

106 Chapter 106 What honeymoon?

Author's POV 1

"What the hell is happening here?" Max asked as soon as he went into his living the next morning.

Luke and Vivi are arguing and Vivi is pointing her fingers at him.

"WHAT HAPPENED?" Max asks again because Vivi has little left and bursts into tears.

"I want to work!" Vivi said. "And Luke won't let me!"

"It's not about that, Max, but she is my wife and I can take good care of her. She doesn't need to work. And here are not too many animals around the pack. We are wolves for the goddess 'sake. We don't raise kittens and rabbits to need a vet."

"You can't close her in the house, man!" Max said.

"She needs something to consume her energy or she will start again about spending the night in bed with me!" and he starts to laugh.

"You wish that, didn't you?" Meredith asks him, walking downstairs for breakfast too.

"Little pervert!" she said, making Max come near her and take her in his arms.

"Stark will commit suicide only at the thought of touching another woman. This Frenchie is not what I need. No offense, Frenchie!" Max said while Vivi showed him a middle finger.

"Why don't you come and work with me?"
Meredith asks her.

"WHAT?" Max and Luke ask at the same time.

"Yes!" Vivi said, jumping up while Max and Luke shouted in unison "No!"

Meredith and Vivi just look at them.

"Cara is pregnant and having twins is at risk after she already lost a pregnancy so I asked her to stay at home and rest and I need an assistant."

"Yes, I will do it!" Vivi says, rubbing her hands.

"This is not good, my love" Max said through mindlink "She is the most careless being I know. She will be ruining your mood and in the end you will work for her too. "

"I don't care, Max. I want a friendly face near me," Meredith said and then looking at Vivi she said "You start today!"

"What about Franco?" Luke said.

"What about Franco?" Vivi asks as if Luke is asking where his favorite socks are.

"He will be alone here all day. Don't you feel sorry for him for leaving him like that? "

"He is not alone!" Vivi said "He is with Leia."

"Leia is in a coma and he just stays there reading her the news and his books in French. Telling her about his creations. He will lose his mind at this rate. " and Luke is very serious now.

"He will not. I know Franco "and she smiles at Meredith. "Should I wear something sexy or something chic?"

"Goddess!" Luke said, slapping his own face.

"Max, help me!"

"I can't, She will make me sleep on the couch" and he starts to laugh.

"I won't, you are the best, hubby" Meredith said laughing and mocking him with this "hubby". She is not the type who uses this word seriously, and Max knows it. But he likes this side of her.

"You know what?" Luke asks "Hire me too!" he tells Meredith.

"As what?" and she just looks around.

"As a janitor!" Vivi said looking ugly at him.

"Will you shut up?" Luke asks Vivi but right then Sam comes holding Cara's hand.

"Why do you have these faces ?" he asks, looking at Luke and Max.

"Is it her fault!" Max tells him pointing to Vivi.
"She will hunt me even in my company!"

"Let's eat and leave my girl alone" Meredith tells them but laughing at the same time and right then some omegas start to serve the breakfast.

"Where is auntie Jen?" suddenly Sam asks.

"In her honeymoon" Meredith tells with a serious face.

"WHAT?" and everyone looks at her wondering if she hit her head somewhere while Max bursts into laughter.

"Are you kidding me?" Cara asks. "Auntie Jen found her mate and he took her on a honeymoon and looking at Sam she said with hatred.

"You didn't even take me on a one day trip! You elope and knock me out by making me pregnant in a week! "

"I promise that I will .." Sam starts.

"Bulshit!" Vivi said and looking at Luke she said.

"At least he made her pregnant! You didn't take me on a honeymoon either and I am still without a baby wolfy! "

"Holy goddess!" Max said. "Is she unhappy because of your stamina, Luke?"

And Luke's face is white. He has a lot of stamina and makes Vivi yell like crazy every time he is with her but for unknown reasons she is not pregnant.

"What is going on here?" Lisa and Carter asked as soon as they came for breakfast too.

"Auntie Jen found her mate and he took her on a honeymoon." Vivi said in spite.

"WHAT!?!?!" And Carter looks at Lisa and then at Max and Meredith, who burst in laughter.

"Luna Lisa, did Alpha Carter take you on a honeymoon?" Vivi asks, looking in her eyes.

"No, sweetie, there were other times then. We just stayed here and made Max "and she smiles at Carter.

"And that's when I decided that my pack house is too small and I built this mansion" grandpa Cruz is heard, coming slowly but what to see? Near him auntie Jen is helping him to walk.

"You lied to me!" Luke says. "Auntie Jen is still here!"

"Where else should she be?" Grandpa Cruz asks.

"In her honeymoon." Sam said "Meredith just lied to us that she found her mate at this age. What a good joke! She is fifty eight or fifty night! Who else should take her at that age? And do what with her?" and he starts to laugh, while Max and Meredith, also Carter and Lisa, just look at him waiting for the tornado to hit him.

And it hit him hard, when Grandpa Cruz's cane landed on his head.

"Brat!" grandpa yelled. "Who are you talking about like that?" And Sam makes his eyes as big as onions while Luke stays with his mouth wide open.

"She is your mate?" Sam yelled looking at auntie Jen and he saw it. That perverted old man even marked her.

"Holy shit!" Sam said.

"Max!" And he starts to laugh "You'll have a new uncle or aunt!" and grandpa hits him again while auntie Jen blushed only at that thought of having a baby at that age.

"You are impossible!" Carter said to Sam, smiling at him. "I wonder how Cara tolerates you!"

"I wonder too" Cara said laughing but Sam in an instant takes her in his arms and says.

"You love me! That's why! You are not allowed to wonder why you love me! I am your fated mate and I am the best for you! "

"If you said so!" Cara said, yawning easily.

"Are you tired?" he asks her and helps her sit at the table while the rest of the gang find their place.

Cara just puts her head on his shoulder.

"I am fine, my sweet love," she said. And Sam's heart skips a beat. Is for the first time when she calls him that way.

"I believe you can skip that honeymoon, judging from your face!" Max said.

"Yeah...I love him with or without a honeymoon" Cara said and Sam had tears in his eyes.

"I don't!" Vivi said. "I want my honeymoon!"

But right then Francois can be heard from the door.

"You are not even married. You are just mated. What honeymoon? Leave the man alone! "

And this way, my dear, the flood broke out!

And the last thing that was heard before Vivi to take over the scene was Luke saying:

"I'm doomed!"
