

150 Chapter 150 You are not as weak as you were

Author's POV 1

"Leia!" Meredith said annoyed "Where is my pup!?!?"

"Vivi kidnapped her " she started to laugh." Until she will have another baby wolffy to focus on, just let her be!"

"Goddess!" Meredith exclaimed but she came face to face with Cara as soon as she exited Luke's condo, where Leia stood with Francoise until all the madness ended in Max's office.

"What happened to you?" she asks and grabs Cara's arms because she is with puffy eyes and very pale.

"It is true?" she whispered in a trembling voice, and tears rushed into her eyes.

"Cara, what is going on?" And Meredith just looks around and enters with her back in her condo.

"Is it true that Veronica will be free??"

"Who told you something like that?" and Meredith just watches her.

"Please, don't let her free" and she burst into tears. "I lost my pup because of her back then. She hurt me and she did it on purpose, Mer, because she hated me so much for nothing!" and almost suffocating in her own tears she whispers " My baby was innocent!"

"Shhht" Meredith whispered and took her in her arms, while Cara's pregnant bump kept her from holding on Meredith.

"She will not be free soon. She just gave birth. Max went to speak with Sam and Castellano and see what's her state , now that we know why she was so agitated. A nurse was giving her on purpose some Angel's Trumpet and Belladonna. She was led into a psychosis and agitated delirium, that's why she had that maniac behavior and aggressively."

"She was not under those substance effects when she attacked us, Mer! She was just a bitch and a murdered!"

"Yeah, here you are right. " And Meredith helped her to sit in her living room and caressed her back," she said.

"She just gave birth, and she seems calm now. I don't want to kill her even if I know that she deserves that. "

"Please" Cara said "If she stays here, I will leave this place. I am always fearing with her here."

"Cara!" Meredith said with her luna voice , making poor Cara startle a little. "You are a beta female now. You are not as weak as you were, because being with Sam made you stronger, and when you will give birth and start to train you will see how fantastic you become." and smiling at her, she said.

"She will not stay here. But her baby has no fault for having a stupid mother, just as you baby was innocent for whatever she thought that you wronged her."

"But I didn't.." Cara starts.

"Shhht" Meredith just stops her. " Listen to me. She will never touch you again. She will not live here. Think of Sam. He lost his mother, he lost his sister even if she is alive, he lost his son and his father can't even look in his eyes because he feels guilty. He lost his family. I talked with Max and we can't just kill Veronica, especially now, when her wolf is gone. Castellano will take her."

"I hate him, too!" Cara said wiping her tears.

"I know you do" and Meredith touched her belly squeezing her eyes.

"He will take her with him and leave this place forever." and Meredith giggled a little.

" It is funny if you think about it. She lost her wolf while Castellano imprisoned the human from him. Together now they are a whole. A human and a wolf. The goddess has a very fine sense of humor."

"Will she leave this place for real?' Cara asks with a soft smile.

"Yes. I promise you that she will, with Castellano and his Beta. I will never let you and Leia face them again and again. I am wondering who Leia didn't collapse until now, knowing that he lives here."

"Because she is a badass warrior, not like me," Cara said with a smile.

"So I am an aunty?" she said after some time.

"You are, she gave birth to a little baby boy, premature but he will live even if she took so many substances he looks healthy."

"Can I see him?" suddenly Cara asked.

"No you can't" Leia said, coming into Sam's and Cara's condo. "You are pregnant. Don't stress yourself so much."

"Leia, she needs this!"

"If she goes, I go too!" Leia stated but the truth is that she wants to see the child too, she wants to find a reason not to kill Veronica and Castellano. She just needs this.

"I want to come too!" Vivi said, opening the door with Theo in her arms.

"You are impossible, Vivi!" and Meredith took her baby in her arms and said.

"Let's go and see with your own eyes that you have no reason to be scared."

But as soon as they entered Veronica's ward they were stopped by a human wall.

Max and Sam and Luke, almost went over the doctors and Castellano and his beta.

"What are you doing here?" Sam asked in panic.

"She wants to see the baby," Vivi said in her place.

But Sam just took Cara's and put his arms around her, and she is so delicate that even pregnant he can hold her without problems.

"He is just like her," he whispered. "Like her when she was a tiny baby and my parents have brought her to our home."

"Can I see him?" Cara whispered and Sam just looked at her.

"Come," he said and helped her sit on a sofa from Veronica's ward. "I will bring the baby for you"

Do you know what pain looks like?

Seeing the baby, Cara's hands trembled and warm tears started to run on her face.

"Our baby should have been a little bit bigger than he is," she said, taking his little hand and looking at his fingers.

"Please don't cry" Sam said and sit near her, putting his arm on her back.

Max looks around and signals everyone to exit the room, while he and Meredith stay there to watch over Castellano and Craig, because Veronica is still asleep after the C-section.

"I am sorry for everything we did to you" Castellano said coming closer but Cara just starts to shiver involuntary.

"Don't get closer!" Sam said "Stay where you are or I will kill you right here, for scaring her!"

"He is so tiny" she whispered and bending a little she kissed the boy's little head.

"What's his name?" she asks, looking at the baby all the time, and not giving Castellano not even a single look.

"I didn't choose a name" he said "I am not good at this. If I need to choose a name I will probably call him just "My BOY""

"Are you stupid?" Max asked him, looking at him.
"The pup deserves a honorable name"

"Amadeo," Cara said, kissing the baby's forehead.
"He looks like a Amadeo"

"I like that," Castellano whispered, looking at the kid and thinking for the first time at him as a person and not just a newborn child.

"Amadeo Castellano," he whispered.

And they all stood there, in silence, grieving their own pain and looking at the child like a promise from the heaven.
