

168 Chapter 168 Please, don't kill me!

Author's POV 1

It was all like a click. You know what I am telling you about? That moment when the world stops moving around you and the movements freeze , everything disappears and in the center of everything is only you. You just stay there , like a very bored spectator analyze everything.

Meredith just looks around her and she can't ask herself:

"Artemis, What the hell is going on?"

"I will honestly say that I have no idea!" and Artemis activates all her senses fearing that there is some magic around.

"Max..." Meredith whispers remembering that he is wounded and she runs directly to where he lays on the ground, helped by Sam and Luke. He is looking in her direction and he just stays like a statue. His eyes are so scared that it breaks her heart.

"Oh,...Max" she said and tears started to flow down her face. "I am here, don't be scared, everything will be alright "and kneeling near his wounded body she kissed his lips.

"Please, just get well" and she looks around again. Everything is static.

"I don't get it?" she whispers. "This is not normal. Did I die?"

"That jerk didn't even touch us. We must be alive!" and Artemis makes Meredith go in front of Manganiello and growls in his nose.

"I think he is the one who's dead!" and she growls again.

"Stop it, Artemis. just focus!" But just as she said that someone touched her arm and she jumped in the air, turned and flexed her arm ready to punch the person who was behind her. But there is no one.

"So you yelled at me, you even threatened me and cursed me and now you are at the next level. You want to punch in the face the Moon Goddess!" she hears a voice behind her.

"Shit!" Meredith whispered and she turned a little, closing an eye.

"Shit, shit, shit!" she continued and slapped her head.

"So, I can go back to heaven?" the Moon Goddess asked laughing.

"Look, I am sorry but I am here in the middle of a very shitty situation and I must kill this jerk and go back to my family." and she is damned furious.

"You asked for help, Meredith. You asked for powers. Are you ready to have them?"

"So you will help me?" and she is just looking again at Max.

"Save him. This is the only thing I want from you. To know that he will live." and she wipes her tears.

"What about you, Meredith?" the goddess asked watching her closely.

"Of course I want to live too, but if you need to choose, choose him!"

"Oh...Meredith. What am I going to do with you?" the Moon Goddess asked.

"You are already beyond powerful, you can't even imagine. You are two wolves in one don't you see it? A royal and a primordial. You didn't even try your force and you are asking for more?" and the goddess laughs.

"I want to break this jerk in pieces, he killed my parents, he hunted me like an animal, threatened my family and my friends. I just want to break him!"

"So do it." the goddess simply say it.

"Now?" and she looked at the statue of Manganiello and wanted to end this but in the end she said.

"It's too simple , goddess. I want him to suffer."

"That's more like it. " and she touched Meredith's face.

"You can do it, darling. have trust in you and in Artemis. He is not a match for you."

"He was for mom and dad."

"They were already weakened by the hunting. They hid him for six months. It was complicated. But you can change everything. I told you last time we talked,that nothing seems what it looks like. This is your chance , Meredith."

"I just want you to help ,Max. Help him and I will be able to focus and end this."

"You are annoying Meredith Cruz," the goddess said, smiling. "But fine, I will heal him!"

"Now, please!" Meredith said and pointed at Max.

"Jesus!" The goddess yelled and she walked to Max, touched his wound and he was healed.

"Now you are fine? Can we end this?" and the goddess came again closer to her.

"Thank you." and Meredith bowed her head in front of the goddess.

"I like the bold Meredith, so this is not needed. You are my daughter. Sometimes we have arguments in our family, but we don't hold grudges, are we clear?" the goddess jokes with her.

"We are!" and Meredith went in front of Manganiello and looked at him. This man is the perfect soldier. He is perfect in any way. Handsome, tall, good trained, smart...but is just the wrapping...the interior is broken, there is nothing.

"Are you ready?" the goddess asked.

"Why is he so mean? What did I do to him to make him hate me so much?"

"You did nothing. It is just his sick head." and the goddess started to walk away. "End this Meredith. I have great plans and this is keeping me in place!" and the goddess disappeared.

"What plans?" Meredith asked.

"i want to go to Bali!" she heard a voice from the sky.

She took a step back and looked at Manganiello who suddenly started to laugh.

"till death!" he yelled again just from the place where the movie stopped before the goddess showed up.

“Who’s death?” Meredith asked , mocking him, and she hears Max yelling at her to stop, but using her command she puts everyone in their places, even Max:

“ Stay still!” she said.

“ What an impossible woman!” Max growled and he looked down at his wound and saw that he was miraculously healed. “What the...” and stopping in his tracks just looks at Meredith, who is smiling at him.

“I love you” she mindlinks him and punches Manganiello directly in his face, because the jerk tried a dirty move, while she was not watching him.

“So you are cheating!” Meredith said and punched him again, this time facing him.

“Let’s try another way” and she smiles at Manganiello, but is not her smile is a diabolical smile that made Manganiello fear for the first time in his life.

No one punched him. Never in his life. He killed her parents and he thought that with her will be the same.

“Ohhh.. Pete!!!!!!” Meredith said “You didn’t tell him? He seems a little bit confused”

“Tell me what?” and Manganiello takes a step back trying to think of a way to end this.

"I am not just a royal" and she starts to walk to him, while he continues to walk with his back. "I am a primordial wolf too!"

"Primordial are an invention!" Manganiello shouted.

"Well...surprise!" and she jumps in the air and transforms, letting Artemis stay in wolf form in front of Manganiello and if he was scared before, now he is damned dead.

"Go away!" he shouted at her and took a stone and hit Artemis in her head, but she feel almost nothing.

"You killed my parents!" Meredith said using Artemis but Manganiello is not able to articulate anything else.

"And for that your punishment will be DEATH!"

And she jumps on him and she is ripping his left arms, making him scream in pain.

"You tried to kill my husband" and she rips another arm. "And if you ask me, the punishment is again ...death,"

Manganiello unbalanced and collapsed to the ground.

"Please...go away!" he cried. "I didn't know what you are”

“What would have changed if you would have known?” and she transforms in human forms and hits him in his chest, breaks through his flesh and she holds his heart in her hand , squeezing it.

“Don't faint , you fucking jerk!” she growled at him while she is riding him and hold his heart.

“I would have killed you again and again, for all your crimes, but I can't. I would have liked to make you live all your crimes on your own skin but again I can't. Unfortunately I can kill you only once, so now, just before ending your pointless existence, mark my words!” and she bends a little and slaps him to open his eyes because he almost fainted.

Manganiello looked in her eyes and he whispered:

“Please, don't kill me”

“Ohh..”she whispered, looking sorry for him.

“Ok..I will let you live” and she gets up to the shock of everyone but after two steps she elongates her claws and in one move she detaches Manganiello's head from his body.

“Ups...I lied!”
