

141 Chapter 141 I found the traitor

Author's POV 1

"Are you going somewhere, Luke?" Pete Silverstone asks and another two warriors come near.

'Do you have any plans this weekend?' Mark Dickens, another top warrior asked. "I saw you didn't schedule any training, and we spoke about this, that we will train on the weekend too, until those hunters are out from the picture."

"Leia will marry this weekend so there will be no training. Call everyone and tell them that they are free." and Luke wants to go but Pete asks again.

"Where is the wedding? to know where to bring my present."

And Luke stops and watches him. Shit! in front of him are his top warriors in their field and very trustworthy. Yet, seeing them so eager to find all the details about Leia's wedding he remembers Meredith's words. One of them, at least one, if not even more than one is the traitor.

"There is no need for that Pete. She knows that you care about her a lot but this is a small wedding. Just the family and our alpha. "

"Our Luna has a lot of courage to walk alone, without protection out of this pack!" Mark said.

"With all those jerks after her!" and Luke just watches them.

"Why not?" the third said, the one that was left home to watch over the pack while the rest was saving Max and Meredith. "As a royal wolf she is strong enough to face anyone. And being a primordial too, gives her even more power."

"She's primordial too?" Pete asked in shock.

"You didn't know about it? Are you stupid?" Mike asks, laughing.

"I was watching over Leta when she first transformed!" Pete said, looking at them with his mouth open.

"She is strong, man!" Mike Dickens said. "I've never heard of someone like her. Of course that jerk wants her, but she is our Luna and we will watch for her safety."

"We will," Pete said with a small voice while Luke recorded in his mind all their words, all their grimaces.

"You are free boys" he said and mindlink Max.

"Max, Sam is right about this wedding. I don't like the fact that Francois draws a lot of attention to himself. Is not his fault but someone so famous like him is always in the spotlight.”

“Alpha Wheeler guarantees us that no one will be there during the ceremony.” Max assured him.

“What about those hunters? Who will protect us? Because believe me I can’t trust my own warriors right now. Both Pete and Mike acted strange today and asked a lot of questions. Meredith needs protection, man!”

“Shit!” and Max just watches over Meredith who stays with Theo in the armchair near her crib while she feeds the baby girl at her breast.

“I will ask James and Landon to bring their warriors.” Max said , knowing too well that Luke is right.

And as soon as Luke exist the training room, Petre Stevenson took of his phone and wrote a message.

“She is a primordial wolf too” and he put his finger over the SENT button but after some time he just deleted the message.

“I am sick of this. I am just sick of you father!” Pete said and put the phone back in his pocket but he didn’t take even two stept that Manganiello called him.

“Yes father,” Pete Stevenson said.

"Did you find anything else? Why is she so strong?"

"No, I didn't" he lied to him.

"Work harder Petro" Manganiello said. "When all this will end I will take you back home. And you will be my son again."

"I thought that I was already your son." Pete said but in his mind and heart a lot of things are happening.

He's Michele Manganiello's son. He loved his father with all his heart but his father just used him again and again. He never told him that he loves him, he never gave him a present on his birthday, he knows that he killed his mother, but still, Manganiello is his father and he loves him.

The fact is that when he was eleven Manganiello sent him to grandpa's CRuz pack as a spion. He acted the role of an orphan kid, but the pack welcomed him with open arms. And when he swore allegiance to the New Moon Pack, it was the first time in his life when he felt loved, valued and accepted for real in a community.

He's real name is Petro Manganiello but the pack known him as Pete Stevenson.

However, Manganiello was always there asking him for news and when he found out that Meredith was the royal wolf, he made the mistake to tell his father about that, hoping that he would see a bit of love from him, but he was wrong again.

“Of course you are my beloved son!” Michele Manganiello said in a rush, because he doesn’t believe in anything he said himself either.

“You will tell me if you find something, are we clear? All this is to be together again, as father and son” Manganiello said. “Helping me you are helping yourself too.”

“I know father, Please believe me, nothing will happen this weekend. Luna will stay home all weekend.”

“You better not lie to me or I will kill you with my bare hands.”

“Don’t worry father!” Pete said and ends the call but when he raised his head he sees in front of his eye none other than Luke.

“What’s going on, Pete?” Luke asks him directly.

“Nothing , gamma” and he looked a little bit panicked. Luke is very powerful. Not as much as Max but at least the same as Sam.

“Are you sure there is nothing?” and this time Luke is more than serious.

“Yes, please, it’s just a misunderstanding.” and he nodded his head in sign of respect and transformed into his wolf and ran outside, but Luke just found out the missing piece of his puzzle.

"Max" he mindlinks him immediately "I found the traitor"
