

122 Chapter 122 All this shit stops here!

Author's POV 1

"Mer!" Cara uttered, coming near Meredith and looking at her a little bit scared. "How did you do that?"

"Do what?" Max asks, turning his head to Cara and then looking back at Meredith.

"She touch her head with her hand and command Veronica to stay still and she fainted directly"

"I didn't" and Meredith just stayed calm in her garden armchair, with a pouting face.

"She is sick and exhausted and probably fainted from emotions" and putting her hand on her chest she just said: "I am sick of all of this!"

"I am sorry" and Max takes her hand in his hand but Meredith is so angry that she just takes her hand out from Max's hand and says:

"She said that my daughter is a bastard child. She was born today and already someone hates her in this world! "

"I will kill her!" Max growls immediately but Meredith just looks at him and says in a very commanding voice.

"You will do nothing! That woman is your responsibility. You are still her alpha and she lost her mind because of you, Max. She is your beta sister and you will not do anything against her until you are sure that you did everything you could to help her heal her mind! Am I clear? " she asks and everyone looks at her in shock.

"Mer, I know that she is my sister," Sam said coming close to her. But what she did against this pack, against Max, Cara...against you is beyond forgiveness! You have no obligation regarding it "

"Here you are wrong, Sam!" Meredith said. "I am not doing this for her. I am doing this for me. I have the power to do things well. I am the one that decides how I want to live. Hurting her now, I will also hurt an innocent pup. I will hurt Castellano and he will look for revenge. Evil creates a vicious circle. This chain breaks with me. All this shit stops here. "

And she looks at Cara:

"If you want to punish her for the loss of your pup" and this time she has tears in her eyes "It is your choice, but as for the facts against me, no one is allowed to do anything to her."

And she looks around. Landon and Olivia say nothing. They are used to Meredith, the human, calm and kind while the daughter that stays in front of them right now is a strong woman that they don't recognize, but they are damned proud of her!

Meredith looks in the bassinet, takes Theo from there and leaves under everyone's shocked gaze.

"My appetite is over! I will go back to my room!" and she just leaves.

Entering the house she just came face to face with Leia, who tries to say something but Meredith just ignores her, making her perplexed.

"I am so furious!" she said putting Theo in the middle of her bed, and then starting to walk around the room.

"I know, Mer," Artemis said. "I don't understand how it was possible for Veronica to leave the hospital and come here. What if she would have hurt Theo?"

Artemis growls in Meredith's mind and is so furious that it's really hard to think clearly right now.

"It's just Max's fault!" Meredith said looking out the window as family and friends sat in the garden and discussed what happened. She sees Cara and Sam arguing in contradiction, while Leia looks around and runs somewhere panicked. Luke holds Vivi in his arms, and her parents discuss with Max's parents. James sits in an armchair and looks so lost while he holds Lori in his lap. Everyone is sad.

"Why did he choose to be a womanizer and live the way he did? Why didn't he think of the consequences? "

But right then the door opened and Max came in.

He doesn't say anything. And now seriously? What could be said?

His mate, his luna was attacked by his former mistress in her own house. She has the right to be furious.

"This will never happen again!" Max said, looking straight into Meredith's eyes.

She just looks at him and after some time she turns her back on him, because she wants to cry.

"This day should have been a happy one. I've just given birth a few hours ago to the most wonderful baby girl I could have asked for. "

"And it is a happy day!" Max says coming and putting his arms around her body, holding her from behind.

"How the hell did she escape? Someone must have helped her! Meredith said and turned in Max's arms. "She was handcuffed, Max! She has no wolf, and even if she had she was a weak werewolf that I beat as a human twice!"

Meredith just looked into his eyes.

"Continue, please" Max tells her, starting to understand why she is so furious.

"I can't help but wonder, Max. Who hates me enough to help that madwoman? Who told her I gave birth today? Who brought her here?"

"I will investigate this." Max said very seriously because all of Meredith's questions are very pertinent. This is a criminal mind that planned all this.

"What if there is another mistress of yours that seeks revenge? I know that most of our pack single females hate me. I know your past and I didn't care about it but today your past interfered with our daughter's life, Max."

"I will kill anyone involved in this shit!" Max growled and caught his mate in his arms. He just holds the back of her head with one hand and the other one rests on her waist.

"I will say this only once, and this is an oath, Meredith Cruz!" and he looks at her, letting Stark to take control, partially not completely so that his words to be shared with his wolf:

"The mountains can move!" He said "The hills, the plains and deserts of the earth can move from their place. The years will transform us and nothing we know today to exist will not be the same in the future, but one thing will never change. And that is my love for you! "

Max kissed Meredith, and at the beginning she was so upset that she just let him kiss her but after a few seconds she kissed him back.

"I love you. There is only one woman in this world that counts and that woman is my wife and my luna, and from today the mother of my pup. I made a lot of mistakes and it seems to me that the time has come for me to pay for them. I will pay my liabilities, my love. Not you, not our daughter. I will take responsibility for everything I did. "

"I am just angry" and she puts her face on his chest, sniffing his scent and calming down. "I just want to live a happy life. I just want to be with you, and our daughter. But .. "

"I know," Max said, lifting her chin with his fingers and looking into her eyes.

"And I will make this become a reality, because I want the same thing."

"Forgive me!" Meredith said looking deep into his eyes.

"You didn't do anything wrong" Mas whispers and going to bed, he takes Theo in his arms, holding her at his chest and says:

"Come with me , I want to show you something."

He takes Meredith's hand in his hand and walks into the next bedroom. As soon as he opens the door, Meredith's face becomes happy.

Is a spare bedroom that they never used. The walls were simple, painted in medium gray and there was no furniture but now it is. Is not much but everything shows the care and love of the one who arranged them.

On the front wall of the door Max glued a Botanical Wall Decal Set White Branch leaf that imitates willow branches. They descend from the white ceiling and seem to flow on the gray wall on which the crib was placed, beautifully decorated in gray hickory wood. In front of the window he also put a hickory dresser with built-in drawers, on which he placed a changing table and even arranged the diapers near it. On the wall with the door he placed a closet door that goes from the ceiling to the floor in a set with the dresser and the crib.

The crib is already arranged with white blankets and there is even a little teddy bear near Theo's future pillow.

In the corner of the room is put and specially arranged for Meredith a white armchair where Max put a fluffy pink blanket and another white teddy bear. Near this space is a little side table, on which he placed a white lamp, colored with pink fairies. The rest of the space is filled with a white and gray carpet, fluffy like a cloud, and a lot of teddies.

"Oh, my goddess!" Meredith said, looking at that beautiful room. "Is this your LEGO thing that you were talking about?" and she starts to laugh.

"Yes, this is Lego for parents!" and kissing the top of her head he asks: "Do you like it?"

"Are you kidding me?" and Meredith turns her head to face him "I love it! You did all of this in just a half an hour? "

"I had help!" Max said. "James and some warriors helped me so I can't take all the credits"

"You can." Meredith said looking again around her "This is..." and she just smiled "this is perfect!"
