

152 Chapter 152 Just wait and see!

Author's POV 1

Elias and Bella make the whole gang forget about all the bad things that happened and while around their pack things get complicated and the evil extend its tentacles of power and revenge, they just stay and have this moment of peace.

"They had no fur!"

I suppose you already know how said that, so there 's no use telling you that.

"Of course they have no fur!" Sam exclaimed.

"They are babies. Normal babies, do you think that they are the Yeti's children to be born with fur?"

"They are baby wolfy. They should have some fur" And Vivienne has a very adorable pouty expression.

"They would have been more pretty with some fur!"

"WHAT?" the whole gang exclaimed.

"Luke, do you think that our baby will have some fu.."

"NO!" Luke cuts her but then he takes her in his arms and laughs. "But I will ask their uncle to design some baby overalls with fur, just for you to be happy"

"I will never do something like this. Ask Mer!" Francois said appalled.

"Me neither!" Meredith said, laughing hard while Vivienne just pouted her lips.

"You are mean. They would have looked so beautiful!"

"So now we have three babies in the gang." Leia said saving Vivienne for being mocked again.

"With the one that is on the road from Luke and Vivi, four babies. Why don't you build a nursery, here, in the packhouse so that the babies can have fun and grow together while you are working?"

"And who will take care of them?" Cara asks, looking at her. "The idea is good but where to find some truthful pack members to let the kids with?"

"I would like to stay with them" they hear Lisa coming in Cara's living room, because they were sent home few hours after she gave birth.

"And I would like that too" Auntie Jen said coming in with Grandpa Cruz.

"No, you will spoil them!" Max said. "Don't leave the babies with this woman!" Max laughs while he pointed to his mother. "All her life she wished to be a grandma. With so many pups she will be tired."

"Actually I think that is a very good idea," Meredith said. "I don't like the idea of hiring someone to be with our babies. Mom will love them with all her heart."

"And I want to stay with them too. I am a veterinarian and here I have nothing to do. I didn't see any cats and dogs in the pack so I have nothing to do. I will be a nanny!"

"I don't trust you with my pups" Sam said pointing his finger to Vivi.

"And why do I care? Cara trusts me. Isn't it?" and she smiles but seeing Cara raising an eyebrow her face becomes sad.

"You are so mean!" and she almost cries.

"Hey!" Luke said, kissing her lips "You are the best , they are just envious."

"Keep dreaming!" Sam said laughing hard but when Luke's palm lands on his head he stops.

"That hurts!" Sam whispered and left Vivi alone, whispering to Luke "Jerk! That really hurt!"

" Lisa is right" Carter said "They will be perfect to look after these babies. She and Auntie Jen have a lot of time now and the babies need someone who will really love them. They are perfect and Vivi too. Because she is such a nice girl with a big heart."

"Thank you alpha Carter" Vivi said smiling again.

"The pack house has a very spacious loft and that place can be arranged to hold twenty kids at least. Just say how you want to look and I will make that place the perfect nursery for these pups. When Max, Luke and Sam were babies we used the place for the same thing."

"That's so perfect!" Meredith said. "Franco, can you design this place?" she asks with pleading eyes.

"But I am not an architect. I design clothes!" Franco said, looking at her.

"Pleeease," Meredith said. "I trust you with this."

"I will help you" Leia said, kissing his cheek. "We will use this place too if in the future we will have our own pup."

"I will do it!" He said as soon as he imagined Leia with a pregnant belly, caring his pups, and he whispered through their mindlink.

"Tonight we will start to make some babies too. I want to see you pregnant with my pups."

"But isn't it too soon?" Leia asked in shock.

"I want the whole package, Leia. The whole family package that includes lots and lots of kids. I only had Vivienne in this world. I would have liked to have more siblings."

And Leia comes near him and puts her hands around his neck.

"I would like that too" she tells him and kissed him directly, forgetting that their friends are watching them.

"Are you two having some imaginary sex?" Sam asked, raising an eyebrow.

"What?" Francois asked, realizing that they had an intimate moment in front of all their friends.

"You two were having mental sex, isn't it?" Sam asks again, while the rest of the gang starts to laugh.

"Yes, we were trying a new position" François said looking at him. "You should try that too" and he sits on Sam's sofa and puts Leia on his lap.

"Don't try anything on my sofa!" Sam threatens him.

"Did you hear him , darling?" he asks Leia.

"Francois , just shut up!" Leia said laughing.

"They will believe you if you continue like this,"

but in the next moment she feels something poking in her ass.

“What the...?” she tries to say but Francois just holds her.

“Don’t move or I will take right here in front of everyone. Talking about us, making babies, made me hard” he said through their mindlink.

“Shit!” she said and looked around to be sure that no one saw them, and she just excused herself and ran outside , dragging Françoise after her. They ran directly to their house, the one that Max gave to Francois and started to make those babies.

“They are having sex , isn’t it?” Sam asks, looking at the door as soon as Leia and Francois left the room.

“More than that,” Meredith said, laughing hard.

“What do you mean?” suddenly Cara asked, seeing Meredith so amused.

Meredith looks at Vivi and pointing her finger at he she said.

“I swear to you, Vivi. Francois is crazy now he is making baby wolffy because he wants lots and lots of kids with Leia.” and she laughs so hard.

“How do you know that?” Vivi asks looking at the door.

"I just know" hiding the fact that she read their mind, because this is not something she wants to be known . They will feel uncomfortable with her if they found out.

"So Francois will be a father soon" Max said smiling.

"Just wait to see Leia crying giving birth to his pup and then we'll talk about those lots and lots of kids." but hearing him, Luke becomes pale.

"What do you mean?" he asked, looking at Sam and then at Vivi. She has at least three months until she will gave birth but he need to be prepared.

"Prepare yourself to learn about something terrible, Mr. Navarro!" Sam said in a trick way but Luke is all eyes and ears.

"Tell me , Sam! Tell me all!"

"Your mate will scream in pain and she will feel such a pain that your heart will just pop like a balloon."

Luke looks at him in horror, and then at Max who just says.

"Is not like that, Luke" and when he sees Luke take a breath he just says. "It's worse!"

"She will scream, but she will scream so hard that you will think that is a rogue attack and someone is killing the whole pack. And worse than anything else you will not be able to help her."

"Vivi, we need to take that baby back. I will not let you suffer this way." he said completely pale.

"Luke!" Carter said. "Ignore them."

And he looks at Lisa :

"Birth is not only about making babies. Birth is about making mothers and fathers strong, capable parents who trust themselves and know their inner strength. The mother for struggling so hard to bring the baby in this world and the father for learning what fear is, what ecstasy is when he hears the first cry of his baby." and he laughs.

"So don't listen to these brats, they just want to scare you."

Luke takes Vivi in his arms and puts his hands over her little tummy and then Carter blows it out:

"It's worse than they told you!" And all off them starts to laugh while Luke just stays there with his mouth open.

"Just wait and see!"
