

110 Chapter 110 I am the primordial wolf for nothing!

Author's POV 1

"Do you think she's sick?" Max asks, looking at Vivi.

She just stays in the garden, in a shady swing, with her eyes closed, as if dreaming.

"No," Meredith said with a smile. "But I think that is the first time in her life when after so much time she is truly happy. Is good to see her like this. Francois only told me about Vivienne before the attack. Vivienne who was kind and calm. Vivienne who was shy. Look at her Max ..

"Meredith said.

"I don't know what to say, Mer. She seems sick. If you ask me now, I think I prefer the naughty and sassy Vivienne. "

They stay in Max's office from the packhouse and just look at Vivi, and when they see Luke coming and taking her in his lap, caressing her inexistent belly, both of them felt a huge void in their hearts, but none of them said anything.

"When did James say he was coming?" Max asked, looking at his watch.

"He should have been here by now." and she looks again at the window.

"I want a baby too, Artemis," she said to herself.

"What is wrong with me? Why can't I have a baby? "

"I don't know, Mer," Artemis said. "You are healthy, Max is healthy, maybe it's not the right time" and Meredith just looks out the window with tears in her eyes but immediately wipes them when she hears the doorknob pressing.

"James!" Max said and caught his hand giving him a typical masculine hug in which the men beat each other on the shoulder as if they were shaking each other from dust.

"Lori!" He said smiling at her "But you are growing... Are you sure you only have one pup inside your womb?" but Meredith slaps him over his head.

"Max!" she said and then took Lori in her arms.

"You are beautiful, don't mind him! He is jealous!" and she started to laugh.

"You wanted to talk with us?" Max asked as soon as they made sure that they were alone.

"Yes, Max" and looking at Meredith James said "We have problems."

"What do you mean by problems, James?" and Max gives him a meaningful look.

"I lost Veronica trace" he said a little bit in panic.
"It's the first time something like this happens to me"

"I hope you're joking?" Max said, standing up on his feet.

"No and that's why I wanted to speak with you alone. She is Sam's sister, and she hurt Luke's sister and I don't know if they will take too easy what I am going to say "

"Speak, James!" Max said but Meredith caught his hand.

"There is no need." she said looking at Max and then looking at James she continued.

"You won't hunt her and you won't kill her"

"Are you nuts, Meredith?" James asked furiously at her for the first time in his life. "She will come here and she will try to hurt you again!"

"Let her try," Meredith said.

"Mer, they are right," Lori said with a trembling voice.

And Max is so angry for what she is doing right now that if he could he will beat her until she will change her mind.

"She's pregnant, James" and she looks at Lori's belly. "That child has no guilt. And who knows maybe in the end we will find out that she is pregnant with Max's child "

"What the hell are you talking about?" Max said, catching her arm and turning her so she can face him.

"From my calculation she is not, Max, but what if she is?" She asks him.

"What if she was your sister and not Sam's sister?" and looking at him she said. "She will pay for what she did. Believe me that she will pay, but I am not her judge. Her mother is dead, her brother doesn't want her, her father will drive her away as soon as she sees her. She is already paying. "

"When did she disappear?" Max asked.

"This morning." and looking at his sister James said "From my calculations if she comes here, in the evening she should appear."

"Shit!" Max said, looking at Meredith, who stayed calm.

"You should calm down!" she said to him. "You'd better worry about Sam and Cara losing so much because of her. For Leia, who has just recovered and will have to meet her executioner. She can't touch me. She can't do anything to me physically."

And Max is so angry that he just exits his office , slamming the door behind him and leaves her alone with James and Lori.

He takes his car keys and starts to drive to calm himself.

"Will he be fine?" James asks Meredith.

"He will have to understand that I no longer want to see blood. I am sick of all of this. Since I met him I have had more fighting and evil in my life than in my whole life. "

"I can't leave you alone," James said.

"Then stay with me, stay for dinner" and looking at him she said "Please don't tell dad or mom about this. They will be worried. "

"I don't agree with your methods, Meredith. I love and you are my sister but you are wrong
now. Evil must be eradicated. "

"Not this time," she said, looking at Max's car as he walked away from the house.

"What is going on here?" Carter asked seeing James.

"Veronica is coming after Meredith and she wants to stay and watch" and Meredith just looks at him and wants to punch him in the face.

"WHAT?" Suddenly Franco can be heard from the lobby. "That crazy woman who hurt Leia and Cara?" and he is so panicked that he is about to faint.

"Do you see him?" James asks. "This is the right reaction!"

"It's not!" Meredith yelled at him "Last time when I saw her I felt that something is not right with her. She was fighting with herself and she was a victim too. Her mother's victim, but now her influence is gone, and maybe .. "

"You are wrong!" Lisa said. "I have known that girl since she was a baby, she was evil from her first day of life!"

"I will not change my mind," Meredith said. "I cannot heal evil by evil! I just can't! If that is the only solution then I am the primordial wolf for nothing! If all I can do is kill her!" and she exits the office, and as soon as she is alone she bursts into tears.

She transforms in her wolf form and runs directly into the forest under the shocked look of Vivienne and Luke.

She runs for hours and when she stops she looks around and doesn't recognize the place.

"Where the hell am I?" she asks, puzzled.

"I don't know, it seems to be the Easter side of our pack. But...can you smell the air?" Artemis asks.

"Yes .. someone is here" Meredith whispers.

"Someone is watching us."

"Is not Veronica, neither Vincenzo Castellano..is someone else...and I feel..." Artemis said and shivered, not for fear but for the disgust that was created by that presence. "

"Is evil... I felt it too, Artemis. It's pure evil! "
