

103 Chapter 103 They are a danger to us

Author's POV 1

It's been more than a week since Meredith had her luna ceremony and her life is just like a sweet dream. Max conquers her every day with his love. He is like a puppy, following her everywhere. Even at their office he came multiple times during the day in the Design Department, making all his employees smile.

"He's not as bad as I heard he is," someone said, but just looked from Max and he swallowed his words.

"He is not bad with his luna" someone else said seriously, making Max smile to himself.

"Did you hear it, Stark? My luna. I am not bad with my luna" and he knocks on Meredith's door.

"Where is Cara?" he asks as soon as he sees her.

"Sam didn't tell you?" She said smiling at him while she taped something on her laptop.

"Say what?" Max asks and comes behind her chair and bending down he puts her hair aside and kisses her on the neck, right over his mark.

"Today they will find the baby's gender." And she lifts her head from her laptop and kisses him.

"I missed you" Max whispers and lifts her from her chair and taking her in his arms goes straight to her sofa and puts her in his lap.

"You said the same thing an hour ago" Meredith said as she put her arms around his neck.

"I am telling you the truth. And my offer is still available. Will you move into my office?" And he looks in her eyes like a puppy.

"No, we already talk about it" but she escapes a soft moan because he starts to kiss the mark in a more intense way.

"We could do this all day," Max whispers.

"And that's exactly why I won't move into your office." and she laughs "I will not be able to work" and smiling at him she said blushing:

"And I missed you too."

"Did you speak with James?" Max asks and puts a hand over her tummy trying to feel if something is there. He has the belief that he will feel by himself if Meredith is pregnant, so he does that every time he has the chance.

"We are going to have a little baby girl in our family," Meredith said, smiling at him.

"A nice?" Max said, smiling. "I want a girl too"

"I want a boy," Meredith tells him.

"No, I want a girl and she must look like you. And she will be my little sunshine, my pumpkin, my muffin, my sweetie honey pie .. "

And Meredith starts to laugh.

"In this case we will have a boy. He will not be confused with so many names. "

"Neah!" Max said. "I want my baby girl!"

"And I want my baby wolffy" Meredith said laughing out loud, saying the words that Vivi is always using.

And they just stayed hugging on the couch laughing but when the door suddenly opened they almost startled.

"Don't you know how to knock?" Max asks Luke, who enters holding hands with Vivi.

"No, what's the charm of doing it? We hoped to catch you in some invigorating activities, but it seems to me that you are already bored of each other. "

"Do you want to walk or do you no longer need your legs?" Max asks him.

"Do you want a threesome?" Vivi asks him and Max's face becomes whitened in a second.

"That's what I thought," Vivi said. "Leave my mate alone or I will come over you in the middle of the night!" she tells Max and he looks at Luke in horror and then at Meredith.

"Darling" Max says "From now on we will close all the doors before going to bed"

Meredith just laughs but doesn't get to say anything as soon as Sam and Cara enter Meredith's office.

"Isn't anyone knocking on the door here?" Max asks angrily.

He wanted some time alone with his luna and it seems that everyone is sabotaging him.

"So?" Meredith asks, taking Max's hand in her hand.

"We are going to have..." Sam said and then looked at Cara who had tears in her eyes.

"We're going to have a baby boy" And Meredith jumps out of Max's arms and takes her in her arms.

"And a baby girl!" she also said and everyone turned their heads and looked at Sam.

"Are you going to have twins?" Max asks and he is very jealous right now.

"Yes, man! Is like the goddess gave us back the pup that we lost. We will have a duo "

And Cara just comes near him and squats on his chest.

"A baby boy for me and a baby girl for Sam. Just as we wanted." she said.

"And you want to know something?" she asks and looks at Sam, and makes a sign for him to speak.

"We already have the names already," and Sam looks into Max's eyes.

"My girl will be Mary Edith " and he laughs.

"It looks a lot with Meredith," Vivi said as if she just discovered the Americas just as Amerigo Vespucci did a few hundreds of years ago, while Meredith looks into Cara's eyes and say:

"I am honored, my sweet friend" she said and she had tears in her eyes.

"And the boy?" Max asks, smiling at Sam.

"He will call him Luke!" Luke said, laughing hard and Sam showed him his middle finger.

"My boy will be Maxwell"

And right when they thought that Meredith's office is full and none can enter, the door opens again and James and Lori appear in the door.

"We've got news!" James said.

"We know!" Max laughs. "You will have a daughter"

"Not that!" James said. "I mean that too but I got news about something that will make you lose your smile."

And Max just looks in his eyes. Sam and Luke too. They know very well what they are looking for.

"I found them" James said and Meredith's smile just evaporated, but looking at Cara she realized something.

"Are they coming after me?" and she looks into James' eyes.

"No, they didn't know that we traced them."

Meredith just thinks for a minute and looks into Max's eyes.

"We are living in peace right now. If they are not attacking right now just keep an eye on them and let's prolong this happiness that we have now. I just want to be with Max and all of you. I don't want to fight again "

"They are a danger to us," Max said.

"Not if they don't have the element of surprise." and she takes Max's hand and puts it on her heart area. "Just watch them. "

"I don't like that!" Sam said.

Max just looks in Meredith's eyes and he understands her thoughts and her needs and without looking at Sam or Luke he just tells.

"Watch them and if they try something, kill them!"
