

16 Chapter 16 I quit!

Author's POV 1

Cara calms a little and she comes down from the counter that Sam placed her, but as soon as she wants to get out of the kitchen, she comes face to face with Luke Navarro, and she shivers being a little scared of him.

"I'm sorry, gamma," she said, and put her head down.

"I was looking for you," Luke said. "Can you talk?" he asks her gently looking at her and he signals her to follow him back into the kitchen.

"Forgive him" he says looking into her eyes.

"I don't know what you're talking about," Cara said looking at him.

"Sam, forgive him. Don't reject him, not yet at least. Give him a chance to understand what he will lose. "

"He rejected me. There is nothing to understand, Gamma "Cara said with sadness and dignity.

"Until you accept his rejection, it is not all lost. Please, Cara "

And he starts to walk to the door but not before looking at her one more time and smiling at her

he said:

"I like this new Cara. If he doesn't suit himself, I will take you on a date, I am mateless and you are fantastic, sweet Cara "and he leaves the room while Cara is all blushed, f unbelievable what just happened.

"What happened last night with these men? Was it an all-out eclipse that affected their brains? " she asks, but Cici just laughed and said.

"We rock, girl! That's what happened."

But in the meanwhile in Meredith's office Max angrily closes the door behind him and pulling all the blinds starts to come in alert steps to Meredith, while she walks with her back until she hits the wall.

"You've made a habit of provoking me, haven't you?" he asks her, and Stark is about to take control and forcefully mark Meredith.

Meredith looks him in the eyes and sees the glow in his eyes and she can't do anything but marvel.

"What is going on?" she asks herself. Is Maximillian Cruz aroused by her presence? This can't be possible. She knows this glow too well.

But her body somehow responds to his touch and when he puts his hands on her hips and drags her into his body with force, standing united in the hips area, her heart just skips a bit.

"Mr. Cruz, let me go. I need to work." Meredith said, almost stammering.

"Stop provoking me, Miss Quinn or you will know how big my ego is and he pushes his hips on her body making her feel what happens in his pants right now.

"You scoundrel!" Meredith yelled and tried to slap him without caring that she had a strong alpha in front of her, because right now Max is harassing her by taking advantage of his power.

But in the second minute, Max grabbed her hand and, running his hand under her ass, lifted her off the ground, forcing her to put her free hand around his neck.

And when he feels her arm around his neck he immediately bends down and kisses her again with force and passion, letting himself be carried away by the passion that the mate bond creates in him.

And if at the beginning Meredith tries to push him and free herself from his kiss, after a while she just melted in his arms, under the assault of his kisses, until she started to respond to his kiss.

But right then Max remembers that he doesn't want her and coming to his senses he break away from her and say:

"My ego is this big. And next time when you respond to my kisses remember this. I am the supreme leader in this company and I take what I want , when I want! " and he leaves her on her feet and goes out.

Meredith just looks at him and feeling completely humiliated she swears in her heart and immediately begins to gather her personal belongings from the office.

Cara sees her almost crying and asks in panic:

"What happened?"

"I quit, Cara!" she said and hid her face so that the other colleagues wouldn't have to see her tears, but everyone knows how draconian Max can be when he's in a bad mood, so they can only be sad that such a beautiful woman will no longer be their colleague.

"What?" Cara asks in panic. "Then I quit too!" she said. "I do not want to be here without you. I will lose myself again. "

And together they go directly to the human resources department.

"I am so sorry because you are leaving the company so soon, Miss Quinn," said the HR director. "You too Miss Lewis."

"You've been here as a chief for two days and we have already won an important project. The department will miss both of you."

"I'm sorry too, Miss Lin" Meredith said and looking at Cara they left the company in a rush.

"What shall I do from now on?" Cara asked a little bit panicked not knowing if this is the right decision.

"We will see, right now don't worry. We have enough money to live in peace, and if we will not find a job soon we will go to my father's pack and we will work there. You will like my parents," said Meredith, reassuring Cara as they boarded a taxi.

But right then Meredith's phone started to ring.

"Is it him?" Cara asks.

"Who else?" Meredith begins to laugh. "I suppose that Madam Lin gave him the news".

"I am afraid of him, Meredith. What if he takes revenge on us?" Cara asks.

"I am not. The only thing that bothers me is that I have to ask James for five million dollars to give to this bastard. What's worse is that he made me feel insignificant again.. Just like he did when we were married.

"I hate Sam!" Cara said. "I am glad that finally I broke all the ties with him and that I will not see him again. It hurts too much to see him every day and to know that I am not enough for him. "

"He will regret it, Cara!" Meredith said. "I know his type of werewolf, strong and arrogant, who thinks that he deserves all the things in the world, but in the end he will find out that he has a missing piece in his happy puzzle" and looking at Cara she says:

"And that piece is you. Have faith, he will pay for his deads. "

And Cara put her head on Meredith's shoulders letting her tears flow on her face watching the screen of Meredith's phone light up continuously.

"Will you answer him?"

"No," she closed her phone.
