

126 Chapter 126 Do you need help?

Author's POV 1

"What is with that face, Max?" Sam asks, looking at Max very carefully.

All the boys are in Max's office from MaxLine and simply look at him. He is visibly sad even if they know he is happy for being a daddy, but at the same time something is not right.

"Did my sister do something to you?" James asks because he is here too with business.

"Yeah...she did!" Max said, leaning back in his chair.

"What did she do this time?" And James starts to laugh knowing too well what Meredith is capable of.

"What she did is that she is not doing anything to me anymore!" and now Max is completely outraged.

"What do you mean, man?" James asks "She did or she didn't do anything?"

"I haven't been with her since she gave birth!" Max points out the problem. "When Meredith was not healed yet, or what it was that and the doctors asked her not to force herself in any way, Theo slept all night and was the sweetest baby girl in the universe."

"She is already three weeks old, and if you ask me" Sam said "she is still the cutest baby girl in the universe. I can't wait to meet my baby girl too."

"You say that now. And you are in deep shit, because you will have two pups!"

"What could be so tragic about having a pup, Max?" Luke asks.

"That pup will know exactly when you want to be with his mommy and when you will be in the middle of the action, or when you will be right there, ready to take your woman, do you know what's next?"

"Tell us!" James, Sam and Luke said at the same time with their hearts trembling.

Shit, it's like a scary movie, and you know that the next scene is a murderous one.

"That sweet baby will transform into a little terrorist and will start to whimper, or to cry his heart out, making you have blue balls. Meredith was right, man! Theodora has a sensor! She knows when I want to be with Meredith!"

"Are you telling me" Sam said "That you didn't touch Meredith in the last three weeks?" And his face is traumatized, visualizing his own future.

"That's exactly what I am telling you, and the worst part is that Meredith is telling me again and again to be patient. I want my mate back! My daughter stole my mate!"

"Shit! I will have two puppies!" Sam said with a white face.

"Then you will never touch Cara until they will find their own mates!" Max tells him and he is a little bit and faint.

"I will have a girl too" James said, "but maybe the goddess will look at the fact that I was a good werewolf all my life and will let me keep my mate. This is karma, Max!" James pointed and started to laugh.

"I will have a baby wolffy" Luke said laughing, remembering the way Vivi always talks about their pup. "I am sure that my boy will be by my side and will not sabotage me"

"That's what you say now. But wait and see!" Max said. "Two months. That's all you have, James. After those two months you will be in my place! And you Sam, maybe less than two months, because having twins she can give birth anytime!"

And hearing him, Sam goes and takes his car keys and starts to walk to the door.

"Where are you going?" Luke asks, seeing him so determined to leave.

"To be with Cara! If the situation is so dramatic, I want to recharge my batteries now, I will be with her until I will not be able to walk anymore. "

"Poor Cara," James said.

"No, poor Sam," Luke laughs" because Cara will beat his ass when she finds out what he just said."

"Do you need my help?" Luke asked Max, who looked at him in pure shock.

"With what?" and in the next second he is on his feet ready to beat Luke.

"With Meredith of course!" Luke said completely innocent.

"Are you nuts?" And Max gets up and this time he starts walking towards Luke ready to beat him." You will never touch Meredith in my place!"

"WHAT?" Luke said, taking a step back. "ARE YOU OUT OF YOUR MIND?"

"Holy shit! Having a baby took your mind, Max?" James starts to laugh.

"Luke is right. Do you need help with Meredith?" and Max just looks at him.

"You are her brother!" he exclaimed.

"And that's why I will do anything for her." and he looks at Max who thinks that they are offering to be with Meredith in his place.

"Max! You are tired, you didn't sleep well in the last three weeks and right now you are not even able to understand what we are telling you."

And James asks him directly.

"Do you want one of us to stay with Theo tonight?"

"Will you do this for me?" and Max smiles for the first time in the last two weeks, since the little terrorist started to do her act.

"Please! Please, help me!" Max tells them laughing.

"I will come with Lori tonight and stay at your place," James said. "I missed that little pup."

"And tomorrow, I will stay with her. Vivi wants to see her every day. I believe that she wants to be sure that the baby is still not covered with fur" Luke said laughing hard.

"That woman was hit hard on her head when she was little, because she speaks nonsense all day!" and Max starts to laugh.

"Alright. You can keep Theo tomorrow!" and Luke starts to walk to the door.

"Vivi is the best woman in the universe!" Max yelled.

And Luke turns to face him, took out his iPhone and starts to record Max:

"Say that again!"

"This is priceless!" James laughs holding his belly.

"Vivienne Cassel" Max starts.

"Navarro!" Luke contradicts him.

"Vivienne is the best woman in the universe! And Luke couldn't find a woman more marvelous than her!"

"That's perfect! See you tomorrow, man!" And Luke exits his office saying. "James, bring her to my condo tomorrow morning, and we will keep her safe until her daddy empties his balls."

"Have fun, Max!" James said, standing up as well. "And watch what you are doing tonight or you will have another pup in two months!"

Max just stays there and watches him leave his office.

"Stark, were they serious?" he asks his wolf. "Will they really, really help us?"

"If they fooled us, I will ban them from this pack!" and Stark is already dreaming of Artemis.

"Where should we go?" Max asks Stark.

"Back to Tofino, she loved the place" and thinking this Max tells Stark.

"We will lose time with reaching there, and we only have this night "

"Let's go now, Max. Let's not waste time!" and in ten minutes, Max already had the plan in his mind.

Tonight he will have another attempt to be back in business!"
