me for this, because I forced him to mark her.

But right now I don't give a shit on his opinion anymore. Because of his ego I lost everything. I lost my status, I lost my pack, I lost my stupid brother and even my mate in a way or another.

All my life I let him do what he wanted. Not because I'm weak. No, I am strong enough to put this human down but I am his better half if you want to say it this way. I know his character and I know that my ways are not his ways, we are to different and we are caught in the same body, and it is also said that whoever is smarter gives up first.

He wanted to reject our mate. I let him do it, he would have done it anyway and we wouldn't have gotten anywhere. He wanted Meredith Quinn or Cruz, because it seems that the woman was Max Cruz 'wife not just a lover and I didn't say anything even if I didn't want that human in my life. I just wanted Veronica, and as usual I let my own wishes for his happiness, but two weeks ago I found out that she is pregnant.

And is my pup, I feel it, I smell it from her womb. IS MY PUP! And this jerk had the nerve to say that he doesn't want him. That's it.

Maybe he rejected our mate, because he did it, but I didn't. Maybe he wants another woman, but this pup is mine and this is the end of the road for my patience. Fuck off, Vincenzo Castellano, now is the time to know that your wolf had enough!

So yes, I forced him to mark her and I saved her life, and our pup life.

We took the ferry, and bypassed any terrestrial road so as not to be followed and we went somewhere closer to the North Pole.

Craig helped me. Always his wolf worked with me and he was there for me, keeping Vincenzo in some limits.

He found a great Alaskan cabin nestled in the woods and private but very close to North Pole, Fairbanks. There is not much. Two bedrooms and one bathroom. Is not the luxury Vincenzo used but he had no other chance to find something else. Every werewolf in Canada and the US is looking for us, and here we are isolated enough to live quietly, or at least try, given the madness I live in.

This is a beautiful house that with a little work would give us a ton of equity and maybe in time will become a place to live for life, a home.

In one bedroom stays Veronica, alone even if she is marked. I stay in the other and Craig sleeps in the open space that is divided between the living room with wood burning fireplace and a rustic open space kitchen. He was a blessing on those days and I can't believe that he still supports me.

I'm a walking disaster these days.

"Hey" I suddenly hear him through our mindlink. "She tries to leave again, can you come, please" he tells me.

"Let her go," Vincenzo said, because he doesn't accept her even if he marked her, but I ignore him.

I go downstairs and see her. She is in the middle of the living room with her arms under her chest, but sitting on her small belly which is very visible and feeling my presence she turns her head and says. She wears the clothes Craig brought, some leggings and a Fleece Funnel Neck Hoodie. And she is just beautiful.

"Will you let me leave please?" and she looks at me with her beautiful green eyes. This is what she has been asking me since she recovered a week ago. She was alive but in a very bad state, but as soon as she opened her eyes she started to search for a way to run away from me.

"I can't sweetheart" I tell her, smiling at her while I feel how Vincenzo rolls his eyes.

"Please. I need to go to my lover "she said looking into my eyes. "This is a misunderstanding, I don't know you."

Yey, here we start again.

"Sweetheart, you know me. I told you already, you are my mate. And you are pregnant with our pup. " I say and I see Craig smiling at me and leaving the room.

"No, You are lying" and she is angry again and rushes to the door but I catch her and take her in my arms.

"I am pregnant with my Maxi child!" She said, starting to cry.

"No, you don't remember, you had an accident, but the baby you have in your womb is mine" I say and hold her at my chest while she tries to escape. She hits me with her tiny hands, but she has no force. Without her wolf she is just a fragile human.

"That I don't want!" Vincenzo yelled.

"I don't want you either!" I yell at him in my mind

"So shut up!"

He will never have the chance to take control again.

"Sweetheart" I say, putting my lips on her mark and kissing it and making her calm. "Please don't leave me" I tell her but she starts to hyperventilate and doesn't let me have another choice and I bite my mark again making her calm and faint in my arms.

"I don't like this!" I said, looking at her in my arms. "It hurts me to see her like that"

"Maybe her wolf will come back with the time, but now everything just made her to close all the doors with the outside world and be completely isolated. She lost her wolf." Craig said, coming back when he heard the silence.

But this is not the problem. The problem is that she lost her recent memories and she is left somewhere in the past, like one year ago. She doesn't know that Maximillian Cruz is married, he doesn't know me, she doesn't know anything from the last two months.

I just put her in her bed and caressed her beautiful face. Her hazel hair falls on her face and she just cries, even now.

"I am sorry, Veronica," I tell her. "I am sorry for what Vincenzo did to you. But I can't let you go. "

I whisper in her ear.

"Please let me go," she said, opening her eyes slightly.

"I can't." and I kiss her forehead "We will be together forever" I tell her and this time I kiss her lips and put my hand over her tummy I say. "Just you and me and our pup"

"But it's Maxi's pup." she said, starting to cry again. "Why do you not understand?"

"You will see, sweetheart, when you will give birth. Maybe he will look like me and you will see that everything I told you is real. "

And she just looks at me.

"I don't want you!" she said in spite.

"But I do. I do, now, and I will never change my mind "

"I will never .." Vincenzo wants to say but I cut the mindlink with him. I will have no human from now on.
