

139 Chapter 139 We lost it on the way!

Author's POV 1

"Is it true?" James asks, looking into Francois' eyes "You will let an animal take over your body, and you will start to howl at the moon as the rest of us?" and he mocks him for the way he acted at the beginning when he found that Leia is his mate, or worse when he realized that Vivi mated with Luke.

"Is complicated," Francois said. "But I would like that to happen." and he watches Leia who is laughing with Lori and Meredith and tells them something. And for the first time he is frustrated for not being a werewolf, to have this handy ability called super hearing, that any werewolf has.

"What are they talking about?" he asks James, who starts to listen attentively what the girls are talking and he just laughs, turning his face to Francois.

"Believe me, Francois, you don't want to know." and he laughs.

"They are talking about me, isn't it?" and Francois looks in the direction where Leia is.

"For your own sanity... listen to me. Take that girl and make her yours. She is a good girl, a little bit naughty, because she is smart, and very strong and.."

"And beautiful," Francois said, still looking at Leia.

"And that too, so take the girl and be happy, don't be a coward jerk again. You have been living among werewolves for months and I believe that you already know that we are not animals, that we are as human as you are." and laughing he continues "human with improvements"

"You are right. I was just scared. I saw what you did with your father back then, when you rescued the girls." and sighing deeply Francoise said:

"Thank you for that. Knowing that those jerks are not alive, gives Vivienne the strength to move forward."

"She's overcome that...Now is time for you to do the same because, that girls" and he points to Leia "she is trying to get you."

"Let her get me!" Francoise said laughing and leaving James alone he goes to the place where Leia is and says.

"Will you show me the house that you were talking about?"

"The guest house from the garden?" Leia asked, smiling at him.

"That one" but he can't say anything else that Meredith tells him:

"You will like the place Franco. It's a nice, elegant interior and is ideal when you need to arrange a family home." and she winks at him.

"Oh, but we will be just friends with benefits" Leia said laughing at Meredith and Francois just looked at her wishing that she would say that they will be two lovers that form a family.

"Yeah, that is what we will be" he said, acting like is nothing.

"Francois!" Leia said and puts her arms around his neck making him to melt under her touch. "Meredith will design my wedding dress."

"I can do it by myself if you want too." he said, putting his arms around her waist and pulling her in his embrace.

"No, Francois. This will bring bad luck. You can't see the dress before the wedding!"

"We are werewolves," Leia " Meredith laughs "We don't believe in something like this."

"I do," Lori said. "I didn't let James see my dress before my Luna ceremony and look at us! Now we are happy, loving each other"

"You see!" Leia said "That's what I want too!" and she smiles all over her face.

"I thought that is about being friends with benefits," Francois whispered in her ear and her face became serious in a second.

"Yeah, you are right," she said sorrowfully. "I got excited for nothing, and she lets her arms fall from his neck, but he caught her and took her in his arms, kissing her earlobe.

"Show me that house, I must start to arrange it and make it livable."

And he simply takes her in bridal style and exits the scene.

"My goddess, those two are the stupidest beings I have ever seen!" James said as soon as Leia and Francoise were gone.

"They love each other and act like they are not." Meredith said with annoyance. "We must do something."

"I can beat Francois, and you, Luke, can't beat Leia in her head until she will start to act normally!" Vivi said.

"Or we can simply let them be and learn how to admit their feelings," Max said holding Theodora in his arms.

"I don't like this at all," Sam suddenly said.

"Are you jealous of Francois?" Cara asked and looked at him.

"What? No! Are you crazy? I love you and only you in this life! And our pups!"

"So why don't you like that Leia and Franco will be together?" she asks him, putting her hand on her hips and squeezing her beautiful blue eyes on him. The truth is that Cara looks a lot with Margot Robbie, just that she is a shorter version of hers. She is beautiful and adorable and seeing her like this Sam can't stand it and walks to her in alert steps and kisses her directly.

"Don't pout those lips of yours at me!" he said and kissed her again. "Is not about Leia and Francois, it's about his status. He is Francois Cassel for the goddess name. Do you know what that means?"

"Shit!" Max and Meredith said at the same time.

"We were laughing about this but we lost it on the way. A lot of people will be there and with those hunters tracking Meredith's down we must pay a lot of attention to everything."

"Now you get it?" Sam asks,

"I will still watch you with Leia!" Cara said, but now she is joking even if she looks at Sam very seriously. "With this huge belly in front of me I know that I am not attractive anymore."

"That's it!" Sam said and excused himself, took Cara in his arm and went directly to his bedroom where he showed her how attractive she is for him, and banged her until she couldn't stay on her own feet.

When everyone was at their own houses Max, stood in the bed with Theo sleeping on his chest, and Meredith lying near him.

"Let me put her in her crib" she whispered.

"She is more and more beautiful every day" Max said "I am in love with her, Mer. You gave me the most precious gift."

"And I didn't even know it" she laughs. "And I am sad about this," she said looking at Theo.

"I would have liked to be Like Cara, Lori ori Vivi. To know that I am pregnant and enjoy this period" and she took Theo's little hand and kissed it.

"Now we know how the facts are so next time we will have a baby when we plan about this and we will live the whole experience" And Max gets out the bed and goes to Theo's room , followed by Meredith.

"I want more kids with you Max. I like this side of you!" she said with a roguish smile.

"You like me as Theo's daddy?" Max asks, pulling her in his embrace as soon as he puts Theo in her crib, while she is sucking her little finger.

“I like you as daddy, my daddy!” and she puts her hands around his neck while he lifts her in his arms so that now, her long legs are placed around his torso, making him hard directly.

“Every time you touch me, my body reacts” he said and took her little hand and put her on his chest.

“When I am at my office I just think at you, so much that I think that I’ll start to work from home, just to have you more time with me.

“I will come back to the office soon” Meredith said and kissed his neck, while he exited Theo’s room with her in his arms.

“She is so tiny,” and Max puts her in the middle of their bed, placing himself between her legs, still wearing his clothes. “Stay with her a little more time.”

“I will, I can’t leave her to come back to work, but if you will work from home, I will do it too. This way I will be able to stay with her.”

“Then we will share an office!” Max said laughing,

will wake up soon and in this stage of their life, time is not their best friend.

"I knew why love was always described with eternity. A single minute stretched out for lifetimes." (Shannon A. Thompson)
