

159 Chapter 159 What's the problem?

Author's POV 1

"So?" Sam asked the next day while they were having their breakfast "What should we do with this alien alpha?" and Luke choked with water hearing him.

"Sam! leave my brother-in-law alone or I will ask him to move your nose again and he started to laugh.

"Keep dreaming," Sam said, throwing him an ugly look.

"He will start to train seriously" Max said, coming into the room with Theo on one arm and the other one around Meredith's waist. He sits in his place and pulls Meredith on one leg and baby Theo on the other one, making her lay on his abdomen and watch the whole gang.

"Let me hold hre!" Lisa said and took her and Max took advantage of the situation and now Meredith is totally in his lap, feeling him how he reacts at her touch.

"i will not train with this brute!" Sam said.

"Ohhh" Luke started to laugh "Our beta is scared?"

"I am not!" he almost screamed but he annoyed me yesterday when he objected in front of Max."

"He didn't want to, his wolf was the one who stayed straight, and he acted like a real alpha, but that's something you will never know because you are just a beta!" Luke mocked him.

"Shitty gamma!" Sam whispered.

"Cara, sweetheart" Luke said laughing "Do you remember that I owe you dinner?"

and Vivi looked scared at him, but Luke holds her hand and tells her through their mindlink, how he lied to Sam that he will take Cara away from him when he was undecided about her and rejected her.

And she just pouted , playing like an actress.

"You are still in love with her?" Vivi asked and everyone became pale.

"I will kill you!" Sam growled "She is mine!" and his twins woke up and started to cry hearing him so furious.

"Sammy, love" Cara said, taking his hand and placing herself in his lap. "He is just mocking you. I am sure that if you tell him that you will train with Francois he will leave you alone.

"NO!" and Sam holds her too tight in his arms that poor Cara can't even breathe. "Those two have teamed up to take you from the. First this Frenchie showed you his small wienie and now his brother in law wants to take you away from me."

"I don't have a small dic..!" but Leia just puts a hand over Francois' mouth.

"They know. Just shut up please!" and looking at them she said.

"If you two are so afraid to train him, I will do it!" and she winks at him. "I am the best female warrior. Pete Silverstone will help, and he will take all the beat. Is the perfect way to show his loyalty" she started to laugh. " He will become Francois's punching bag!"

"Are you for real?" Luke asked her. "I am not afraid of Franco."

"Me neither!" Sam said offended.

"Then what's the problem?" Max asked, looking at them.

"How can he be an alpha?" Sam pouted.

"Oh my goddess!" Grandpa Cruz said "He is jealous!" and every eye in the room was on Sam.

"I am not but it is not fair!" she said.

"Why was the goddess so good with him?" he asked "He said that we are animals at the beginning and now she is the strongest animal of our kind.”

“He’s not,” Max said. “I beat him.” and looking at Meredith he laughed again “And Mer can beat all of us!”

“Then she should train him!” Sam said again.

“ You are impossible , Sam,” Max said and looking at Meredith he kissed her with a lot of passion.

“We will all train. And the problem is solved.”

and as soon as breakfast was done they went to the training room, where all the warriors where looking for him.

“Bring Pete Silverstone here” Max said to one of his warriors and watching Sam he continued.

“Did you trace his phone?”

“Yes, since we caught him a few days ago his phone stood with me.”

“And?” Carter asked, coming closer.

“That fucking Manganiello insists to find why was Meredith so strong, and asked about Mark Dickens. He tried to call Pete a few times.”

And right then they saw Pete coming in the training room.

“Alpha,” he said bowing his head.

"I hope that those days made your head clear. Choose today whom you want to serve! If you want you can stay here, just as my wife said. Also if you want to serve your father you are able to do it, but you will die today."

"I want to be here , alpha." Pete said. "I will do anything."

"He is sincere" Meredith whispered and Max looked at her squeezing his eyes.

"You read his mind?" he asked through mindlink.

"Yes, Max and he really wants to stay here. Your family made him love this place."

"Call Manganiello!" Max said and put the phone in Pete's hand.

"Call him here and tell him that you couldn't call him because we caught Mark and you needed to act in secret, because you felt that we were watching you."

And Pete do not hesitate and calls Michelle Manganiello almost in a instant :

"Why the fuck didn't you answer my calls?" they could hear Manganiello yelling at his son.

"They caught Mark, father. I needed to lie low for a few days or so until things calmed down." and he looked into Max eyes.

"Did you find anything?" Manganiello asked not caring about Mark not even a second.

"Yes, father. Meredith Cruz was so strong just because she was a royal, is nothing else. I hear her talking with her husband. Is kind of like a power, because it seems that the royals sometimes have powers."

"Sometimes?" Manganiello laughed. "You are so stupid. They always have powers. That's why we are hunting them with so much pleasure."

And he just stayed for a few seconds.

"Petro, are you sure, there is nothing else I should know?"

"No father...she is just a regular royal!" Pete said and closed his eyes praying to the goddess to help him not to be exposed.

"You are my eyes there, Petro. Do that and all will be well. You will come back and live here with me!" Manganiello said and ended the call.

"Do that and he will kill you in the next second he will not need you anymore" Carter said.

"I know , alpha" and Pete looked at Max and then at Meredith.

"I swear to you that I would rather die defending you, my Luna, than to go back there. This is my home and I want to live here as your pack member then to go back as my father's son."

"After Sam and Luke you are our top warrior. You will train with us, but in the fight you will never stay close to me or my wife!" Max said.

"I will do everything you want, alpha. Just let me prove to you that in my heart there is only one place where I want to be!"

Meredith takes Max's hand and whispers.

"In this case, it's time to kick some ass!"

And she winked at Pete, making him relax.

"Let's go!"
