

113 Chapter 113 Will you bite me, please?

Author's POV 1

"Max" Luke mindlinks him just after everyone went to their room to sleep. "Can you come to my condo? I am in deep shit!"

"If Vivienne wants to try that three-shit that she was always talking about when we met, I am sorry but I am not coming!" Max said laughing.

"She is pregnant, man! I mean she wouldn't have asked for that even if she wasn't ,she was just fooling around with you to annoy you. But I need your help and I need it quickly "

Max just looks at Meredith, who exists the bathroom in a Lace Plunge Slip from Victoria's Secret, that is called Tropic Paradise, and he just stops and looks at her with his mouth open and he closed his eyes, catching the bridge of his nose and swears in his mind:

"I swear I have the most idiotic beta and gamma on the Earth, Stark! If he is calling me for nothing I will kick his ass!" Max said and opening his eyes he looks at Meredith coming towards him smiling.

"What happened, darling ?" she asks and puts her arms around his neck, pecking his lips.

"Luke, he wants to go to his condo because there is something happening. If Vivienne makes problems again, I swear to you that I will.. "but she stops him kissing him again.

"Wait for me" and she run to her closet, takes a Lace Inset Robe that is at set with that sexy Tropical Color Lace Plunge Slip and coming near Max she said:

"Let's go!"

"Where to go?" Max asks, looking at her. He doesn't want to go anywhere, he just wants to stay here and do a lot of things to her, especially after seeing her in that sexy thing that she wears under her robe.

"To see what is happening at Luke's condo! Hellooo ????? " she said, raising her hands in the air and signaling him to walk.

He just stays there and looks at her long legs and taking a deep breath he once again insults Luke in his mind. Is the middle of the night for the goddess 'sake, what problems could he have?

"Where are you going?" James asks exiting his bedroom, because he stayed overnight. Lori was tired of flying at this hour back and he will go back tomorrow when Landon will come with Olivia to discuss what happened in the forest .

"Luke!" Max said puffing. "Something is happening at his condo."

James looks in the room as Lori sleeps soundly and says:

"Let's go!" and laughing, he continues. "Probably Vivienne kicked him out of the house again."

But when they arrive at Luke's and Sam's floor there is a lot of noise. Even Sam and Cara are there, so are Carter and Lisa, grandpa Cruz and auntie Jen.

"What the hell is happening here?" Max asked using his alpha voice.

"That's happening!" Luke said, pointing to Francois who just stayed with his arms on his chest and looked at Leia.

"She doesn't want to bite me!" Françoise said very upset.

"Of course I don't want to!" Leia said looking at him "I don't want to take rabies from you! What if I take something from you? I just woke up in a coma!"

"Bite me!" he said, very upset.

"Franco!" Vivi tried to say, "This is not how these things are done!"

"I don't care!" Francois said. "She is my mate and I want to be bitten by her so when that boo-hoo hoo will come after Meredith to be able to fight with him too."

"Holy goddess!" Leia exclaimed, raising her hand in the air.

"Please get him out of here until I beat him!"

Sam starts to laugh but just a look from Cara and he is silent.

"This is serious," Cara said through the mindlink. "Don't you understand. He wants her! He changed his mind! "

"So?" Sam asked her in return .

"You are impossible, Sam. Just shut up! " and Cara takes his hand in her hand. This is very exciting. It's like some live soap opera!

"Francois" Meredith said coming near "You can't force Leia to bite you. This is something very intimate. I was bitten by Castellano to save my life, but you are not in danger. Or I could have been bitten by Max when he would have marked me and then I would have become a werewolf. But now there is neither a danger, nor a mating ceremony so that Leia can bite you. Don't you understand what you are asking for? "

"You were just an inactivated werewolf, it's different!" Francois said.

"..inactivated werewolf?" And Max laughs with all his heart, so does Carter and Lisa.

"What about Vivi?" Franco said.

"She was in the middle of the mating process!" Luke said. "That's why I bite her, she accepted me!"

"I studied the problem!" Francois said. "Is not something usual for a werewolf to be mated with a human. Is very special. So Vivi and I must be special if we both have werewolves mates. "

"Had!" Leia said. "Only Vivi has a mate, you are not anymore!" and she leaves the room, while Francois just looks at her as she walks away.

"I want you back!" He yelled after her. "I changed my mind!"

But Leia just raised her hand showing him her middle finger and spinning it in the air.

"I guess that was her way of telling you that would be better if you would just fuck off?" Sam asks laughing.

Francois just starts to swear in French and goes after her, catching her arms but with a single move she raises him from the ground and hits him directly in the stomach making him fly to the first wall.

"Leia!" Luke and Vivi yelled in panic while she stopped and just looked shocked at what she just did.

"Shit!" and she runs to Francois who is barely breathing.

"Are you nuts, Leia?" Max and James ask at the same time while Meredith pushes her near Francois and takes him in her arms.

"Call the doctors, Max. He has some broken ribs." and looking at Leia said: "I know that you are angry for what he did. But you accepted his rejection and things ended between you two. He regretted it and he took care of you while you were in a coma. He doesn't deserve this "and she looks at Francoise who has already fainted.

"He stayed at your head for weeks, Leia," Luke said this time.

"Both in hospital and here. You are back because your wolf felt him. I hate him. " and looking at Vivi he said "No offense my sweet cherie but he was a jerk" and looking back at Leia said. "But he regrets, and you were mates. And you dreamed with your eyes open at this "

"And we are not mates anymore!" Leia yelled and ran out of the room.

"Let her calm down!" Meredith said and looking at Max she said.

"Help me put him on that sofa until the doctor comes."

"Mere ..." Franco whispered, almost fainting again. "Will you bite me, please?"

"Don't you dare!" Max said, looking at her.

"I can't, Francois," Meredith said. "It is painful and you have no serious reason to give up your whole life. If you are doing this only to defend me, I assure you that I can defend myself." and she caresses his forehead.

The doctors came in looking at him said:

"Shit another wounded human!"

"What are we going to do with him?" Luke asked.
"He can't force Leia to take him back if she doesn't want to"

"No we can't," Meredith said, watching him sadly as the doctors took him out of the room.

"But we can help him!" suddenly James said.

"What?" all of them said in unison, turning their heads to James.

"The man moved his business to Canada just to stay here with Vivienne and Leia." James said, looking at Max.

"More than this, Leia is back because of him. He took care of her. Let's help the man to show Leia that he is sorry and he regrets. Once mates until one of them is marked by someone else they still have a chance. ”

“I will not act like Cupid for him!” Luke said.

“I will!” Sam said after Cara commanded him to say it through their mindlink.

“I will help him too” Cara said and took Sam’s hand and put it on her belly to feel their babies movements.

“He is my brother so it is my responsibility to see him happy” and Vivi looks at Luke.

“And Lela is my sister..so no, I won’t help him, but I will help her to see the opportunity she has.”

“You are helping him too, you fool!” Sam said “recognize!” but Luke disapproves and starts laughing.

“Max?” Meredith asks and looks straight into his eyes.

“Alright, I will help him, I will let him stay here but I forbid you to bite him if his life is not endangered. No man will be bitten voluntarily in my pack. Dying or mating, only those can be the circumstances for something like this to happen. Am I clear? ’Max asked.

“You know what?” grandpa Cruz asked.

"I will help him too!" and all the gang said in a chorus.

"Please, no, grandpa!"

"I will!" he said, smiling at Jen.

The old scoundrel perv, called Grandpa Cruz is back in action! Prepare yourself!
