

140 Chapter 140 I trust him!

Author's POV 1

Next morning when everyone gathered for breakfast and Francois came too he looked directly to the place where Leia usually sit but she is not there.

"She's in her room," Luke said. "She said that she didn't sleep well last night and that she needs a few moments to get back to normal, to put some makeup on her face because she was not looking well."

And Francois' heart thinned , she had a nightmare again.

"I will be back in a minute" he said and runs upstairs and as soon as he is in front of her door he hears her weeping, and he doesn't lose any minute and enters her room without knocking.

"You dreamed about that shit again?" he asks her and gets in bed near her.

"Yeah" and she takes a deep breath trying to calm herself.

"You should have come to me. We could watch a movie, eat something or just stay and talk, but you can come to me when this happens again."

"I don't want to disturb you Francois" and she lets her head down, looking at her hands.

"You are not. How many times should I tell you that you are not disturbing me? In addition I am also guilty for what happened that day, for you not being able to fight as you usually do." but Lela looks in his eyes and asks:

"Is that what this is about?" and she feels so hurt by his words. "Do you feel remorse? You got a conscience suddenly?" and she can't even look at him.

"No it is not about that, but yes I feel remorse for the way I acted that day. I should have never been the jerk I was. BUt I can't change the facts. "

And Lela doesn't say anything she just stays there and cries.

"I just need a good sleep. I am going crazy like this, Francois. All day long I act like a happy person but when the night comes I am horrified, because I know what's next."

"You slept well at my place, while I held you in my arms." he whispered.

"Yes, I did for the first time in the last months. " and she looks into his eyes' ' With a flower you do not bring spring, Francois' ' and he smiled sadly at him.

"I know, but without one is way too much of autumn to handle..." Francois said and took her in his lap.

"Look, that's why I want to propose something to you. Come and sleep with me."

And Leia blinks her eyes a few times, making him realize what he just said.

"I mean, sleep at my place, or Max place or what that guest house is. Shit!" and he starts to laugh, feeling how his face is all blushed.

"The thing is that we will get married in two weeks, Come and live with me. I really like your suggestion of being friends with benefits. I am all the time alone, because Vivi and your brother are always together, so I figured...I could really use a friend here."

"I will think about it," Leia said, wiping her tears and when she want to get out of bed, Francois holds her and kissed her temple.

"I just want to tell you that I am sorry for being a jerk, you are cool, and I like being around you. I know that you hate me , but I like this new stage of being friends with benefits. I really like it" and this time he kissed her lips.

"We should practice this if we want to look authentic in front of the press" he whispered in her ear, and she felt all the tingles that run through her body everywhere he touches her.

“Shall we go and eat our breakfast?” Francois asked her, and she just nodded while he took her in bridal style and helped her stand on her own feet.

“Look who’s here!” Max said, pointing to them as soon as they came back in the dining room.

“You two look really nice together.” Lisa said, smiling at them.

“They are getting married in two weeks , mom,” Meredith said. “And we need to make a big wedding here.”

“And I will move to Francoise house today” Leia said without looking at them, and Francois smiles and holds her hand under the table. He would like so much to be able to mindlink her, but he lost that chance when he rejected her, now he can only hope that she will take him back.

“I don’t want a big wedding,” Francoise said. “All my friend and family are here, at this table”

“Are you sure?” Meredith and Max ask at the same time. “We can help you to have the wedding of the year.”

“I am sure, I would like to be in this formula, somewhere on a sunny beach, just me and Leia , and all of you as our witnesses. And I would like your family to be there, too, Mer” Francois said.

“They will, don’t worry”.

“So we will have a real wedding ?” Max asks.

Leia looks at Francois, she is a very private person too, so she likes the way in which Francois wants to have this wedding.

“We will have a real wedding, “ she whispered.

“And I know the perfect beach to hold this ceremony, this will be pleasant both for humans and werewolves’ ‘ Meredith said laughing. “I always wanted to live there, but was a little bit too far from my family”

“So you chose Paris,” Vivi said, laughing hard.

“Yeah, I was forced by some circumstances, but luckily I am back” she said and took Max’s hand in her hand.

“Where is that beach, Max asked her because he really wants to know the place where his mate dreamed of living.

“Cannon Beach, in Oregon” she said and took out her phone and looked for some pictures.

“It’s on the wild coastline” Meredith said “ Cannon Beach, located in the charming town with the same name. The place has an awe-inspiring panoramic ocean and coastal mountain views as well as famous Haystack Rock in the background, this place is hard to beat, especially at sunset.”

“I like it!” Leia said with enthusiasm and looking at Francois she saw him smiling.

“It’s perfect!” Francois said and then looks at Meredith and Max he simply said:

“If we are just we, why not reschedule this wedding closer?”

“Two weeks is not close enough?” and Carter starts to laugh.

“You know what?” Grandpa Cruz said. “The boy is right. In addition I want to see them married, even for the benefits that they talk about, but I invest a lot of time in presents for them. I can finally stop sending flowers.”

“How close?” Max asks while the rest of the gang just look at them with their mouth wide open.

“This weekend!” Francois stated.

“That’s in two days!” Luke yelled.

“She doesn’t even have a wedding dress!” Cara said.

“She will, I have the perfect dress for her” Francois said. “I made it a few weeks ago, for a show but it would be perfect for Leia”

And he doesn’t want to say that he designed that dress dreaming of this day, and not for some show.

He just holds Leia's hand in his hand and for the first time he feels some light tingles too.

"I trust him," Lela said, looking in his eyes.

"Anyway, is it just for the show? Isn't it?"

Meredith asks laughing and stretches out her arms to take Theo from Max.

"My turn" she said smiling at him, and then mindlink. "Those two stupid love each other so much and play this card of friends with benefits. We should send them in a honeymoon or something."

"We should go in one too," Max said winking at Meredith.

"And we will but first let's make those two get married and mate for the goddess sake! I am going crazy with them like this!"

"First let's speak with Alpha Wheeler, from Oregon to let us hold that wedding on this territory and after that we will find the perfect place for mating."

"Yes please, I can't wait to see this sassy Frenchman as a werewolf."

"Let's do it darling!"
