

105 Chapter 105 The human that married the greatest alpha

Author's POV 1

Max had no rest all day thinking about the words James had read. He must find the truth, None will take Meredith from him. He just found her, he can't give it up.

First was Castellano and now this?

"What is happening with you, brat?" grandpa Cruz asks, seeing him devastated.

"Not having all the pieces of the puzzle makes me scared, grandpa." and he just looks at the old man.

"Is it about Meredith?" Grandpa asked.

"There are a lot of things on the internet and reading it .." but grandpa stops him.

"What do you know about me, Maximilian" he asks and this time he has his alpha aura making Max marvel at the power this old man emanates.

"According to Meredith you are an old perv" and he starts to laugh.

"Why is that?" and this time Grandpa Cruz takes Max seriously.

"Because you make plans over plans and ..." and he just let the phrase in the air.

"You knew" Max whispers as if having a revelation.

"I knew Landon and I knew he was the right man to raise this little girl. Back then, when I was young I had my informers everywhere in this country and I found out that some hunters were looking for a little baby girl that was born from two strong alphas. Both of them were killed and their pack was completely destroyed but the little pup was nowhere to be seen."

"And you found her," Max said.

"I did. I couldn't let them kill an innocent pup, and if they wanted her I knew that there was more than what everyone knew. The hunters have a sixth sense. They feel these things before us. So I looked for them and when I found them I tried to take the girl but they attacked me. It was not my intention to kill them but they were hunters and killers and gave me no other option."

"You really are an old perv," Max said as a revelation.

"The biggest one. You can't even imagine what plan I had in my mind to make Jen accept me" and he starts to laugh. "She won't even know what hit her, but let's get back to my sweet granddaughter. I took her and went with her in Landon's pack. Olivia couldn't have other kids after James and Meredith was so perfect that they loved her from the first second. "

"This is why you wanted me to marry her so much?"

"I knew she was special but I didn't know in which way, and also I knew she would be protected with you but the mate bond was the biggest surprise" and grandpa laughs. "It seems that her mother from heaven had the same thought"

"Thank you grandpa" Max said and took the old man in his arms. "I will never be able to thank you for everything you have done for Meredith."

"You can start now, by talking to Jen or putting an alpha command over her to accept me," the old perv said.

"That is out of discussion" Meredith said entering the room laughing and she mindlinks auntie Jen who comes in the room but seeing grandpa Cruz she is whitening her face.

"Auntie" Meredith said, coming and taking her hand in her hand. "Is this old man upsetting you?" she asked, smiling at her.

"Luna" she said blushing without looking at grandpa Cruz.

"Auntie Jen, what did you say to me back then, when Max was the way he was and I looked for a way to escape from our marriage?"

"I said a lot of things back then" she said looking at Meredith and then at Max.

"You said he would regret losing me." Meredith said and auntie Jen approves. "That he couldn't have a better luna than me" and she looks at Max this time.

"And I did regret," Max said and came near Meredith and hugged her from behind. "Now it's my turn to tell you something, auntie." and she looks straight in her eyes and she is using her luna voice and Artemis starts emanating her power.

"You lost more than ten years from something that could be outstanding. Both of you. You, auntie, for not recognizing your own value. I hadn't met Grandma Cruz and I am sure she was a good woman but I know you and you were like a mother to me."

And looking at grandpa Cruz she said.

"And you old perv, you lost your time trying to make me accept this scoundrel while you were losing your own happiness between your fingers. How many people do you think get a second chance? ”

“I did!” Max said laughing.

“You are from another story, Maximilian Cruz, so shut up!” and she starts to laugh. “Now let me put this naughty grandpa where he should be.” and she looks at both of them and said:

“Grandpa Cruz! Do you want auntie Jen or you are fooling around because it seems to me that this is all you can do! ”

“I want her!” Grandpa said with a sigh. “But I am old now, and I can’t offer her too much, look at me! I walk with the help of a cane for goddess sake! ” and he is very frustrated, “Auntie Jen!” Meredith said looking at her but with a very calm and sweet face. “Do you really refuse this old man? Look at him! Don’t you have a heart? ”

“It’s not about that , my luna,” Jen said.

“Then what’s all about?” Max asks, seeing her so sad.

“I don’t feel worthy to stay near him. His former luna was a very good woman, an alpha blood and I am just her servant, I am an old omega ”and she let her head down not daring to look grandpa in the eye.

“And I am just the human, the weak human that married the greatest alpha" and she smiles at Max, who can't stand it and kisses her directly.

"I command you to accept him!" Meredith said among the kisses of Max and auntie Jen is so pale that she has a little and faint.

She can't refuse her command. But at the same time she is happy, her luna knows that she is too ashamed to accept grandpa voluntarily so now she can say that her luna forced her.

"You are the best granddaughter in the universe!" Grandpa Cruz said, throwing his cane in the air.

"Shit! How am I going to walk now?" he asks looking around after him, but auntie Jen comes near him and says,

"My luna forced me to accept you ,my alpha, I suppose I can offer you my hand ca support if you want to take it" and the old woman face is all blushed,

The old man takes her hand and just looks at her, and then at Max and Meredith and just whisper a simple "Thank you"

"No grandpa!" Meredith said. "Thank you!"

"Did you hear our discussion?" Max asked through their mindlink.

"Not intentionally, but yes, I hear it. And I don't care Max. I am not interested in finding out about my past. I care about this moment and our future, That's all! " and she kisses him and then looks at the old folks who walk next to each other holding each other's arms.

"I am happy for grandpa. He was alone too much time "Max said, thinking about everything that happened.

It is said that "We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing."
(George Bernard Shaw)

And this is the lesson that grandpa Cruz finally learned.
