

157 Chapter 157 Are we really doing this?

Author's POV 1

All the men , joined by Carter and Grandpa Cruz and also Meredith, were in Max's office looking at the poor Francois who doesn't understand anything.

"I don't understand," Grandpa Cruz said. "He is an alpha? A real alpha? Just as I am or my son or you?"

"Yes, grandpa!" Max said very seriously. " Don't ask me why because I don't understand either how something like this is possible but after I married my mate, divorced her and found her again just to realize what I've done. After I found out that she is a primordial wolf and more than that, she is a royal, believe me, none of this is any surprise to me."

"What should we do? He can't stay here as an alpha!" Carter said with authority. An alpha needs a pack.

"I need nothing!" Francois said. "With all the respect Mr. Cruz" he continued. "You know nothing about me. Just the fact that I am French and that I acted like damned stupid with Leia, but you know nothing about me!"

"Calm down, Francois!" Luke said.

"I will not! If I let them talk like that and not defend myself they will send me away from here, just because Avi is strong."

"No one is sending you away from here, Francois!" Meredith said, coming closer to him and taking his hand in her hand. "You are my dearest friend. I will never let them send you away from here. This is your home!"

"You promise?" he asked looking deep in her eyes.

"I promise!" and she looked at Carter and Grandpa Cruz. "He is not that type of alpha! He is a good man and he loves Lela too much to choose power at the expense of his mate. "

"I will never hurt her again!" he said and looked at Max and then at Luke.

"They know that, Francois. Stop worrying about that. " and she leaves him there and goes to Max.

"Max, this must be a gift from the goddess, look at Francois this way. He is a strong alpha, he almost beat your ass and he is a newborn werewolf without training. Sam and Luke are fantastic but with Francois here we are stronger. Just think who is coming after me, he will help us a lot if he will join the warriors!"

"Of course I will!" Francois exclaimed. "Leia and Me will fight for you, Mer, no matter what!"

"You see!" she smiled at them "He is not a danger here, he is still our friend."

"But this is strange," Grandpa said, still looking at Francois weirdly. "What if someday he will revolt against Max because he will realize that he needs a pack too?"

"I will kill him in the next second," Meredith said without looking at Francois. "But I assure you that something like that will never happen"

"I can't believe it!" Luke said "We escaped by Veronica and that fucking Castellano and we've got this!" but he is laughing saying that and he winks at Francois.

"Now I can't to threaten him that I will beat him if he doesn't behave nicely with my sister"

"You don't need to beat me for that. I will beat by myself up if I ever make her suffer again."
Francois tells him and starts to walk until he is in front of Max.

He extend his arms to Max and continues:

"I swear to you Max. I don't want to harm your position and I will never rise against you in this pack. I just want to live in peace , in the house that you gave me, to raise my kids here and live happily ever after!"

"That's so sweet!" Luke said in a girlish voice making everyone laugh.

"Shut up, Luke!" Francois said and slapped him over his head, moving him one foot further.

"What the hell man!" Luke yelled unbalancing.

"Sorry!" and Francois runs to him "I was just joking."

"Joking? You moved my head for the goddess's sake!"

"He is strong," Carter said after some time.

"Meredith is right. With the proper training he could be brilliant!"

"Then we are fine here" Max said. "I promise that I will never provoke you again, but here in this pack you will submit to me"

"I will, and Avi too" he said even if Avi is growling in his mind.

"Now let's go. Your girls have a little and die from stress, trying to eavesdrop." Max started to laugh and signals to Sam to open the door and all the girls fell in a jumble over each other on the ground.

"Vivi!" Luke yelled seeing her on the floor, over the rest of the girls.

"I am fine!" she said, caressing her baby bump but Luke continued to search on her.

"Stop it!" she said, and looking at Francois , who is helping Leia to get up from the floor she asked.

"So , will he stay here?"

"Of course he will!" Luke said and kissed her directly and put a hand over her tummy and felt his pup movements.

Holy guacamole!" she said. "I was so scared!"

And Francois just looks at her and smiles.

"He was always the best at everything since he was a little boy. The most handsome boy, the most educated, the smartest and when he became an adult the most talented, the richest designer, the most handsome man in France. Everything around him was related to perfection and power. Of course he is an alpha!"

"This will be strange" Grandpa Cruz said this time more calm, because Auntie Jen came near and holds the old man hand.

"But we can do that!" Carter said in the end.

"Meredith said that this is something good, and I trust her intuition."

"So are we really doing this? Should we call him Alpha ?" Sam asked, mocking Francois.

"If you want to have a head on your shoulders, I will keep my mouth closed!" Francois said.

"There is only one alpha here. And that one is Max!"

"He was just joking" Max laughed at him. "But I would like to see you giving him a good ass-whooping!"

"No one will beat no one!" Meredith stopped them and taking the lead she simply said "Or I will beat all of you !"

"Yes ma'am!" the boys said laughing.

"Let's go and take our kids. Mom must be exhausted with three pups on her head!"

"Mer!" Francoise mindlink her while they exist Max's office " Merci beaucoup!"

"You recived a gift, Franco" she tells him " Be worthy on it!"

"I will, Mer!"
