

146 Chapter 146 Again???

Author's POV 1

"What the fuck happened with you?" Max asked Pete Silverstone, seeing him with a blue eye.

"Nothing, alpha!" Pete said, not looking in his eyes. "I met a rogue in the forest and took me by surprise, but I finished him in no time."

"That doesn't look like a rogue punch, Pete! Since when do the rogues punch us in the eye?"

"It looks like you never should say never, alpha, or you will wake up with a blue eye in the middle of the forest." Pete starts to laugh but Max just gives him a serious look.

"I don't have time for your bullshit Pete," Max said walking upstairs after Meredith.

"I will help my wife to unpack our luggage and to put our pup to sleep and until I come back you will better tell me who punched you. For real, or I will put some blue on your other eye too." and Max just left him alone.

"Shit!" he heard Pete saying and he mindlink him directly:

"Yeah, shit! You have an hour to start to talk!" he said with authority.

After finding out that Pete is on the top of the list of the potential traitors he will never let him go so easily.

“Why are you frowning?” Meredith asked from the closet as soon as she felt him entering in the room.

“How do you know that I am frowning? You are not even looking at me?” he said coming behind her and putting his arms around her waist.

“I just know, ” she said and turned in his arms , throwing a glance to the bed where baby Theo giggles while she is playing with her feet.

“Pete, he annoyed me but I will tell you later. “ he said and took her in his arms so that now she stays with her legs around his waist, and he placed her in the bed, near Theodora.

“I found a place” he whispered, laying on one side, just as Meredith sits, so that now Theo sits between them. “Is not as beautiful as Tofino was but is closer and is on the continental side of our territory, so that if anything will happened , the boys will find us quickly.”

“Max” Meredith said and put a hand on his cheek while Theo tried to reach her arms thinking that her mommy was playing with her. “I don't care where we are. I loved our nest in Tofino and when everything will end and we will have peace again, we will rebuild that place because there was Paradise for real. " and she kissed his lips.

"Gibson Horseshoe Bay is beautiful too" Max tells her, "But you are right, we will rebuild our Paradise."

"Gibson Horseshoe Bay?" She asks him, laughing. "That place is really beautiful, why don't we make a cabin there, for all of us, for the weekends when we will need to be just us, family and closest friends. I mean if you already found the perfect place why waste it?"

"I would like that" Max said and sitting on his bottom , he takes Theo in his arms and pulls Meredith in his lap.

"You know what?" he asks.

"I know," Meredith laughs. "You love me!" and he kissed him in no time but immediately a big commotion can be heard on the corridor and the door opens just to see Veronica completely pale.

"What the fuck!?!?! Again???" Both Meredith and Max yelled scaring Theo.

"Take the baby!" Max said, putting Theo in her arms.

"Why are you here with her!???" Veronica screamed from all her lungs. "I am carrying your baby and you are here with that woman?" and she is visibly out of her mind , living in a different reality.

Max starts to walk to her, punched her to make her still and grabbed her by her neck while he mindlink Sam:

"Come in my bedroom or I will kill your fucking crazy sister right now, in front of my daughter and my wife!" he growled and used his alpha command but he is not even finished that in the door appeared Castellano and Craig.

"Please don't hurt her!" Castellano cried.
"Please!"

But Max almost lost his mind after this new show that Veronica did. All he wants is to stay with his mate but from all the sides everyone is ruining his relationship.

"You were released from that dungeon with only one reason, Castellano, to watch her ! And it is the second time when she comes into my house while you are not watching her and only the goddess knows what you were doing!"

"We were having lunch!" Craig said and seeing Veronica in Max's hands he starts to panic too.
"Shit! This can't happen!"

"BUT IS HAPPENING!" Max yelled " And I am sick of this!"

"Max!" Sam and Luke come into the room and see Veronica almost lifted from the ground while her face is almost blue because Max is strangling her but right then some liquid started to flow on Max's feet.

"What the fuck is this? Did she pee on my feet?"

"Her water is broken!" Meredith said with calm and seeing Lela and Francois coming she just goes and puts Theo in her arms.

"Stay there Lela and watch my daughter! You will not feel good seeing Castellano and Veronica. Please, take Theo and stay in Luke's condo until everything is over." and she turned and looking at Max she said:

"Let her go!"

But Max just can't do what she asked, because he already had too much from this shit and he simply can't let her go again. Who knows what she will do next!

"Let her go Max!" Meredith commands and he lets her fall on the ground, but as soon as Veronica hits the ground she jumps on her feet and tries to grab Meredith with her invisible claws.

"Help me transform!" she yelled but nothing happened.

Everyone just looks at her without saying anything.

"Stay still," Meredith said touching her head and as usual she fainted.

She bends down and puts her hand over her forehead and right then carter and Lisa appeared too.

"Oh my goddess!" Lisa said putting her hands over her mouth.

"Take her to the hospital. Put them to give her a C-section because a natural birth is out of discussion in her state." Meredith commands and looking at Castellano she said. "After that, take the baby and leave this place Vincenzo."

"I won't leave from here without her!" Castellano said looking straight in Meredith's eyes.

"Then next time when she will do something like this you can die with her! Only that baby" she said pointing to her belly " kept her alive. From now on I have no mercy for her!" and she growled scaring even Max.

He takes her in his arms and holding her at his chest he tells her through their mindlink.

"I am here, nothing happened! Please calm down" and he kissed her neck right where his mark is, making her calm.

"Sam!" Max commands when he feels that Meredith is fine "Give me the iPad!!" and as soon as he opens the device he starts to watch the images that the secret cameras filmed.

There is a nurse that is giving Veronica something, and she is laughing while she is doing it.

"Who's that?" Max asks, turning the iPad so that everyone could see what he is watching.

"You put cameras in her ward?" Craig asked in shock.

"Of course I did. What do you think? That I am stupid?" Max growled.

"No!" Craig said a little bit slower "That's actually brilliant!" but nobody cares about what he is saying.

"I didn't see that nurse around while I was watching Veronica, she is not one of her nurses." Vincenzo said.

And they could see how Veronica becomes agitated and starts to pull from the cuffs and she starts to look as mad as she was just a few minutes ago.

"What the fuck did she put in her IV?" Sam asks, horrified.

In the end as criminal and sick in the head as she is , she is still his little sister, and he mindlink the doctors to test Veronica from any suspect substance she could have taken.

"Is it not her fault!" Castellano said "When I am with her she is calm, sometimes just smiles , but she is not aggressive. She is just a poor soul who has no idea what is happening with her. But she is not like she was a few moments ago. Believe me!" he cried fearing that Meredith will really kill his mate.

"How did she escape? In those images she was just agitated" Luke asks after some time and Max pressed the play button and he is whitening on his face.

"Let me see" Meredith said and starts to watch the video with Max, who looking in her eyes simply says:

"Shit!" Meredith whispered. "I didn't saw that!"

But Max just starts to walk out of his bedroom growling.

"I will kill him!"
