

123 Chapter 123 I have a plan!

Author's POV 1

But those two can't have a happy moment with all the crazy people from this pack.

"What's going on again?" Max said in the morning seeing Leia with a sullen face, while Vivi's had a crying face .

"Francoise left me!" Vivi says and starts to cry again and Luke takes her in his arms and puts her in his lap , kissing her face.

"Stop crying please, you are pregnant and our baby will feel your stress." he whispers to her but she starts to cry even harder.

"But I don't understand!" Vivi said. "He wanted to stay here. He gave up everything he had in France, he sold everything and moved here. Why did he leave our pack to live alone? "

Max just looks at Leia who watches her food plate and says nothing. She is visibly affected and it is clear that in her mind a lot of things are happening.

"Do you want me to hold her?" Max asks Meredith, who gently swings Theo in her arms.

"No" and looking at Leia she says. "You broke his heart Leia. But it's alright, now he will never be a part of your life. Now you are free from him for good. Knowing Françoise she will take the first plane back to France. I'm really sorry for you two. You were so similar, but in the end love with force is impossible. "

And she giggles at Theo.

"Don't you think so, sweetie?" she asks her daughter.

"At least now you can live a happy life. No one will disturb you again!" Max said.

Grandpa Cruz is so sad that he even lost his appetite. He really likes that funny human who from a strong man had become a clumsy lover.

And Leïa can't stand it anymore and getting up from the table she runs into her room, thinking that François will come back in the end because he can't stay away from her if he really says that he loves her.

"Did he really leave?" Cara asks, saddened. "I like him!" she says and Sam escapes a growl hearing this.

"Really Sam?" she asked him and pointing to her belly she said. "Do you know what this is?"

Sam nodded his head and wanted to kiss her but she turned her face from him.

"Don't you dare to kiss me after you just growled at me!"

"I was jealous!" he whispers.

"You were stupid!" and she leaves making Sam to run after her.

"I lost my appetite too," Vivi said. "I miss Françoise," she said, crying again.

"He lives in my old condo," Meredith tells her.
"Until he will buy a house for himself he will use my old house, if you want to visit him you will find him there, but don't let Leia find out where he is, please. Let him heal his wounded heart first "

"Can we go to visit him, please?" Vivi asks Luke and he just takes her in bridal style and exits the house with her.

"Let's see your brother!" Luke said and left the room.

"Auntie Jen" Max looks at the old auntie that now is his grandma "I think that grandpa needs a walk through the garden. He is so sad "

And auntie Jen just smiles at him:

"He is, all his scoundrel's plans have failed miserably and he is facing his first failure as Cupid. He really thought that he would make Leia accept the poor Françoise with his old fashioned letter and some flowers. "

"What is wrong with my love poems!?!?"

"Grandpa said. "You like it!"

"Because I like you" Auntie Jen said blushing "But Leia is a warrior, you can impress her showing her some muscles, not some mushy letters"

"Shit!" grandpa said. "I should have sent Françoise to do some push-ups and intensive training instead. How come I didn't realize!" and looking at Auntie Jen he said "Next time you will be my assistant!"

"Take him for a walk please," Max said, smiling at this old man who does not get tired of weaving intrigue like a spider weaving his spider web.

"So?" Carter asks laughing "Do you want us to leave too?" and he looks at Lisa.

"Yes / No" Max and Meredith said at the same time.

"Maaax!" Meredith yells at him, making Theo look at her while her lips tremble slightly, frowning when she hears her mother screaming.

Max immediately takes her in his arms and starts kissing her cheeks.

"Shhh, daddy is here!" he says.

Meredith gets up from the table and, passing behind Max, gently hugs him and looks at Theo over Max's shoulder.

"She is even more beautiful than yesterday," she says.

"She is my girl!" Max laughs "Of course she is!"

But as they stay there and laugh the front door of the house opens shocking them and again when in front of them stays Veronica.

"Maxi !" she cries. "Please, choose me not her!"

"Holy fucking shit!" Stark said and took control before Max could react.

Carter and Lisa jump in front of Meredith, who is already more than angry. She is not furious with Veronica but she is furious about what is happening.

Someone is testing the limits of her patience.

Veronica is pregnant and seems to look even more dramatic than she looked yesterday.

Meredith looks at Max and trying to calm him she takes Theo and puts her in his arms.

"Please hold her!" she says and passing between Lisa and Carter she goes straight to Veronica.

Meanwhile, feeling her presence Sam came back, but he locked Cara with a key in their bedroom to be sure that she is safe from his sister.

"Veronica! " he yelled at her. "Stay away from luna Meredith!"

"Luna?" she said in disbelief. "I am Maxi's lover. I will be his luna!" and she starts to yell at Sam and coming in front of him, she slaps him with her hands that had no force in them.

But, again, seeing her so agitated, Meredith touched her shoulder this time and said in a whisper:

"Stay still, Veronica!"

And you know the rest. In the next second Veronica fainted.

"What the fuck!" Max said.

"Cara told you yesterday but Meredith insisted that is nothing." And Max looks at Meredith, and Meredith looks at Max and then she says.

"There is only one way to test this"

"Which is?" Sam asks looking at her and Meredith just smiles at him and putting her hand on his arms she says:

"Stay still, Sam!"

And Sam fainted, falling in his face.

"Holy guacamole!" Max and Carter yelled at the same time.

"Try that on me!" Carter said elated beyond measure.

"No, dad" Meredith insists "I don't want to hurt you!"

"Try it please!" he says. "I am an alpha, let's see if it has the same effect on me!"

"Try it!" Max said laughing in front of this revelation.

"Stay still, dad!" Meredith said and Carter collapsed immediately but he was the first of those three fainted that started to recover.

"This is awesome!" Max said laughing. "So in the end you have some benefits from being a royal"

"It looks so" and Meredith goes near Veronica and looks at her, how she lays on the floor, completely fainted and she said.

"I have a plan!"
